Police Thwart Anti-War Protestors

ANTI-WAR DEMONSTRATION. NEW YORK (AP)—Masses of shouting antiwar demonstrators were frustrated by police today in their second attempt to disrupt processing at an armed forces induction center in Lower Manhattan.

Discouraged demonstration leaders were divided on whether to try again Thursday, as planned.

Today's protest was marked by scattered fights between marchers and pedestrians before the demonstration broke up at midmorning.

Unable to break through police barriers, the demonstrators left the induction center at 39 Whitehall St. and joined other bands roving streets in the area, probing in the words of one police official, "for a weak spot."

Nearly a score of arrests were reported by 8 a.m.

The morning demonstration marked the second round of protest aimed at shutting down the center. It was part of a national "Stop the Draft Week" project sponsored by a coalition of some 50 antiwar and civil rights groups.

More than 1,000 persons took part Tuesday. Estimates of the crowd today were put at about 2,000—but an exact determination was made difficult by the moving nature of the demonstration.

At the induction center a spokesman said the Army would not give out figures but added that "the normal scheduled amount came in."

The full 28,000-man Police Department was on standby alert today and their massed ranks seemed to discourage the protestors.

"I don't know what we've done, but we're getting nowhere," said one of the protest leaders over a bullhorn.

As the group gathered in Battery Park before dawn newsmen spotted about 300 plainclothes policemen, identifiable by their green lapel buttons. When the marchers moved out several removed their buttons and joined the ranks.

One demonstrator carried a Viet Cong flag and others shouted "Don't go, don't go!" at a group of inductees entering the center.

Today's demonstrators were generally younger than those Tuesday. Sponsors of the demonstration today said they would use tactics "inspired" by an Oct. 16 antidraft protest in Oakland, Calif., where vehicles were set on fire and missiles thrown.

Police outnumbered the 1,000 demonstrators who turned out Tuesday for the first of four planned protests at the center. They failed in their attempt to shut down the center but 264 of their number were arrested.

Those included pediatrician Benjamin Spock, poet Alan Ginsberg, former Irish diplomat Conor Cruise O'Brien, critic Susan Sontag, novelist Terry Southern and urban design critic Jane Jacobs.

Estimates of the demonstration's effectiveness varied. Lt. Col. James J. McPoland, commander of the Whitehall Street center called it "a big zero" but a leader of one of the sponsoring groups termed it a "success much greater than we anticipated."

David McReynolds,field secretary for the War Resisters League founded after World War I, said only 50 to 75 arrests had been expected. He found it encouraging that so many were willing to be arrested as a symbolic protest against the draft.

The New York demonstration was part of a so-called "Stop the Draft Week" which included demonstrations in cities from coast to coast beginning Monday.

A 54-year-old East Liverpool man died at City Hospital Tuesday night at 6:55, just a little more than an hour after he was injured in a collision between a Midland man's pickup truck and a Beechwood woman's auto on the River Rd.

The victim, Otto Jenkins of 217 W. 2nd St., was a passenger in a 1966 half-ton pickup truck operated by James K. Kolar, 42, of 1106 Beaver Ave., Midland, which was involved in a crash with a 1964 sedan driven by Mrs. Wanda E. Wilson, 34, of 321 Center St., Beechwood, who also was injured.

She is in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with contusions of the ribs and jaw.

Dr. Roy Costello, assistant Columbiana County coroner in ruling the death a traffic fatality, said Mr. Jenkins died of head and internal injuries.

KOLAR TOLD police he was driving west about 30 miles an hour. The Beechwood woman said her eastbound car was stopped at the time of the crash. She asserted she could see nothing but the glare of headlights from the oncoming vehicle, police reported.

The woman said she pulled as far as possible toward the right side of the road in an attempt to avoid a crash. Kolar told police he was attempting to avoid holes in the pavement and saw the car too late to avoid a collision. Police said no skid marks were found on the blacktop pavement, but tracks left on the roadway by the pickup truck indicated it was left of the center line.

Patrolman James W. Woods, who investigated, cited Kolar on a charge of driving left of center. The collision was timed at 5:23.

Kolar was arraigned on the traffic charge this morning be-

Two More Firms Hike Steel Prices

Republic, Armco Boost Cold Rolled Sheets $5 Per Ton

BULLETIN

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Top-ranked U.S. Steel corp., leader of the latest round of steel price hikes, announced today its second increase within a week. It raised galvanized and aluminum coated sheets by $5 a ton.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The new wave of steel price hikes has spread to two more big companies and may move into two more product lines.

Boosts of $5 a ton on cold rolled sheets were made Tuesday by Republic Steel Corp. and Armco Steel Corp. Armco went further, also increasing galvanized sheet and strip by $4 a ton.

Industry sources here feel the boosts on cold rolled sheets, plus the two other items raised by Armco, will spread throughout the industry.

Steels on which prices were increased go into a host of consumer products, including autos and appliances. They also are used in the production of storage tanks and industrial machinery.

Steel industry observers believe the boosts will stick. They feel the Johnson administration's reaction was comparatively mild on the increases on cold rolled sheets, and say the current booming steel market will be able to sustain the boosts.

If all of the increases do hold, it will mean that prices this year will have been boosted on about 80 per cent of all steel shipments. The latest increases pushed prices up about 3 per cent.

The hike on cold rolled steel was initiated Friday by U.S. Steel Corp., the nation's biggest producer. Bethlehem Steel Corp., the second biggest steelmaker, quickly followed suit. Republic is the third largest steel producer.

A question remains as to what effect the increases will have on new car prices. Detroit isn't saying.

Contract Awarded

Spring Start Scheduled For New City Post Office

Construction is expected to start early in the spring for East Liverpool's new Post Office on Dresden Ave., the U. S. Postal Department at Washington announced this morning.

McClorey and McClorey of Cincinnati has been awarded the contract for building the new one - story structure at Dresden Ave. and Smith St.

The firm bid $35,999 annually for the 20-year lease on the project which includes purchase of the 50,000 square foot tract.

The new building will have 16,487 square feet of space inside, 1,240 square feet of platform area and 21,046 square feet of parking facilities.

The building will face Dresden Ave. and have parking areas at the side and rear, and the loading platform will be at the rear.

Automatic doors for the patron entrance and working entrance are planned.

The Postal Department currently owns the tract which was obtained from the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., Armour Co. and heirs of the Hardwick estate through the Community Improvement Corp.

The leasing arrangement is part of the Postal Department policy, replacing the longtime practice of department ownership of buildings.

Preparations for replacing the present Post Office at Broadway and 5th St., long overcrowded, began a number of years ago.

A W. 7th St. site was tentatively selected, but the Dresden Ave. tract was obtained after long negotiations because it was believed to be better located.

Only one bid was received at the initial opening, and it was ruled invalid, and bids were again sought.

McClorey & McClorey and several others submitted offers in September.

Second Of Two Sessions Held

'Followup' Will Be Held On Development Seminar

Community representatives throughout Columbiana County, following a two - day seminar on community development, Tuesday, agreed to hold a followup session in a few months to evaluate progress.

About 45 attended the second of the seminars at the First Methodist Church in Lisbon, at which such problems as industrial development, sewer and water programs, recreation projects and solid waste disposal were aired in group discussions.

Dr. Howard Phillips of Ohio State University discussed "Communications for Community Development" and Dr. David Jenkins of OSU leadership for development at the morning session.

Dr. James Coke, director of the Center of Urban Regionalism at Kent State University, discussed "Modernizing Local Government" for the luncheon.

DURING SEPARATE afternoon meetings, group speakers included Ray Schindler, extension agent for community resource development at Hillsboro, sewage and water; John Pierce, extension specialist for OSU, recreation; D. E. Snow, industrial representative from the Ohio Edison Co., industrial development, and Donald Day, Ohio Health Department, solid waste disposal.

Dr. Phillips pointed out the need for effective communication between communities for development, citing the awareness of competition between towns and cities which, unless there is fair play in normal competition, can result in conflict.

He said there is a need for a broader understanding by leaders of the interdependence of communities, and to indicate to people the requirements for specific action. "People are not actually apathetic to community problems," he siad, "if they can be shown the true need and value of a new and different course. But they must have confidence in their leaders and know that the new way is an improvement over the old."

Dr. Jenkins outlined the requirements for leadership in terms of meeting a group's needs and goals. With respect to industrial development, he said industry wants markets, materials and manpower, and any community which desires to attract new industry must have a workable plan and an aggressive leadership.

Antipoverty Bill Okayed By Conferees

WASHINGTON (AP) — House and Senate conferees have produced a compromise antipoverty bill after 11 days of hard bargaining but the measure still faces a bumpy road through Congress.

The compromise version agreed to Tuesday would put public officials instead of private citizens in charge of Community Action programs while continuing the over-all antipoverty program at authorized spending levels of $1.98 billion in fiscal 1968 and $2.16 billion in 1969.

The measure still must win final approval from a Senate that won't like the shift in control of community programs and a House that won't like the level of spending.

Senate action is possible late this week but the House won't take it up until next week.

In the prolonged bargaining sessions the conferees engaged in a tug-of-war over the provision in the House-passed bill that would make Community Action agencies official arms of the state or local government. Most are now private, nonprofit agencies.

"That was the real tough nut," said Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa.. chairman of the Senate conferees, summing up the conference after Tuesday night's agreement.

W.Va. Liquor Chief Indicted In Tax Case

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginia Alcohol Beverage Control Commissioner Clarence C. Elmore was indicted by a federal grand jury here today on charges of evading $5,759 in federal income taxes.

The indictment accuses Elmore of paying $1,331 in income taxes on $6,992 income for 1962 when he should have paid $4,073 on income of $16,772.

In 1963 he is charged with remitting $2,253 on income of $9,792 when he should have paid $5,270 on total income of $19,658.

Commissioners Disagree

Jail Razing Bid Rejected In Hancock County Fight

By TOM FUTHEY

A disagreement Tuesday between the two commissioners involved has resulted in rejecting of bids for the demolition of the present Hancock County Jail at New Cumberland and the call for new bids.

After President Jack Evans had disqualified himself from acting on the matter yesterday, Commissioners Edward Nogay and William C. Graham were unable to reach an accord, with Nogay — "only to resolve the stalemate" — finally seconding a motion by Graham to advertise for new bids.

New bids will be accepted until noon Jan. 9 with the commissioners scheduled to meet that night at 7:30.

During yesterday's discussion, Nogay twice attempted to have the lowest bid accepted — that of a Follansbee firm — but each time his motion died for lack of a second.

The Jones Plumbing and Heating Co. of Follansbee had agreed to tear down the building for $5,840 when bids were received in November, but the commissioners delayed action at the time to consult with the county architect on the project to determine if the company was bondable and had all necessary insurance. It was the lowest bid.

Yesterday, commissioners learned the company is bondable and carries the required liability insurance to complete the job.

When the project came up for discussion, Evans disqualified himself from the proceedings saying "there might be a conflict of interests" involved. That

'It's Just Not Right,' Low Bidder Declares

"It's not right!" That was the comment today of Paul W. Jones of the Jones Plumbing and Heating Co. of Follansbee relative to failure of Hancock County commissioners to accept his low bid on the demolition of the county jail at New Cumberland.

Jones said he spent a good deal of time and went to considerable trouble to prepare the bid.

He told The Review he never was notified if the commissioners had received his bid, but recalled his secretary saying the commissioners had called to ask about insurance. He said they were referred to his insurance company.

He said he was told Monday he had two days to "get the insurance people in there" for a discussion.

He said a representative of the insurance underwriters was in Follansbee this morning and planned to visit the Courthouse today relative to the situation.

Carmichael Given OK To Enter France

PARIS (AP) — U.S. Black Power advocate Stokely Carmichael was allowed to enter France today after being held overnight at Orly Airport by police as an "undesirable foreigner."

There was no immediate explanation for the reversal by higher authorities at the police decision.

Carmichael came to Paris from Stockholm to address a rally tonight opposing the Vietnam war. The U.S. Embassy said it made no attempt to have him banned from France.

Extra Hours Announced At Post Office

Expanded service this coming Saturday and Sunday has been announced at the post office here to help alleviate the holiday mailing problem.

Postmaster Samuel W. Brown said that on Saturday the stamp windows, which normally close at noon, will remain open until 4 p.m. and the money order window, which normally is closed all day Saturday, will be open from 9 a.m. until noon.

On Sunday, one stamp window will be in operation from noon to 4 p. m.

In asking that residents take full advantage of the extra hours, Brown pointed out that "Christmas being on Monday this year, there will be no deliveries at all on Sunday the 24th in accordance with instructions from the Post Office Department at Washington. Therefore, we must have everything out and cleaned up on Saturday the 23rd. People must mail now if they expect us to keep up with the volume and get all parcels and cards delivered before Christmas."

Brown pointed out that mail on Monday of this week was heavier than the usual first-of-the month volume, indicating that some users of the mail are cooperating fully in an effort to ease the load for the postal department.

Therefore, we must have everything out and cleaned up on Saturday the 23rd. People must mail now if they expect us to keep up with the volume and get all parcels and cards delivered before Christmas."

Brown pointed out that mail on Monday of this week was heavier than the usual first-of-the month volume, indicating that some users of the mail are cooperating fully in an effort to ease the load for the postal department.

Carmichael Given OK To Enter France

PARIS (AP) — U.S. Black Power advocate Stokely Carmichael was allowed to enter France today after being held overnight at Orly Airport by police as an "undesirable foreigner."

There was no immediate explanation for the reversal by higher authorities at the police decision.

Carmichael came to Paris from Stockholm to address a rally tonight opposing the Vietnam war. The U.S. Embassy said it made no attempt to have him banned from France.

Hot Stuff?

It must have been a real hot program!

The William Kidders of 1572 Etruria St. forgot to turn off the television set when they went to bed last night.

At 4:09 a.m. today, they were awakened by the smell of smoke. Firemen were summoned and found the television had developed a short circuit.

Possibly, one of those late, late, late shows, adult in nature, was just too much for old tubes!

The State Of HaBeCol . . .

The U.S.A., it was suggested at a community development seminar at Lisbon Tuesday, could well use a sort of model state in which various urbanization practices, local government revision, taxation reforms and other programs might be tested

Outmoded and inefficient government operations, the hodge - podge of education systems, blighted neighborhoods, the restricting legislation of the 19th Century could be replaced by spanking new procedures fitting present and future needs, all with help from the federal governments and the cooperating states in the interest in devising a truly modern workable state and local way of democratic living.

And what better area to create such a new pilot state that southern Columbiana County, northern West Virginia and western Beaver County?

We are so very interdependent, have three different governmental approaches, reflect a wide range of ethnic groups, include rural and urban interests, agriculture and industrial economies, are handy to Washington and three state capitals but not close enough to be affected by bureaucratic whims, and need the help, not just in terms of money.

Those who look closely at the political structures in which we operate, where economic interests cut across state lines or are stopped at other artificial boundaries, wonder at the success of many of our efforts.

Elsewhere across this nation, local government is caught in a welter of restrictions imposed by early arbitrary property lines, operating techniques handed down from the days of Robin Hood, and the image of "politics" which Americans tend to consider as a second class career.

Dr. James Coke of Kent State University's urbanization center pointed out the operation of local government rightfully belongs to the professional administrator, planner, engineer, fire and police officials, sanitarians, health authorities, and these people deserve the respect and salary in line with their wide responsibilities.

Further, he declared, significant changes ought to be effective services and operations in line with modern times.

Well, we're ready to try 'em, and many of our people, although perhaps reluctant to part with the fine programs of the West Virginia Road Commission, or to give up the overzealous partisanship in Pennsylvania or sacrifice the sub-par per pupil education expenditures in Columbiana County, are also ready.

Let's see, what shall we call ourselves? HaBeCol?

Wait For The 1970 Census

Ohio has another redistricting headache — congressional districts this time. The U.S. Supreme Court doesn't like the existing districts.

We are in general agreement with the idea that courts should put burrs under the tails of politicians who neglect to keep legislative districts in balance.

Politicians are as reluctant to tackle redistricting as poker players would be reluctant to change seats in the middle of a winning streak. They are the last people on earth to be trusted with guardianship of representative democracy — yet they alone can do it.

When they fail, or when they do it wrong, courts are the people's recourse. But courts fall short of perfection, too.

A U.S. Supreme Court ruling that Ohio must redistrict buckity-buckity before next year's election procedures start grinding is arbitrary and impossible to honor.

The judges who issued the ruling should be mindful of a central fact that evaded some of them — the central fact that another decennial census is due in 1970.

The 1960 census results now are seven years old. They are obsolete. Figures that purport to be up to date are unofficial. Consequently, any redistricting attempted now on the basis of seven-year-old figures would be futile. It would be out of date before the public had learned where the new districts are.

We must defer in all things and in all ways to the judgment of courts when the time comes for judges to lay down the law. This is the way it's done under a government of law.

But in this instance the law must be interpreted in the best possible light under the practice of using reports of the decennial census for legislative apportionment.

Census reports will not be available until after 1970. Why not wait until then so a new plan of apportionment can start off on the right foot and hopefully stay in step the rest of this century?

We Need To Be Reassured

All the emphasis in Britain's money-value crisis has been on devaluation of the pound sterling in international exchange.

But long before the devaluation crisis and certain to linger on indefinitely is an acute problem in British industrial productivity.

The cold truth is that the country which introduced industrialism to the world has failed to keep step with other industrial societies.

The country that gave rise to the modern version of labor unionism and is accustomed to political rule by representatives of labor-union strength in British affairs is grappling with some unpleasant truths about labor unionism.

The most unpleasant truth is that the ageless rule of corruption by power applies to powerful labor unions, just as it applies to powerful government and powerful industry. All power corrupts — and absolute power corrupts absolutely.

The modern industrial world needs to be reassured sometime, somewhere, by someone that labor unions can be farsighted about the welfare of their own members and the society in which the members live.

There is a desperate need in Britain especially for industrial statesmanship.

Strikes that periodically cripple British productivity must be curbed for the common good. Work rules that minimize productivity must be revised.

Currently, British life is being gummed up and knocked askew by a railroad strike — precisely the kind of blow Britain is least able to endure at this rocky moment in its endeavors to.

Everybody Should Say Cheese

No news from Washington has been more welcome than President Johnson's wisecracks about Lynda's wedding this Saturday to Marine Capt. William Douglas Davidson.

The President is reported to have said George Woods resigned as president of the World Bank because he was asked for a small loan to cover wedding costs.

On another occasion, he commented that one thing about living in the White House is that no one thinks it's cheap when a daughter in the family gets married at home.

Besides, he added, he hasn't had any recent reason to want to go back to a church after the lambasting he took from that preacher at Williamsburg.

We can be sure Mr. Johnson will be chided for showing levity in these grave times. We can be sure his critics will accuse him of laughing out of turn.

What we cannot be sure of is that the American people still have the sense of humor that has pulled them through some tough passages in history. There has been lately so much grimness and anger that one wonders if the gift of laughter has been mislaid.

For obvious reasons, no one in officialdom is supposed to look pleasant while a war is going on, spreading grief in thousands of families here and in Vietnam.

But couldn't there be a special dispensation next Saturday while Lynda is being married?

Couldn't everybody just say "Cheese" for the photographers and look happy?

After all, the father of the bride seems to have retained enough sense of proportion to entitle himself to an occasional chuckle.

TRUMAN TWILL

Purely Personal Observations

It may not comfort you but it comforts me to think that now it is midsummer in the Southern Hemisphere, with green grass growing all around, all around, blue skies overhead and everything delovely.

threatens to strong-arm me I threaten to go to Asia, become a Buddhist monk and immolate myself — and she says she will help me pack the few things I will be needing in case I mean it—including a lighter.

Religionists must wish that puckish George Bernard Shaw never had written "Saint Joan" in the first place and that in the second place his satirical play, devastating to people who claim to be official spokesmen of the Almighty, would be limited to one production every other century.

My advice to Mayor Stokes of Cleveland: Develop laryngitis to keep from outlining programs you would like to put into effect. Every statement can turn into a chicken that will fly home to roost someday.

This country needs a good definition of politics. I think it is the art of making people think they are being taken care of by political leadership, even if it means fooling some of them all the time, which isn't hard to do.

It bugs me when commentators make it appear auto drivers must be getting worse because there are more traffic accidents. U.S. autoists are incredibly skillful and getting better. The accident rate rises intermittently because more cars and more drivers travel longer distances day by day.

The difference between this war and previous wars is that this is the first time we ever gave two thoughts to the moral implicaions. Some people gave one thought to it during the Spanish-American War, but they made no impression at the time.

When Christmas comes again, I remember how I bought objets d'art in brass for my lady friends before one became my constant companion. I thought brass was fool-proof, because it wasn't precious.

It has been a year since the Twills went to Italy for Christmas, and among outstanding memories are the beauty of Christmas decorations in Italian cities and the happiness of Italian families shopping together — papa, mama and the bambinos.

The New York Times put its typographical finger on a key question with this headline: "Is That McCarthy's Hat in the Ring, or Kennedy's?" The two men are close friends.

Reception Committee?

Labor Cash Flow Is Probed

VICTOR RIESEL

WASHINGTON — If the international gold pool needs swift support during the monetary crisis, it always can turn to a series of regional labor officials who appear well supplied with an ample cash flow directly from their union treasury. That's if the Justice Dept.'s Racketeering Section doesn't get there first.

Victor Riesel

From Miami to the Mississippi to Massachusetts, federal investigators are probing what they believe to be the looting of labor organizations to the jingling tune of hundreds of thousands of dollars by union men who besmirch their trust.

Thus it goes 10 years (almost to the day) after the sprawling Teamsters union was ousted from the AFL-CIO when President George Meany put down his cold cigar and picked up a hot gavel and charged the Brotherhood with corruption. But labor's national leaders believe they have cleaned up at least one infected, boiling mess.

As they prepare for their Constitutional Convention, they say that today there is not a single national or international union which is corrupt or dominated by underworld influences. They have buried their national Ethical Practices Committee because "it is now up to the government to clean up down below, for, after all, the government has the power to subpoena and go before grand juries. We don't."

And down below there appears to be much to clean up. The Racketeering Section of the Justice Dept. is trying. At the moment it is presenting evidence to a federal grand jury in Newark, N.J., in an effort to indict those responsible for what appears to be the disappearance of at least $100,000 or perhaps as much as $250,000 from the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE).

Tall, handsome David Satz, the regional U.S. Attorney who looks like a TV-type prosecutor, is "going in" now week after week with what the government says is evidence of an unexplained five-year cash flow out of the union's treasury.

THERE ARE UNVOUCHERED checks drawn on the IUE's big New York-New Jersey District Three organization, ranging anywhere from $700 to $7000. Some checks marked pension fund are for $5,000. Many totaling some $60,000 are unsupported by effective vouchers. There is payment for everything from a $560 pipe (for smoking not fitting) to $11,000 for restaurant tabs.

Involved are two former District Three officials, the district's ex-secretary Frank Iozzi and its former president Milton Weihrauch. Counsel for Weihrauch is famed criminal lawyer, Ed Bennett Williams, sportsman and still house counsel for the Teamsters Brotherhood. As befits his station he comes high.

It must be reported taht IUE President Paul Jennings, a member of the virtually defunct AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee, moved swiftly to impeach, and oust the offenders by recall vote.

But this is only one front. The Justice Dept. has opened another. It is probing New England labor for the first time. There the department's labor desk is looking into sections of the Operating Engineers in search of the conversion of permit men's fees. A permit man is one who generally comes from outside areas and must pay a daily or weekly fee for each day or week worked in the jurisdiction of the home local.

THERE ARE OTHER federal probes, some are heading for a grand jury, some are in the early stages, some are in the hands of authorities outside the Racketeering section. Among the unions being microscoped are locals of the Laborers (in Florida) the Teamsters (in Philadelphia), the Pipefitters (in St. Louis) and unions on some waterfronts.

In Toledo (O.) there also is deep interest in the activities of Dick Gosser, until recently a vice president of the United Auto Workers.

Most fascinating scalpel probing of all is the Justice Dept.'s investigation of the political, insurance and pension funds of some St. Louis unions.

There are other investigations. But there is more virtue in not tipping off the cash flow-fellows than in publicly reporting to them that the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section is doing more than counting errant dollars. The department is seeking ties of some locals to the Cosa Nostra. Let no one be surprised when the headlines break.

Ask one of the AFL-CIO's Ethical Practices Committee's veteran members why labor itself doesn't police its own movement and you will hear quite forcefully:

"We don't have the power of subpoena. Our committee was virtually put out of business in 1959 when the Landrum-Griffin Labor-Management Disclosure Act was passed. This gave the federal government full authority to investigate local and national unions. The act took the policing out of our hands and put it in the lap of the government agencies. Now it is their responsiblity."

Now all that's needed is a new cash flow — more money for the Federal law enforcement agencies. They are impoverished for money and manpower. The looters are not.

Why?

This 'n That

The most distant point in water from land in the world is a spot in the South Pacific, which is about 1,600 miles from the nearest points of land — namely Pitcairn Island, Ducie Island and Cape Dart, Antarctica.

The first defeat in the history of an English squadron took place in the War of 1812, when the British were defeated by an American naval force at the Battle of Lake Erie.

The population of the world has increased about 50 per cent in the last 30 years.

Guessing Game

In these days of devious politics, the country may well wonder what is back of the announced intention of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota to enter the presidential primaries in an effort to take the nomination away from President Johnson at the 1968 national convention of the Democratic Party.

Is the strategy intended to help Sen. Robert Kennedy get the vice-presidential nomination? Is it designed to mobilize the anti-Vietnam War sentiment? Will it in the end help LBJ?

These questions are being asked, but nobody is able to provide answers, because the real motivation for this unexpected revolt inside the Democratic Party has not been made clear, either by its sponsors or anybody else involved in the movement.

The close relationship between Sen. McCarthy and Sen. Kennedy of New York makes it logical to assume such a step would not have been taken without the latter's acquiescence.

The Kennedys have the money and political contacts in many states to line up delegates even for a man who has not won any leadership position in his own party in Congress and is relatively unknown throughout the country.

If the Kennedy forces are behind Sen. McCarthy, what is the game? Is it a form of political pressure designed ultimately to pressure Mr. Johnson into dumping Hubert Humphrey as vice-presidential nominee?

THE MANEUVER certainly seems to have no convincing reason for being launched.

After all, it is customary for a political party to renominate its incumbent president. Lyndon Johnson was not only Democratic majority leader of the Senate for many years, but he was chosen for the vice-presidential nomination in 1960 by the party's presidential candidate, John F. Kennedy.

It is taken for granted that Robert Kennedy wants to be president some day. If he cannot become the vice-presidential nominee in 1968, it may be some of his supporters would not mind risking defeat of President Johnson and thus pave the way for the leadership of the party by the New York senator in preparation for the 1972 contest.

But, whatever the purpose in producing a schism inside the Democratic Party, it doesn't make political sense to give Republicans the benefit of such a division.

While President Johnson has been under considerable attack for his Vietnam policy, he has a chance in the preconvention debate on Vietnam against Sen. McCarthy to gain strength and to offset the effects of the Republican criticism — which thus far has not been too clear-cut.

Some potential Republican candidates express their agreement in principle with the Vietnam War but say they differ on how it is being fought.

This is a point difficult to get across to the voters, most of whom would like to have the war ended early but are not too sure they want to see it intensified and casualties increased.

It wouldn't be surprising to see Republicans eventually shifting their main emphasis to domestic discontent.

THUS, THEY may build their case on questions such as crime, riots, cost of living and inflation, rather than on a war which might be looking better from the American viewpoint by next summer than it does today.

Altogether, Sen. McCarthy's candidacy would appear on the surface to be a spectacular affair. But it may turn out to be as inconsequential politically as the efforts of another Minnesota man — former Gov. Harold E. Stassen — who in different presidential years has engaged in Republican primaries but has never gotten very far.

Lyndon Johnson must be viewing the entire scene with equanimity. He has no genuine cause for worry. He will be renominated by an overwhelming vote of the delegates, because federal patronage is stronger than state organizations.

Meanwhile, the President isn't sure whether Bobby Kennedy as a running mate would be a political liability or an asset. But there is plenty of time to survey public opinion on this point.

There is no need to decide the question before the Democratic National Convention assembles.

The State Of HaBeCol . . .

The U.S.A., it was suggested at a community development seminar at Lisbon Tuesday, could well use a sort of model state in which various urbanization practices, local government revision, taxation reforms and other programs might be tested

Outmoded and inefficient government operations, the hodge - podge of education systems, blighted neighborhoods, the restricting legislation of the 19th Century could be replaced by spanking new procedures fitting present and future needs, all with help from the federal governments and the cooperating states in the interest in devising a truly modern workable state and local way of democratic living.

And what better area to create such a new pilot state that southern Columbiana County, northern West Virginia and western Beaver County?

We are so very interdependent, have three different governmental approaches, reflect a wide range of ethnic groups, include rural and urban interests, agriculture and industrial economies, are handy to Washington and three state capitals but not close enough to be affected by bureaucratic whims, and need the help, not just in terms of money.

Those who look closely at the political structures in which we operate, where economic interests cut across state lines or are stopped at other artificial boundaries, wonder at the success of many of our efforts.

Elsewhere across this nation, local government is caught in a welter of restrictions imposed by early arbitrary property lines, operating techniques handed down from the days of Robin Hood, and the image of "politics" which Americans tend to consider as a second class career.

Dr. James Coke of Kent State University's urbanization center pointed out the operation of local government rightfully belongs to the professional administrator, planner, engineer, fire and police officials, sanitarians, health authorities, and these people deserve the respect and salary in line with their wide responsibilities.

Further, he declared, significant changes ought to be effective services and operations in line with modern times.

Well, we're ready to try 'em, and many of our people, although perhaps reluctant to part with the fine programs of the West Virginia Road Commission, or to give up the overzealous partisanship in Pennsylvania or sacrifice the sub-par per pupil education expenditures in Columbiana County, are also ready.

Let's see, what shall we call ourselves? HaBeCol?

Wait For The 1970 Census

Ohio has another redistricting headache — congressional districts this time. The U.S. Supreme Court doesn't like the existing districts.

We are in general agreement with the idea that courts should put burrs under the tails of politicians who neglect to keep legislative districts in balance.

Politicians are as reluctant to tackle redistricting as poker players would be reluctant to change seats in the middle of a winning streak. They are the last people on earth to be trusted with guardianship of representative democracy — yet they alone can do it.

When they fail, or when they do it wrong, courts are the people's recourse. But courts fall short of perfection, too.

A U.S. Supreme Court ruling that Ohio must redistrict buckity-buckity before next year's election procedures start grinding is arbitrary and impossible to honor.

The judges who issued the ruling should be mindful of a central fact that evaded some of them — the central fact that another decennial census is due in 1970.

The 1960 census results now are seven years old. They are obsolete. Figures that purport to be up to date are unofficial. Consequently, any redistricting attempted now on the basis of seven-year-old figures would be futile. It would be out of date before the public had learned where the new districts are.

We must defer in all things and in all ways to the judgment of courts when the time comes for judges to lay down the law. This is the way it's done under a government of law.

But in this instance the law must be interpreted in the best possible light under the practice of using reports of the decennial census for legislative apportionment.

Census reports will not be available until after 1970. Why not wait until then so a new plan of apportionment can start off on the right foot and hopefully stay in step the rest of this century?

We Need To Be Reassured

All the emphasis in Britain's money-value crisis has been on devaluation of the pound sterling in international exchange.

But long before the devaluation crisis and certain to linger on indefinitely is an acute problem in British industrial productivity.

The cold truth is that the country which introduced industrialism to the world has failed to keep step with other industrial societies.

The country that gave rise to the modern version of labor unionism and is accustomed to political rule by representatives of labor-union strength in British affairs is grappling with some unpleasant truths about labor unionism.

The most unpleasant truth is that the ageless rule of corruption by power applies to powerful labor unions, just as it applies to powerful government and powerful industry. All power corrupts — and absolute power corrupts absolutely.

The modern industrial world needs to be reassured sometime, somewhere, by someone that labor unions can be farsighted about the welfare of their own members and the society in which the members live.

There is a desperate need in Britain especially for industrial statesmanship.

Strikes that periodically cripple British productivity must be curbed for the common good. Work rules that minimize productivity must be revised.

Currently, British life is being gummed up and knocked askew by a railroad strike — precisely the kind of blow Britain is least able to endure at this rocky moment in its endeavors to.

Everybody Should Say Cheese

No news from Washington has been more welcome than President Johnson's wisecracks about Lynda's wedding this Saturday to Marine Capt. William Douglas Davidson.

The President is reported to have said George Woods resigned as president of the World Bank because he was asked for a small loan to cover wedding costs.

On another occasion, he commented that one thing about living in the White House is that no one thinks it's cheap when a daughter in the family gets married at home.

Besides, he added, he hasn't had any recent reason to want to go back to a church after the lambasting he took from that preacher at Williamsburg.

We can be sure Mr. Johnson will be chided for showing levity in these grave times. We can be sure his critics will accuse him of laughing out of turn.

What we cannot be sure of is that the American people still have the sense of humor that has pulled them through some tough passages in history. There has been lately so much grimness and anger that one wonders if the gift of laughter has been mislaid.

For obvious reasons, no one in officialdom is supposed to look pleasant while a war is going on, spreading grief in thousands of families here and in Vietnam.

But couldn't there be a special dispensation next Saturday while Lynda is being married?

Couldn't everybody just say "Cheese" for the photographers and look happy?

After all, the father of the bride seems to have retained enough sense of proportion to entitle himself to an occasional chuckle.

Purely Personal Observations

It may not comfort you but it comforts me to think that now it is midsummer in the Southern Hemisphere, with green grass growing all around, all around, blue skies overhead and everything delovely.

threatens to strong-arm me I threaten to go to Asia, become a Buddhist monk and immolate myself — and she says she will help me pack the few things I will be needing in case I mean it—including a lighter.

Religionists must wish that puckish George Bernard Shaw never had written "Saint Joan" in the first place and that in the second place his satirical play, devastating to people who claim to be official spokesmen of the Almighty, would be limited to one production every other century.

My advice to Mayor Stokes of Cleveland: Develop laryngitis to keep from outlining programs you would like to put into effect. Every statement can turn into a chicken that will fly home to roost someday.

This country needs a good definition of politics. I think it is the art of making people think they are being taken care of by political leadership, even if it means fooling some of them all the time, which isn't hard to do.

It bugs me when commentators make it appear auto drivers must be getting worse because there are more traffic accidents. U.S. autoists are incredibly skillful and getting better. The accident rate rises intermittently because more cars and more drivers travel longer distances day by day.

The difference between this war and previous wars is that this is the first time we ever gave two thoughts to the moral implicaions. Some people gave one thought to it during the Spanish-American War, but they made no impression at the time.

When Christmas comes again, I remember how I bought objets d'art in brass for my lady friends before one became my constant companion. I thought brass was fool-proof, because it wasn't precious.

It has been a year since the Twills went to Italy for Christmas, and among outstanding memories are the beauty of Christmas decorations in Italian cities and the happiness of Italian families shopping together — papa, mama and the bambinos.

The New York Times put its typographical finger on a key question with this headline: "Is That McCarthy's Hat in the Ring, or Kennedy's?" The two men are close friends.

Reception Committee?

VICTOR RIESEL

WASHINGTON — If the international gold pool needs swift support during the monetary crisis, it always can turn to a series of regional labor officials who appear well supplied with an ample cash flow directly from their union treasury. That's if the Justice Dept.'s Racketeering Section doesn't get there first.

Victor Riesel

From Miami to the Mississippi to Massachusetts, federal investigators are probing what they believe to be the looting of labor organizations to the jingling tune of hundreds of thousands of dollars by union men who besmirch their trust.

Thus it goes 10 years (almost to the day) after the sprawling Teamsters union was ousted from the AFL-CIO when President George Meany put down his cold cigar and picked up a hot gavel and charged the Brotherhood with corruption. But labor's national leaders believe they have cleaned up at least one infected, boiling mess.

As they prepare for their Constitutional Convention, they say that today there is not a single national or international union which is corrupt or dominated by underworld influences. They have buried their national Ethical Practices Committee because "it is now up to the government to clean up down below, for, after all, the government has the power to subpoena and go before grand juries. We don't."

And down below there appears to be much to clean up. The Racketeering Section of the Justice Dept. is trying. At the moment it is presenting evidence to a federal grand jury in Newark, N.J., in an effort to indict those responsible for what appears to be the disappearance of at least $100,000 or perhaps as much as $250,000 from the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE).

Tall, handsome David Satz, the regional U.S. Attorney who looks like a TV-type prosecutor, is "going in" now week after week with what the government says is evidence of an unexplained five-year cash flow out of the union's treasury.

THERE ARE UNVOUCHERED checks drawn on the IUE's big New York-New Jersey District Three organization, ranging anywhere from $700 to $7000. Some checks marked pension fund are for $5,000. Many totaling some $60,000 are unsupported by effective vouchers. There is payment for everything from a $560 pipe (for smoking not fitting) to $11,000 for restaurant tabs.

Involved are two former District Three officials, the district's ex-secretary Frank Iozzi and its former president Milton Weihrauch. Counsel for Weihrauch is famed criminal lawyer, Ed Bennett Williams, sportsman and still house counsel for the Teamsters Brotherhood. As befits his station he comes high.

It must be reported taht IUE President Paul Jennings, a member of the virtually defunct AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee, moved swiftly to impeach, and oust the offenders by recall vote.

But this is only one front. The Justice Dept. has opened another. It is probing New England labor for the first time. There the department's labor desk is looking into sections of the Operating Engineers in search of the conversion of permit men's fees. A permit man is one who generally comes from outside areas and must pay a daily or weekly fee for each day or week worked in the jurisdiction of the home local.

THERE ARE OTHER federal probes, some are heading for a grand jury, some are in the early stages, some are in the hands of authorities outside the Racketeering section. Among the unions being microscoped are locals of the Laborers (in Florida) the Teamsters (in Philadelphia), the Pipefitters (in St. Louis) and unions on some waterfronts.

In Toledo (O.) there also is deep interest in the activities of Dick Gosser, until recently a vice president of the United Auto Workers.

Most fascinating scalpel probing of all is the Justice Dept.'s investigation of the political, insurance and pension funds of some St. Louis unions.

There are other investigations. But there is more virtue in not tipping off the cash flow-fellows than in publicly reporting to them that the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section is doing more than counting errant dollars. The department is seeking ties of some locals to the Cosa Nostra. Let no one be surprised when the headlines break.

Ask one of the AFL-CIO's Ethical Practices Committee's veteran members why labor itself doesn't police its own movement and you will hear quite forcefully:

"We don't have the power of subpoena. Our committee was virtually put out of business in 1959 when the Landrum-Griffin Labor-Management Disclosure Act was passed. This gave the federal government full authority to investigate local and national unions. The act took the policing out of our hands and put it in the lap of the government agencies. Now it is their responsiblity."

Now all that's needed is a new cash flow — more money for the Federal law enforcement agencies. They are impoverished for money and manpower. The looters are not.

Guessing Game

In these days of devious politics, the country may well wonder what is back of the announced intention of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota to enter the presidential primaries in an effort to take the nomination away from President Johnson at the 1968 national convention of the Democratic Party.

Is the strategy intended to help Sen. Robert Kennedy get the vice-presidential nomination? Is it designed to mobilize the anti-Vietnam War sentiment? Will it in the end help LBJ?

These questions are being asked, but nobody is able to provide answers, because the real motivation for this unexpected revolt inside the Democratic Party has not been made clear, either by its sponsors or anybody else involved in the movement.

The close relationship between Sen. McCarthy and Sen. Kennedy of New York makes it logical to assume such a step would not have been taken without the latter's acquiescence.

The Kennedys have the money and political contacts in many states to line up delegates even for a man who has not won any leadership position in his own party in Congress and is relatively unknown throughout the country.

71 Refugees Happy To Be Free From Cuba

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Happiness for 71 refugees is a thing called freedom—freedom from Communist Cuba.

There was Juan Soto, who lost his son to a Castro firing squad and who carried all his possessions in his pockets.

And Amerco Puig, 76, who smuggled a small American flag through Cuban customs.

There was a small boy clutching a canvas bag and the woman confined to a wheelchair.

A Mexican government plane brought them Tuesday from Havana to Matamoros, Mexico, across the Rio Grande from Brownsville, where they spent the night. They awaited arrangements today for travel to various points in this country, mainly New York City and Miami, Fla.

The refugees, mostly in their 50s, are U.S. citizens or their Cuban relatives. All were examined by doctors and were reported in good condition.

They were the first U.S. citizens permitted to leave Cuba since last December when Premier Castro halted repatriations without explanation. At that time 169 Americans had left the island.

About 3,000 Americans and their Cuban relatives still await permission to leave. They are not eligible for the daily flights that ferry Cubans to Miami at the rate of 3,000 a month.

Mexico, the only Western Hemisphere nation maintaining diplomatic relations with Cuba, worked out the new repatriation agreement. Some Mexican sources said prospects appeared good for all Americans to leave Cuba.

Woman Depressed, Coroner Says Of Murders, Suicide

FAIRFIELD, Ohio (AP)— A 28-year-old housewife who took her own life after killing her husband and small daughter had been suffering from depression, the Butler County coroner says.

Dr. Garret J. Boone ruled the deaths of Donald Moorman, 33; his wife Janice and their 6-year-old daughter Michele a case of double murder and suicide.

Both Moorman and his daughter had been dead for several hours when police entered the house at 11 a.m. aftr a frantic telephone call from Mrs. Moorman's sister at Ludlow, Ky. Sgt. Ray Wolf said Mrs. Moorman shot herself as officers entered the house.

The Moorman's second child, Donald Gregory, born in August, was found unharmed. Dr. Boone said Mrs. Moorman had been despondent since the baby's birth.

Authorities said the dead woman left a note saying, "I have killed Don and Chele, but can't bring myself to shoot the baby. I hope someone will give him a good home. I can't go on. They are wonderful, it's me."

Police found a long-barreled eight shot revolver near Mrs. Moorman's body.

Moorman was a press operator at the nearby Fisher Body plant and had worked until Monday midnight. Police said he and Michele apparently were shot about 8 a.m. as they lay in bed.

Woman Depressed, Coroner Says Of Murders, Suicide

FAIRFIELD, Ohio (AP)— A 28-year-old housewife who took her own life after killing her husband and small daughter had been suffering from depression, the Butler County coroner says.

Dr. Garret J. Boone ruled the deaths of Donald Moorman, 33; his wife Janice and their 6-year-old daughter Michele a case of double murder and suicide.

Both Moorman and his daughter had been dead for several hours when police entered the house at 11 a.m. aftr a frantic telephone call from Mrs. Moorman's sister at Ludlow, Ky. Sgt. Ray Wolf said Mrs. Moorman shot herself as officers entered the house.

The Moorman's second child, Donald Gregory, born in August, was found unharmed. Dr. Boone said Mrs. Moorman had been despondent since the baby's birth.

Authorities said the dead woman left a note saying, "I have killed Don and Chele, but can't bring myself to shoot the baby. I hope someone will give him a good home. I can't go on. They are wonderful, it's me."

Police found a long-barreled eight shot revolver near Mrs. Moorman's body.

Moorman was a press operator at the nearby Fisher Body plant and had worked until Monday midnight. Police said he and Michele apparently were shot about 8 a.m. as they lay in bed.

Sewer Cleaning Set At Wellsville

Plans for a $10,000 cleaning of a Wellsville storm sewer were approved tentatively by Wellsville Council Tuesday night.

Legislation appropriating the money was ordered prepared by Council following a report from th sewer committee which recommended cleaning of the sewer from 8th to 13th Sts.

The project, suggested by Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare, was presented by Councilman Jack Call in his report.

Voting for the work were Councilmen Russell Keefer, Glenn Mathess, Robert Taggart, Paul Todd, Call and Brad Phillips. Councilman George Lawton was absent.

CALL, also a member of the water committee, explained the reason for the peculiar taste in the city water in answer to recent questions from residents.

He said he learned that the unusual taste is not due to chemicals, but results from debris on the top of the Highland-town lake which had washed into the reservoir. Call added that the city chemist is aware of the situation.

Clerk Wayne Rose was instructed to notify Baldasare to contact the Ohio Power Co. to go ahead with up dating city lighting. Todd inquired as to the delay. He said the plan had been approved some time ago, but at a meeting with a power company official, it was learned no notification had been sent him. Phillips commented that the new contract didn't go into effect until May 1 and that probably was the reason for the delay.

IN A street and light committee report, Todd made recommendations for the safety of school children in the west end. He suggested reversing the 17th St. playground sign so as to face traffic, placing signs at the school crossing, providing more paint at the crossing and getting signs to replace old ones. Phillips added that he had asked the cooperation of Chief of Police John Hephner in curbing speeding near 17th St. and also about a truck being parked at a service station on 17th St., causing the children to go out in the street.

Keefer, a member of the property committee, reported he has investigated the request of the operator of a service station on 3rd St. to blacktop the alley east of the station at the operator's expense and found the matter had been taken care of.

Keefer also informed Council that a resident owns original copies of the city's water system, sewage system and the water system from the city limits to the Champion Brick Works, which he would like to present to Council to be available for consultation. It would cost approximately $48 to frame the maps and make them airtight.

Council members agreed the maps would be most valuable to the city and the offer was discussed. It was thought that there might be enough money in the expense fund to take care of the cost of framing. The matter will be further investigated.

CALL RAISED the question of what happened to the proposal for a city car park near the flood wall where cars picked up on the street and wrecked cars could be placed. He pointed out that only two sides of fencing would be needed to enclose the space. Further investigation will be made.

Council ordered legislation prepared to pay expenses of $138.01 incurred by Patrolman McMahon while traveling back and forth from the police school at Alliance. The reimbursement is to be taken from unappropriated funds. The legislation is to be prepared in the event Baldasare cannot authorize the payment.

The finance committee was again given the problem of a salary raise when Keefer said, "I would like you to give a raise to Safety - Service Director Baldasare or we're not going to have him, for he can go back to the railroad any time. He runs the city by looking after it's welfare, and you would have a hard time getting any one to fill his place."

Allen Baldwin, president of council, reminded the members that there is only one more meeting this year and said especially those who will return next year should give the matter some thought.

Keefer gave the opening prayer.

Lynda, Charles Take Break From Parties

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House strained the credibility gap a bit by announcing there was nothing on the pre-nuptial party calendar tonight for Lynda Johnson and her fiance, Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb.

With 19 showers, receptions, dances, dinners and parties behind them, the famous young couple were said to be taking a mid-wedding-week break.

Most informed sources considered they had some secret surprise in store. But White House spokesmen, talking about every detail from cake to wedding day weather predictions—no precipitation—denied such rumors.

The First Family's news secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter, holding forth at daily briefings in an East wing press room, wore a large button proclaiming "Marine Power" to show where she stood. And she opened each session with a declaration: "This is a love in."

Trying to keep 500 newsmen happy was trying, said Mrs. Carpenter. She moaned that someone even wrote in to protest "the use of Lohengrin and Mendelssohn"—they had better ideas for the wedding music.

The press room, newly painted white, was decorated with photos of bride and bridegroom, groomsmen, bridesmaids and sword bearers of the wedding party—all of whom were engaged elsewhere in the frenzy of pre-wedding activities.

President Johnson, amid his busy office schedule, dropped in at some parties. He even stayed for dinner Tuesday night with the wedding entourage at an informal party given by his long-time political and family friend, Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La.

Mrs. Boggs had hoped to keep her dinner for 40 relaxed, informal and private. When word soon leaked out to newsmen she laughingly declared, "This private, off-the-record party sure blew a gasket."

It was hard to tell who was really taking top billing in the wedding melange.

Lynda, with glamour hairdos, smiled her way through hundreds of camera shots, displaying an array of new dresses from black velvet to jeweled pale blue. Robb maintained his military cool, while geneology experts worked on his family tree—turning up ancestors of Swiss nobility.

There were interviews galore for everyone from mother and father Robb to the bridegroom's youngest sister, 19-year-old Marguerite "Trenny" Robb, a budding fashion model.

Trenny, in mod attire with most dresses four inches above the knee, said she enjoyed the published accolade that she was "the bounciest of the bridesmaids." She's also the youngest.

The White House was putting up a raft of relatives, giving second-floor rooms to bridesmaids and stowing relatives, including Lynda's younger sister Luci Nugent and her 5-month-old son, Lyn, on the third floor.

A whole generation of New England children grew up without Christmas because Puritan leaders in Massachusetts banned Christmas celebrations from 1659 to 1681.

Singer Critical In Undergoing Brain Operation

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — "The next two days will tell the story," an associate says of singer Jimmie Rodgers, who underwent brain surgery Tuesday night.

Rodgers, 33, was listed in critical condition but hemorrhaging was halted by the operation, which lasted 4½ hours.

The surgery was performed by Dr. Henry W. Dodge Jr. Two other specialists were called into the case.

Rodgers was found beaten and unconscious by the San Diego Freeway early last Friday morning, apparently attacked in his car.

Detective Michael Nielsen said the singer's wallet apparently was intact and robbery may not have been the motive. "We do not have a motive at this time," Nielsen said.

After the attack, Rodgers was treated at his Woodland Hills home but the next day was taken to Glendale Community Hospital when he complained of headaches and amnesia.

A skull fracture was disclosed by X-rays. With his wife Colleen nearby. Rodgers underwent surgery when a blood clot developed.

Akron Racial Tenseness Pointed Out By Speaker

Riots in Akron were averted in August, but only narrowly, according to an Akron University official who addressed the Rotary club here Tuesday noon.

John G. Hedrick, former head of the Kent State Academic Center here, now associate director of the Institute for Civic Education at Akron, said just a week after a heated discussion held by civic leaders, Akron's mayor and Negro leaders violence broke out in an area of "several square blocks".

—:—

HEDRICK said "Molotov Cocktails" were thrown, small fires broke out and the city was on the verge of full-scale riots until an alert police department stepped in quickly, quelling the disturbances.

"I never saw so many policemen, dogs and fire trucks," Hedrick added.

He said the city continues to be extremely tense racially and only the winter months have helped quiet problems which he claims still exist.

Hedrick's topic, "The Brandeis University Study of Urban Violence," compared six cities around the country — three which were the scenes of riots during the summer and three, though they were potential riot centers, which had no significant disturbances. Dr. Ralph Conant was in charge of the college's study. Hedrick said a subsequent study will include four southern cities.

HEDRICK declared the greatest problem in Akron today is that of housing. At the present rate of integration, he added, it will take 791 years to completely integrate the city. He reported in the last 10 years, only 25 families have been integrated.

The riot leaders told civic officials to prepare for "the biggest bloodbath ever seen here." They recalled the Detroit riots and declared, "Akron can burn too."

The Negroes said they were not being stimulated by outsiders, as many had believed.

They all agreed peaceful marches don't help, and Hedrick noted, the Brandeis study points out that nearly all Negroes do believe riots accomplish something. "'It's the theory of the squeaking wheel," he added.

The Brandeis study included interviews, as unobtrusively as possible, with a cross-section of residents in the six cities to be studied, and the revelations were drawn from answers given the questionnaires.

Hedrick reported a great disparity in the opinions of whites and Negroes. He said the gap was sometimes 30, 40 and even 50 per cent between the races in their answers to major questions.

RETURNING to the problems at Akron, Hedrick said the university has begun an apprentice program in various skilled trades, spurred on by industry in the area, in an effort to alleviate the job situation for Negroes.

He reported during the August meeting many Negroes claimed they only were sent to car washes in search of employment by the Ohio State Employment office in the city.

Police brutality is still considered a major problem there. Hedrick said Negroes feel Akron's officers are among the most brutal anywhere in the country.

Hedrick revealed the Brandeis study declares racial agitation may come to Pittsburgh next summer.

He said Akron had a greater riot potential than many of the cities that experienced rioting, but a strong Negro leadership kept the situation in check.

Concerning the value of riots, Hedrick concluded, one Negro youth told those attending the August meeting, "If riots don't accomplish anything, then what the hell are you doing here talking to me?"

—:—

MAURICE Rapport, program chairman, in introducing Hedrick took the opportunity to respond to remarks by a Rotary district governor who, speaking to the local club recently, said the East Liverpool group is "dead on its feet."

Rapport said while the club as a whole does not undertake a great many projects, the individual members have distinguished themselves in their civic-mindedness and community leadership.

He cited such people as Frank A. Dawson and Sam Brown, postmaster, as instrumental in bringing the Kent State branch here, Mike Turk for his donation of land for a county airport and younger civic leaders as Ralph Finley and Jackman Vodrey for their part in promoting community development.

He also pointed to the efforts of such longstanding civic leaders as Robert Boyce and Francis Lang.

Personal Reasons, Defector Says About Flying To Cuba

HAVANA (AP) — A U.S. military aide who flew to Cuba with his 4-year-old son last May received two foreign newsmen in his pleasant suburban Havana home Tuesday and said he came here "for strictly personal reasons."

Army Maj. Richard H. Pearce, the 36-year-old defector, was chief aide to Lt. Gen. Thomas W. Dunn, 4th Army commander, at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., when he disappeared. Pearce had a top secret security clearance.

Members of Pearce's family have been saying that he fled to Cuba to regain custody of his son, Richard, and not for political reasons.

When Pearce, a decorated veteran of the Vietnam war, arrived in Cuba the Communist party newspaper Granma published a statement under his signature saying he had come "for reasons of conscience."

Pearce said Tuesday people could interpret the statement any way they pleased "but nothing has been said about political conscience or political reasons."

His son was not at home, and Pearce declined to discuss him. But associates of his said the boy attends a government kindergarten. Pearce himself is teaching English at Maximo Gorki language school. Sources at the school described him as quiet and conservative.

Barker Joins In Talks On U.N. Action

William P. Barker, president of Patterson Industries, Inc., was among 100 community leaders from throughout the U.S. who attended a daylong briefing last week on the role of the U.S. in the United Nations.

Invitations for the event at New York City were extended by Ambassador Arthur Goldberg, with the meeting sponsored by the Foreign Policy Association in cooperation with the U.S. Mission to the U.N.

One of a series, it was designed to involve leading American citizens in discussion of major U. S. foreign policy issues.

The Foreign Policy Association, now in its 50th year, is a private, nonprofit, nonpartisan, educational institution whose goal "is to develop an informed, thoughtful and articulate public opinion on foreign policy issues."

Rotarians Hear Hedrick

Akron Racial Tenseness Pointed Out By Speaker

Riots in Akron were averted in August, but only narrowly, according to an Akron University official who addressed the Rotary club here Tuesday noon.

John G. Hedrick, former head of the Kent State Academic Center here, now associate director of the Institute for Civic Education at Akron, said just a week after a heated discussion held by civic leaders, Akron's mayor and Negro leaders violence broke out in an area of "several square blocks".

—:—

HEDRICK said "Molotov Cocktails" were thrown, small fires broke out and the city was on the verge of full-scale riots until an alert police department stepped in quickly, quelling the disturbances.

"I never saw so many policemen, dogs and fire trucks," Hedrick added.

He said the city continues to be extremely tense racially and only the winter months have helped quiet problems which he claims still exist.

Hedrick's topic, "The Brandeis University Study of Urban Violence," compared six cities around the country — three which were the scenes of riots during the summer and three, though they were potential riot centers, which had no significant disturbances. Dr. Ralph Conant was in charge of the college's study. Hedrick said a subsequent study will include four southern cities.

HEDRICK declared the greatest problem in Akron today is that of housing. At the present rate of integration, he added, it will take 791 years to completely integrate the city. He reported in the last 10 years, only 25 families have been integrated.

The riot leaders told civic officials to prepare for "the biggest bloodbath ever seen here." They recalled the Detroit riots and declared, "Akron can burn too."

The Negroes said they were not being stimulated by outsiders, as many had believed.

They all agreed peaceful marches don't help, and Hedrick noted, the Brandeis study points out that nearly all Negroes do believe riots accomplish something. "It's the theory of the squeaking wheel," he added.

The Brandeis study included interviews, as unobtrusively as possible, with a cross-section of residents in the six cities to be studied, and the revelations were drawn from answers given the questionnaires.

fore Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, but the judge declined to accept a plea because the defendant was not represented by counsel. He set the hearing for Monday and advised Kolar to contact an attorney in the meantime.

Mr. Jenkins was the 37th traffic victim to date in 1967 in Columbiana County. The toll stood at 35 at the same time in 1966.

Mr. Jenkins was born Feb. 2, 1913, in McDonald, Pa., a son of Otto C. Jenkins, who lives in Wellsville, and the late Myrtle Wilson Jenkins. He had resided here virtually his lifetime.

He was employed as a truck driver the last four years for the Radella Trucking Co. in Midland. He was a member of East Liverpool Moose Lodge 122.

In addition to his father, he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bessie Jenkins, at home; two sons, Otto T. Jenkins of East Liverpool and Marine Lance Cpl. James Jenkins, stationed in Vietnam; two step-sons, Robert Higgins and Alfred Higgins, both of East Liverpool; three daughters, Miss Verna Jenkins and Mrs. Charles (Arlene) Wright, both of East Liverpool, and Mrs. Judith Beabout of Chester; two step-daughters, Mrs. Harold (Pauline) Gatrell of East Liverpool and Mrs. Lewis (Shirley) O'Neil of Baltimore, Md.; five brothers, William Jenkins, Walter Jenkins and Theodore Jenkins, all of Aliquippa, Charles Jenkins of Negley and John Jenkins of Kentucky; seven sisters, Mrs. Daisy Mae Jones and Mrs. Martha Jericho, both of Aliquippa, Mrs. Alice Pugh of Chester, Mrs. Harriett McElhaney of Wellsville, Mrs. Anne Shamp and Mrs. Minnie Henry, both of Florida, and Mrs. Jane Kevan of Kentucky, and 21 grandchildren.

The Martin Funeral Home is arranging services.

POLICE investigated another collision on the River Rd. about three hours after the mishap that claimed Mr. Jenkins' life.

A 1964 sedan operated by Joseph S. Marrelli, 17, of 1021 Bradshaw Ave. went off the roadway and crashed into the embankment as he attempted to avoid a collision with an oncoming vehicle.

Marrelli told police he was driving west about 20 miles an hour, 60 feet west of State St., when he was forced to swerve to avoid an oncoming vehicle that appeared to be out of control. The Marrelli car hit the muddy berm, causing the driver to lose control. The auto crossed the roadway and rammed into the embankment, damaging the grill, a headlight and the radiator, officers said.

POLICE reported three more collisions overnight, including two involving hit-skip vehicles.

A 1965 sedan owned by Paul Haught of 529 Williams Ave. was damaged by a hit-skip car about 8:22 p. m. Tuesday while parked on a lot at the Thorofare Market on Pennsylvania Ave.

Witnesses told police the offending auto backed from a parking space and hit the Haught car, damaging the right rear fender. Then the car vanished going east on Pennsylvania Ave. toward the Ohio-Pennsylvania line, police were told. Given the license number and a description of the car, police said it was registered to a Heidelberg (Pa.) resident.

A 1962 four-door sedan driven by Mrs. Virginia Cheuvront, 30, of Lisbon St. Ext. was damaged Tuesday at 6:50 p. m. as she swerved to avoid an oncoming auto on Shadyside Ave., police said.

The woman said she was driving south on Shadyside Ave. when she saw an oncoming car that was left of the center line. She said she pulled off the roadway to avoid a collision, but her car was struck on the left front. She said she was blinded by the other car's lights, so did not obtain a description or the license number.

A TRUCK and a parked 1962 model station wagon were damaged in a mishap Tuesday at 8:29 p. m. on Cdmus St. 500 feet north of Minerva St.

The mishap involved a 1963 model truck driven by Leslie W. Diezman, 42, of the Sprucevale Rd. and the parked station wagon owned by Joseph Kenney of 725 Cadmus St.

Diezman told police he was driving south about 10 miles an hour when a clock fell from the front seat of the truck. As he reached to retrieve it, the truck went out of control and hit the station wagon, he said.

There was damage to the right front of the truck and the left rear of the station wagon.

left Nogay and Graham to carry on proceedings.

The three men walked into the hallway of the courthouse and held a short discussion.

Upon returning, Nogay proposed the motion to accept the Follansbee concern's bid, but Graham did not give it a second.

Then commissioners discussed whether the company which finally receives the contract also will get all salvage from the present jail. W. A. Curtis of the architectural firm at Toledo handling the project, explained that the commissioners would have to salvage what was needed and the remainder would go to the company awarded the demolition contract.

Graham then proposed the commissioners refuse all bids, but Nogay would not second.

Nogay explained a solution to the stalemate had to be worked out and then proposed his original motion, calling for the acceptance of the lowest bid, but again Graham would not second.

Graham then restated his motion to refuse all bids, advertise for new bids and accept them until noon Jan. 9.

The commissioners offered no reason why they rejected the bids.

The six bids received were: Demolition and general contracting, Follansbee, $5,840; Conforti Lumber and Demolition, Steubenville, $6,500; Matthew Phillips of New Cumberland, $6,250, without liability insurance, or $7,650 with the insurance; Casey Building Wreckers of Pittsburgh, $7,734; Noralco Corp., Pittsburgh, $18,340, and Goodall Construction Co., Inc., Burgettstown, $14,800.

Commissioners then accepted the specifications of the architect for the new jail after satisfying themselves all changes they asked had been made.

The court agreed to advertise immediately for bids on the construction of the facility, estimated to cost $360,000, also to be returned Jan. 9 at noon.

'Friendly' Action Rectifies Error On 4 Tax Levies

LISBON — The stroke of a judge's pen Tuesday afternoon in Common Pleas Court meant about $150,000 for two school districts and a township.

Judge Joel H. Sharp signed a journal entry to correct a clerical error which could have caused a one-year delay in payment on four tax levies.

The "friendly" lawsuit was filed by Fairfield - Waterford and United School districts and Elkrun Township trustees against County Auditor Kenneth Bell.

Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis prepared the petition after it was brought to his attention that four tax levies approved Nov. 7 set the collection for the tax years 1968-69-70-71-72, although the sponsors meant the calendar years.

The tax year is the year following the calendar year. According, the county auditor, in whose office the error was discovered, refused to place the levies on the tax duplicate for collection in 1968 without an order of the court.

All parties agreed to the plaintiffs' request for a correction, so Judge Sharp ordered that the following levies be placed on the tax duplicate so they may be collected beginning in the calendar year 1968:

Fairfield - Waterford — 3.8 mills (renewal) and 2.4 mills (new); United — 3.8 mills (new) and Ekrun Township, 2-10ths of a mill (new) for emergency ambulance service.

Bettis said all levy resolutions hereafter will be presented to the auditor's office for examination before they are forwarded to the Board of Elections for a place on the ballot.

LBJ's Phone Call To Girl Comes After Protest Note

LIVERMORE, Calif. (AP) — President Johnson personally telephoned greetings Tuesday to Marika Wilson on her 16th birthday.

It happened because Marika and three young companions sent a protest letter to the White House.

Marika said they had spent a dollar phoning the White House number to hear President Johnson's voice in a recorded message.

Instead they heard the recorded voice of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Marika said a White House letter had explained that the President couldn't always tape the daily message for the phone call recording. Other important people then would substitute, it said.

Marika said she and her friends replied that the recording phone shouldn't respond if the President personally didn't tape the message. "You feel you've wasted your money," she explained.

A White House staff member phoned the James R. Wilson home on Monday. He told Mrs. Wilson the President wanted to call and talk to the children—Marika, her sister, Tasia, 11, her brother, Peter, 9, and Holly Sikes, 15, a friend who invested 25 cents in the first phone call.

"Oh, have him call tomorrow. It's Marika's birthday," exclaimed Mrs. Wilson.

All the kids were by the phone when the President called at 7 a.m.

"He told us he agreed everyone should get his money's worth."

South Side Beats Oak Glen 64-58 For 3rd Straight Win

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Area basketball products are playing for several colleges as the college hoop season gets underway.

Monday night Midland's Norm Vanlier scored 12 points as St. Francis routed Waynesburg 113-84. Vern Smith of East Liverpool netted 11 as the Youngstown JVs were crushed 128-65 by the Duquesne freshmen. Bill Barnhart of Beaver Local got three points as Point Park was trounced by Mansfield 98-63. East Liverpool's Joe Massey scored 16 as Thiel fell to Walsh 76-68. Thiel is coached by East Liverpool's Bud Manes.

MARLINGTON HAS a 6-10 center, Luke Witte. He has scored 34 points in the first two games for Marlington, both wins.

EDDIE McCLUSKEY, well-known basketball coach at Farrell, is not coaching this season, but is convalescing from an operation for a detached retina.

GREG GAMBLE, a 1965 graduate of Beaver Local, played on the Warren Wilson College soccer team this past fall. The team went 10-1. Warren Wilson is located in Swannonoa, N.C.

RICHARD D. MARTIN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Martin of 3300 St. Clair Ave., received a letter in junior football this fall at Mercersburg (Pa.) Academy.

FINAL FIGURES for Chuck Winters, East Liverpool quarterback at Pitt this year, were eight pass completions in 20 attempts for 122 yards, with two intercepted. He was caught twice for 20 yards in losses.

TERRY NUSSER of East Liverpool helped Case Tech win the Rochester Tech wrestling tourney in Rochester over the weekend. Nusser took the 167-pound title with a pin over RIT's Clarence Simmons. Case edged Notre Dame 80-79 for the team title, with RIT and Clarkson trailing. A sidelight to the tournament was that at first Notre Dame was thought to be the winner and Case wrestlers, on the bus home, refigured the score and found they had not gotten enough credit for three pins. The RIT officials confirmed the refigured scoring and proclaimed Case the champion.

Hartzell, Peden Pace Late Rally

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

A 14-point streak in the third and fourth periods propelled South Side Beaver to a 64-58 win over Oak Glen on the loser's court last night.

Dan Hartzell and Ron Peden contributed 10 points to the streak and they were the big guns for John Nace's unbeaten quint all evening. Peden picked up 23 points and 20 rebounds and Hartzell had 18 markers and 11 retrieves as the Rams won their third straight. Bob Starkey's Golden Bears, which have lost two games, both to Pennsylvania teams, were paced by Dan Crago and Jim Carnes, who each netted 15.

Except for a short spell in the first quarter the home team controlled the game until South Side went on its streak. At one point in the third period it was 40-31 in favor of Oak Glen, but the Golden Bears stopped rebounding and seemed to slow down a bit. "We tried to run with them, and we couldn't", said Starkey afterwards. "They seemed to get tired", Nace echoed, "and they stayed in their 1-3-1 and we attacked it better." Nace had praise for Hartzell and for Tom Doak, who hit two key baskets after the West Virginians had crept back to 52-50 in the last period.

In the first half Oak Glen led in rebounding 35-31, but South Side dominated the boards by a 33-23 margin in the second half for a 64-58 overall margin, the same as the score. In addition, the Rams hit 27 per cent from the field in the first half and 47 per cent in the second half for a 36 per cent overall mark, while OG was 30 per cent in each half. In trying to run, the Golden Bears were hurt by turnovers, committing 19 to 17 for the winners.

South Side took the lead at the outset, as Peden was hot from the corner, and led 11-7 before Carnes hit five straight points to make it 12-11. Perry (Biff) Stanley got hot from the home team, scoring six points against a basket by Peden to put the Golden Bears up 18-13 at the end of the first period. Stanley, 6-7, was also strong off the boards in the first half, with 11, rebounds, but ended with only 14, still high for Oak Glen. He also scored 11 of his 13 points in the first half.

In the second quarter the clubs traded baskets but in the third quarter Crago led the Golden Bears to the 40-31 margin and things still seem well in hand for the home team when it led 44-36 with about three minutes left in the stanza. But they weren't to score again until 5:02 remained in the game and by that time Peden and Hartzell had the Rams up 50-44. OG came back to trail only 52-50 with 3:30 left, but then Doak hit two baskets and Hartzell five points to sew up the contest.

Despite a miserable 4 for 27 effort from the foul line, the Oak Glen reserves easily beat their South Side counterparts, 58-32. Tim Crago and Terry Byrd led the scoring with 11 and 10 respectively. Contributing to an important 77-41 rebound edge were Pete Horosko and Steve Staley with 14 each, Chuck Gillespie with 12 and Jo Alganizo with 11. Jim Searight had 15 points for South Side, which committed 28 turnovers and consequently got off only 37 shots to 79 for the winners.

Devine Leaves Mets, Back To Cards As GM

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Bing Devine is back with the St. Louis Cardinal team he helped build into a world baseball champion and then watched from New York.

Cardinal owner August A. Busch Jr. announced Tuesday that Devine had been hired as general manager to replace Stan Musial, who asked to leave because of business and personal matters. Johnny Murphy was named acting general manager of the New York Mets, replacing Devine.

Devine, a long-time member of the Cardinal organization, traded for such mainstays of the 1967 World Series champs as Curt Flood, Lou Brock and Julian Javier. It was while Devine was general manager that the Cardinals developed players like Tim McCarver, Mike Shannon and Dal Maxvill.

Devine stressed that he returned to the Cardinals because of personal considerations rather than for economic reasons. Even as general manager of the Mets Devine lived in the St. Louis area during the off-season.

He went to the New York Mets in 1964 as the result of a squabble with Cardinal officials. The late Johnny Keane, then Cardinal manager wound up as manager of the New York Yankees, the team St. Louis beat in the 1964 World Series.

Musial was in Acapulco, Mexico, vacationing with his wife when the reappointment of Devine was announced. Busch said Musial came to him just before the baseball meetings in Mexico two weeks ago and asked to be relieved. He said he couldn't devote full time to the job.

The death of Musial's partner in the restaurant business, Julius "Biggie" Garagnani, was a factor in Musial's decision, Busch indicated. Musial will remain with the club as a senior vice president.

Minnesota Tops Dallas In 3 Overtime Periods

By The Associated Press

Regulation time was over, the score was tied and Dallas' Bob Verga missed two free throws. The first overtime was over, the score still was tied and Minnesota's Mel Daniels missed a free throw.

The second overtime was over, the score still was tied and Minnesota's Gary Keller missed a free throw. But finally the drought ended, Keller sank his second shot and the Muskies beat the Chaparrals 136-135 in an American Basketball Association game at Dallas.

The close victory kept the Muskies atop the Eastern Division by one-half game over Indiana, while Dallas is in third place in the Western Division. Daniels topped the Minnesota scorers with 43 points while Verga led Dallas with 43 points.

In other ABA games, Pittsburgh beat Denver 101-98, New Orleans topped Houston 112-97 and Indiana downed New Jersey 121-106.

Connie Hawkins scored 38 points and threw in four foul shots in the closing moments for the Pipers' close victory over the Rockets at Pittsburgh. Grant Simmons sparked Denver with 29 points.

Doug Moe's 33 points led the home-court Buccaneers, first in the league's Western Division, to their 17th victory against five losses. DeWitt Menyard was high for the Mavericks with 28 points.

Indiana, led by Roger Brown and Fred Lewis, scored 42 points in the final period in downing the Americans at Kokomo, Ind. Brown had 12 of his 33 points in the last period and Lewis put in 15 of his 29 points then. Stu Johnson scored 21 points for New Jersey.

Miami Upsets Dayton; Kenyon Sets Records

By The Associated Press

It was weird night in Ohio college basketball.

In a major upset, the Dayton Flyers were shot down. And at Gambier, the Lords of Kenyon put on a snazzy display of record breaking against Wilmington.

Miami's Redskins went on the warpath Tuesday in Dayton fieldhouse, dumping the Flyers 64-61. Dayton was No. 6 in the Associated Press national rankings.

Much of the credit for the upset goes to Miami Sophs Bob Carlton and Glen Pryor who hemmed in Dayton's big Don May and allowed him only six points in the first half. May, however, ended up with 24 for the game.

Neither team led by more than four points and the Redskins — beaten six straight times by Dayton — held a 31-29 halftime lead.

Carlton's two freethrows with 18 seconds left in the game sparked Miami's victory. Fred Foster's 22 points for Miami added to the cause as the Redskins went 2-0 while the Flyers evened off at 1-1.

At Gambier, Kenyon handed Wilmington a 122-83 shellacking.

Wilmington's high scorer, Bill Klopfer, got 23 points–19 on foul shots - while John Rinka paced Kenyon with 35 points. Rinka now has 82 points in two games, and the Lords are averaging 113 points a game.

The Lords broke three school records, turning in the highest goals, another mark, add attempting 102, one more for the statistics book.

In other games, Ohio University, initially troubled by cold shooting, rallied midway in the first half to claim an 81 - 59 victory over Otterbein.

Ohio was down 23-19 before scoring 11 straight points to take a 30-25 lead at intermission. Mark McClintick's 25 points topped the Bobcats.

In the others: Ashland, last year's champion defensive team among small colleges, was in top form, defeating Malone 56 - 33; Wittenberg scored 60 points in a big second half and bombed Capital 99-65; Marietta invaded West Virginia Wesleyan and came home with a 97-56 conquest; Charlie Clagett scored 26 points and pulled down 21 rebounds to lead Denison to an 81-59 triumph over Muskingum; and Cedarville scored the first basket and was never headed in downing Northwood of Indiana 99-65.

South Side Beats Oak Glen 64-58 For 3rd Straight Win

Area basketball products are playing for several colleges as the college hoop season gets underway.

Monday night Midland's Norm Vanlier scored 12 points as St. Francis routed Waynesburg 113-84. Vern Smith of East Liverpool netted 11 as the Youngstown JVs were crushed 128-65 by the Duquesne freshmen. Bill Barnhart of Beaver Local got three points as Point Park was trounced by Mansfield 98-63. East Liverpool's Joe Massey scored 16 as Thiel fell to Walsh 76-68. Thiel is coached by East Liverpool's Bud Manes.

MARLINGTON HAS a 6-10 center, Luke Witte. He has scored 34 points in the first two games for Marlington, both wins.

EDDIE McCLUSKEY, well-known basketball coach at Farrell, is not coaching this season, but is convalescing from an operation for a detached retina.

GREG GAMBLE, a 1965 graduate of Beaver Local, played on the Warren Wilson College soccer team this past fall. The team went 10-1. Warren Wilson is located in Swannonoa, N.C.

RICHARD D. MARTIN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Martin of 3300 St. Clair Ave., received a letter in junior football this fall at Mercersburg (Pa.) Academy.

FINAL FIGURES for Chuck Winters, East Liverpool quarterback at Pitt this year, were eight pass completions in 20 attempts for 122 yards, with two intercepted. He was caught twice for 20 yards in losses.

TERRY NUSSER of East Liverpool helped Case Tech win the Rochester Tech wrestling tourney in Rochester over the weekend. Nusser took the 167-pound title with a pin over RIT's Clarence Simmons. Case edged Notre Dame 80-79 for the team title, with RIT and Clarkson trailing. A sidelight to the tournament was that at first Notre Dame was thought to be the winner and Case wrestlers, on the bus home, refigured the score and found they had not gotten enough credit for three pins. The RIT officials confirmed the refigured scoring and proclaimed Case the champion.

Hartzell, Peden Pace Late Rally

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

A 14-point streak in the third and fourth periods propelled South Side Beaver to a 64-58 win over Oak Glen on the loser's court last night.

Dan Hartzell and Ron Peden contributed 10 points to the streak and they were the big guns for John Nace's unbeaten quint all evening. Peden picked up 23 points and 20 rebounds and Hartzell had 18 markers and 11 retrieves as the Rams won their third straight. Bob Starkey's Golden Bears, which have lost two games, both to Pennsylvania teams, were paced by Dan Crago and Jim Carnes, who each netted 15.

Except for a short spell in the first quarter the home team controlled the game until South Side went on its streak. At one point in the third period it was 40-31 in favor of Oak Glen, but the Golden Bears stopped rebounding and seemed to slow down a bit. "We tried to run with them, and we couldn't", said Starkey afterwards. "They seemed to get tired", Nace echoed, "and they stayed in their 1-3-1 and we attacked it better." Nace had praise for Hartzell and for Tom Doak, who hit two key baskets after the West Virginians had crept back to 52-50 in the last period.

In the first half Oak Glen led in rebounding 35-31, but South Side dominated the boards by a 33-23 margin in the second half for a 64-58 overall margin, the same as the score. In addition, the Rams hit 27 per cent from the field in the first half and 47 per cent in the second half for a 36 per cent overall mark, while OG was 30 per cent in each half. In trying to run, the Golden Bears were hurt by turnovers, committing 19 to 17 for the winners.

South Side took the lead at the outset, as Peden was hot from the corner, and led 11-7 before Carnes hit five straight points to make it 12-11. Perry (Biff) Stanley got hot from the home team, scoring six points against a basket by Peden to put the Golden Bears up 18-13 at the end of the first period. Stanley, 6-7, was also strong off the boards in the first half, with 11, rebounds, but ended with only 14, still high for Oak Glen. He also scored 11 of his 13 points in the first half.

In the second quarter the clubs traded baskets but in the third quarter Crago led the Golden Bears to the 40-31 margin and things still seem well in hand for the home team when it led 44-36 with about three minutes left in the stanza. But they weren't to score again until 5:02 remained in the game and by that time Peden and Hartzell had the Rams up 50-44. OG came back to trail only 52-50 with 3:30 left, but then Doak hit two baskets and Hartzell five points to sew up the contest.

Despite a miserable 4 for 27 effort from the foul line, the Oak Glen reserves easily beat their South Side counterparts, 58-32. Tim Crago and Terry Byrd led the scoring with 11 and 10 respectively. Contributing to an important 77-41 rebound edge were Pete Horosko and Steve Staley with 14 each, Chuck Gillespie with 12 and Jo Alganizo with 11. Jim Searight had 15 points for South Side, which committed 28 turnovers and consequently got off only 37 shots to 79 for the winners.

Devine, a long-time member of the Cardinal organization, traded for such mainstays of the 1967 World Series champs as Curt Flood, Lou Brock and Julian Javier. It was while Devine was general manager that the Cardinals developed players like Tim McCarver, Mike Shannon and Dal Maxvill.

Devine stressed that he returned to the Cardinals because of personal considerations rather than for economic reasons. Even as general manager of the Mets Devine lived in the St. Louis area during the off-season.

He went to the New York Mets in 1964 as the result of a squabble with Cardinal officials. The late Johnny Keane, then Cardinal manager wound up as manager of the New York Yankees, the team St. Louis beat in the 1964 World Series.

Musial was in Acapulco, Mexico, vacationing with his wife when the reappointment of Devine was announced. Busch said Musial came to him just before the baseball meetings in Mexico two weeks ago and asked to be relieved. He said he couldn't devote full time to the job.

The death of Musial's partner in the restaurant business, Julius "Biggie" Garagnani, was a factor in Musial's decision, Busch indicated. Musial will remain with the club as a senior vice president.

Minnesota Tops Dallas In 3 Overtime Periods

By The Associated Press

Regulation time was over, the score was tied and Dallas' Bob Verga missed two free throws. The first overtime was over, the score still was tied and Minnesota's Mel Daniels missed a free throw.

The second overtime was over, the score still was tied and Minnesota's Gary Keller missed a free throw. But finally the drought ended, Keller sank his second shot and the Muskies beat the Chaparrals 136-135 in an American Basketball Association game at Dallas.

The close victory kept the Muskies atop the Eastern Division by one-half game over Indiana, while Dallas is in third place in the Western Division. Daniels topped the Minnesota scorers with 43 points while Verga led Dallas with 43 points.

In other ABA games, Pittsburgh beat Denver 101-98, New Orleans topped Houston 112-97 and Indiana downed New Jersey 121-106.

Connie Hawkins scored 38 points and threw in four foul shots in the closing moments for the Pipers' close victory over the Rockets at Pittsburgh. Grant Simmons sparked Denver with 29 points.

Doug Moe's 33 points led the home-court Buccaneers, first in the league's Western Division, to their 17th victory against five losses. DeWitt Menyard was high for the Mavericks with 28 points.

Indiana, led by Roger Brown and Fred Lewis, scored 42 points in the final period in downing the Americans at Kokomo, Ind. Brown had 12 of his 33 points in the last period and Lewis put in 15 of his 29 points then. Stu Johnson scored 21 points for New Jersey.

Miami Upsets Dayton; Kenyon Sets Records

By The Associated Press

It was weird night in Ohio college basketball.

In a major upset, the Dayton Flyers were shot down. And at Gambier, the Lords of Kenyon put on a snazzy display of record breaking against Wilmington.

Miami's Redskins went on the warpath Tuesday in Dayton fieldhouse, dumping the Flyers 64-61. Dayton was No. 6 in the Associated Press national rankings.

Much of the credit for the upset goes to Miami Sophs Bob Carlton and Glen Pryor who hemmed in Dayton's big Don May and allowed him only six points in the first half. May, however, ended up with 24 for the game.

Neither team led by more than four points and the Redskins — beaten six straight times by Dayton — held a 31-29 halftime lead.

Carlton's two freethrows with 18 seconds left in the game sparked Miami's victory. Fred Foster's 22 points for Miami added to the cause as the Redskins went 2-0 while the Flyers evened off at 1-1.

At Gambier, Kenyon handed Wilmington a 122-83 shellacking.

Wilmington's high scorer, Bill Klopfer, got 23 points–19 on foul shots - while John Rinka paced Kenyon with 35 points. Rinka now has 82 points in two games, and the Lords are averaging 113 points a game.

The Lords broke three school records, turning in the highest goals, another mark, add attempting 102, one more for the statistics book.

In other games, Ohio University, initially troubled by cold shooting, rallied midway in the first half to claim an 81 - 59 victory over Otterbein.

Ohio was down 23-19 before scoring 11 straight points to take a 30-25 lead at intermission. Mark McClintick's 25 points topped the Bobcats.

In the others: Ashland, last year's champion defensive team among small colleges, was in top form, defeating Malone 56 - 33; Wittenberg scored 60 points in a big second half and bombed Capital 99-65; Marietta invaded West Virginia Wesleyan and came home with a 97-56 conquest; Charlie Clagett scored 26 points and pulled down 21 rebounds to lead Denison to an 81-59 triumph over Muskingum; and Cedarville scored the first basket and was never headed in downing Northwood of Indiana 99-65.

Midland Bounces Back To Beat Coraopolis 74-61

Vanlier, Leak Lead Leopards

By JOHN MUELLER

The Midland Leopards raced to a 74-61 win over Coraopolis last night on the Midland court.

The action at the start was somewhat slow but the game turned into a contest of fast breaks with numerous turnovers on the part of both teams.

Paced by Dave Vanlier with 25 points and Howard Leak with 19 the Leopards took the lead at the start and were never headed.

The game itself was one that kept the fans guessing and the coaches on the edge of the bench. At times it seemed the Leopards would break the game wide open, but Cory would bounce right back to close the gap. The action would head toward the Midland end of the court and suddenly reverse as the Leopards would turn over the ball. Before one could be accustomed to which team was going where a turnover would reverse the entire aspect of the contest. Midland is now 2-1, Coraopolis 1-1.

Midland broke the scoring ice on a field goal by Leak at 6:14 to take a 2-0 lead and built up a 6-0 lead at 5:47.

Cory scored its first point on a foul shot by Alta Vegh at the 5:03 mark and its first field goal at the 3:09 mark by Rusty Tucker.

Midland held a 14-9 edge at the end of the first period and increased its advantage to 31-19 at the intermission.

The Leopards kept adding to their lead and led by 16 points, 41-25 with 4:15 to play in the third quarter. They held the margin at the 3:20 mark, 43-27, but Cory cut into the lead and it was 44-35 at the end of the third session.

Coraopolis put the pressure on at the start of the final stanza and narrowed the gap to four points, 44-40, at the 6:30 mark on a field goal by Tucker.

Leak came right back with a three point play when he was fouled as he sank a field goal. Seconds later Dave Vanlier dropped in a two pointer and the Leopards led 49-40 with 5:50 to play. From that point on the Leopard lead increased and they moved out to the win.

The Leopards were in foul trouble early in the second period and by intermission three starters were each charged with three personal fouls. Coach Ed Olkowski, taking advantage of his bench, manipulated his troubled starters and managed to keep them all in the game until the final minutes. Greg Vanlier was the only Leopard to get the thumb, at the 4:45 mark of the final period.

Vegh, of Coraopolis, bowed out just after the midway mark of the final session.

Coraopolis had three players in double figures. Tucker paced their attack with 24 points, and Willie Roncone and Gary Bagatini accounted for 11 and 10 points respectively.

Both teams were sad sights from the charity stripe. Midland converted just 17 out of 37 fouls and Cory made 17 out of 41.

The Leopards bagged 28 field goals in 78 attempts for a 35.9 percentage. The Blue Devils hit 22 out of 81 for 27 per cent.

Cory outrebounded the Leopards, picking off 53 stray shots compared to the Leopards' 48.

The Midland JVs edged the Cory JVs 52-50 in the preliminary.

Dave Franitti with 19 points and Arthur Pate with 12 paced the little Leopards' attack.

Gary Young of Cory had 20 points to cop scoring honors.

Princeton Tops Tough Villanova

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Princeton dropped out of the Top Ten in The Associated Press college basketball poll this week, but take it from Jack Kraft, Villanova coach, the Ivy League champions rank with the best.

Princeton gained national prominence during the senior year of All-America Bill Bradley. They finished third to UCLA in the 1965 NCAA championship postseason tourney with Bradley setting a single game NCAA record of 58 points against Wichita State.

"This team is better than the Bill Bradley teams," Kraft said after the Tigers had demolished his Villanova boys 77-52 at Princeton Tuesday night.

"I don't know what you can do to beat this club," Kraft continued. "I don't know of any other team in the country that has three better shooters than Joe Heiser, Geoff Perie and John Haarlow. And those big fellos, Chris Thomforde and John Hummer kill you under the boards."

Heiser scored 19 points, Petrie 18 and Haarlow 14 as the Tigers routed the Wildcats. "I've got a good club, too," Kraft said. "This is the worst defeat I've ever suffered with this much talent."

Princeton's ruthless efficiency against Villanova after a three-point squeaker over Army last week overshadowed the surprise 64-61 victory of Miami of Ohio over sixth-ranked Dayton and the easy opening game victory of 10th-ranked Boston College over Dartmouth 116-69.

In other major games Tuesday, Notre Dame beat Wisconsin 81-73, Kansas State downed Minnesota 81-56, Wichita State whipped Mississippi State 97-67, Davidson crushed Furman 95-68, Marshall edged Morehead 79-78 and Southwestern Louisiana became a giant killer of the small colleges by downing Baylor 80-70 for its second win over a major team.

Two free throws by sophomore Bob Carlton with 18 seconds left assured the Miami Redskins of their upset over Dayton on the Flyers' home court. Don May, Dayton star, was held to six points in the first half although he got 18 in the second half for a total of 24. Fred Foster paced Miami with 22.

Coach Bob Cousy cleared his Boston College bench as the Eagles routed Dartmouth at Newton, Mass. Terry Driscoll was high for BC with 16 points.

USC Gets MacArthur, McKay Praises Simpson

NEW YORK (AP) — "If there's a better football player alive than O. J. Simpson. I'd like to see him."

Coach John McKay of Southern California paid tribute to his great halfback Tuesday night after accepting the McArthur Bowl, voted to the Trojans as the best team in he country, at the annual Football Hall of Fame Awards banquet.

Simpson, a swift, 202-pound junior college transfer from San Francisco, won the national rushing title while leading the Trojans to a 9-1 finish and Rose Bowl berth. He was runner-up to Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban of UCLA.

"This boy is fantastic, and the pros are in for something when he becomes a pro," said McKay, who also coached Southern Cal's 1964 Heisman winner, Mike Garrett. "Both of these boys did so much for me that I wouldn't make a comparison," he said.

However, the Trojans' coach said Simpson is "bigger, stronger and faster" than Gale Sayers, the former Kansas flash now with the Chicago Bears in the National Football League. Sayers played for McKay in the 1964 East-West College All-Star Game.

Dr. Frederick Lawson Hovde, president of Purdue University, received the National Football Foundation's top award, the Gold Medal, at the $75 a plate dinner. Ten former football stars were inducted into the Hall of Fame and 13 outstanding scholar-athletes were presented silver bowls.

Dr. Hovde played football at Minnesota in 1927-28 and rugby at Britain's Oxford University, where he was a Rhodes Scholar.

Earl "Greasy" Neale, the legendary former college and pro player; Abe Michal of Louisiana State; Slade Cutter of Navy; Francis "Whitey" Wistert of Michigan; Paul Schwegler of Washington; Joel Hunt of Texas AM; Wear Schoonover of Arkansas; Herb Stein of Pittsburgh; Cecil Isbell of Purdue and Nathan Dougherty of Tennessee were inducted into the Hall of Fame.

The scholar-athletes honored were Gary Beban, UCLA; Steve Warren, North Carolina State; Bob Johnson, Tennessee; Bob Weber, Princeton; Alan Bersin, Harvard; Bohdan "Bud" Neswiacheny, Army; John McCarthy, Yale; Keith Miles, Trinity, Conn.; Bill Eastman, Georgia Tech; John Scovall, Texas Tech; Barry Furst, Ohio Wesleyan; Tom Lawhorne, Georgia, and John Root, Stanford.

Heart Attack Fatal To Wrestling Coach

ATLANTA (AP)—North Carolina State wrestling coach Al Crawford died of an apparent heart attack in an Atlanta hospital's emergency clinic Friday night.

Crawford, 52, became ill around 7 p.m. as the Georgia Tech Invitational Wrestling Tournament was beginning. His team was one of about 20 participating in the two-day event.

The veteran coach was rushed to an Atlanta hospital by the Georgia Tech team physician.

Crawford, who suffered a serious heart attack last year, had refused to give up coaching. He joined the N. C. State Athletic Department in 1946 as a trainer and wrestling coach.

Houston's Interception Key Play For Browns

NEW YORK (AP) — If the Cleveland Browns go on to win the Century Division title the big play that Jim Houston made last Sunday could turn out to be the most important of the season.

Cleveland led New York 27-7 in the fourth quarter but the Giants were moving. They had the ball on the Browns' 24 when Fran Tarkenton dropped back to pass.

Tarkenton's intended target was Aaron Thomas, running a sideline pattern, but Houston, the Browns' left linebacker, picked off the ball and ran 79 yards for the touchdown that wrapped it up for Cleveland.

Houston also blocked a Pete Gogolak field goal attempt from the 50 in the first quarter. His performance in the Browns' 24-14 victory made Houston The Associated Press' choice as Defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

"Tarkenton tried to bend one over my head," said the 30-year-old Houston. "Leroy Kelly (Browns' top running back) taught me everything I know. I gave that last guy the Leroy straight arm."

Houston brushed past Tarkenton and was pursued by Willie Young who was the victim of the straight arm after a long chase.

On the blocked field goal, Houston said, "'We had a rush on. Walter Johnson (defensive tackle) occupies the man ahead of him, Bobby Crespino. He just grabbed Crespino, hit him and pushed him aside. The back who was supposed to block took our two outside men and left me open."

Jack Kramer Predicts Tennis Will Be Open

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Kramer, once the czar of pro tennis, predicted today that the world's leading amateur players will defy their national organizations and back Wimbledon to the hilt in its move for an open tournament.

"I am positive that men such as Arthur Ashe, Charlie Pasarell and Cliff Richey, who form the guts of our Davis Cup team, and Billie Jean King, the queen of women's tennis, would risk suspension and play in an open tournament at Wimbledon," Kramer added.

"That's not all. I think you'll find the same sort of uprising in Australia, France, Italy and other countries where big time tennis is played.

"All the players I've spoken with have the greatest admiration for the Wimbledon plan to hold an open tournament. They are ready to give full support."

British Lawn Tennis Association authorities, who conduct the biggest tournament of them all, announced earlier this year that they would throw the 1968 Wimbledon event open to amateurs and pros—in defiance of the International Lawn Tennis Federation.

The ILTF, run by the smaller countries, decided last summer against an experimental open tournament.

This week British tennis spokesmen began to show hesitancy about their whole venture because of lack of support from the big tennis-playing nations, such as the United States and Australia.

The American and Australian bodies indicated that they would be forced to suspend any amateur player who competed in an open at Wimbledon.

The British meet Dec. 14 to make a final decision.

Ohio Bowling Classic Attracts Large Field

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—More than 600 teams already are entered in the 64th annual Ohio State Bowling Association Tournament which opens here March 2 and runs through the weekend of May 12.

Team event competition is scheduled for Park Lanes. Doubles and singles play will be rolled at Shamrock Recreation. Entries close Jan. 15.

Richard "Davie" Davidson of Middletown, the 1967 Ohio all-events champion, will be back to defend his title.

4 Scholastic Stars Will Enroll At WVU

MORGANTOWN (AP) — West Virginia University's football recruiting squad wasted no time in picking the cream of Bluefield High School's prep crop by signing three outstanding players from this year's championship Beavers team to grant-in-aid scholarships.

Signed were halfback Pete Wood, tackle Larry McBride and fullback Ron Goodwin.

Wood and Goodwin headed the potent Beaver attack all season and scored three touchdowns between them in the Class AAA championship game against Charleston Stonewall Jackson.

McBride, a two-way player, was called "'probably the best blocking tackle I've ever coached," by Beaver coach Merrill Gainer.

Also signed Friday was Wirt County High's top-rated offensive tackle Mike Goodwin.

Houston also blocked a Pete Gogolak field goal attempt from the 50 in the first quarter. His performance in the Browns' 24-14 victory made Houston The Associated Press' choice as Defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

"Tarkenton tried to bend one over my head," said the 30-year-old Houston. "Leroy Kelly (Browns' top running back) taught me everything I know. I gave that last guy the Leroy straight arm."

Houston brushed past Tarkenton and was pursued by Willie Young who was the victim of the straight arm after a long chase.

On the blocked field goal, Houston said, "'We had a rush on. Walter Johnson (defensive tackle) occupies the man ahead of him, Bobby Crespino. He just grabbed Crespino, hit him and pushed him aside. The back who was supposed to block took our two outside men and left me open."

Jack Kramer Predicts Tennis Will Be Open

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Kramer, once the czar of pro tennis, predicted today that the world's leading amateur players will defy their national organizations and back Wimbledon to the hilt in its move for an open tournament.

"I am positive that men such as Arthur Ashe, Charlie Pasarell and Cliff Richey, who form the guts of our Davis Cup team, and Billie Jean King, the queen of women's tennis, would risk suspension and play in an open tournament at Wimbledon," Kramer added.

"That's not all. I think you'll find the same sort of uprising in Australia, France, Italy and other countries where big time tennis is played.

"All the players I've spoken with have the greatest admiration for the Wimbledon plan to hold an open tournament. They are ready to give full support."

British Lawn Tennis Association authorities, who conduct the biggest tournament of them all, announced earlier this year that they would throw the 1968 Wimbledon event open to amateurs and pros—in defiance of the International Lawn Tennis Federation.

The ILTF, run by the smaller countries, decided last summer against an experimental open tournament.

This week British tennis spokesmen began to show hesitancy about their whole venture because of lack of support from the big tennis-playing nations, such as the United States and Australia.

The American and Australian bodies indicated that they would be forced to suspend any amateur player who competed in an open at Wimbledon.

The British meet Dec. 14 to make a final decision.

Ohio Bowling Classic Attracts Large Field

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—More than 600 teams already are entered in the 64th annual Ohio State Bowling Association Tournament which opens here March 2 and runs through the weekend of May 12.

Team event competition is scheduled for Park Lanes. Doubles and singles play will be rolled at Shamrock Recreation. Entries close Jan. 15.

Richard "Davie" Davidson of Middletown, the 1967 Ohio all-events champion, will be back to defend his title.

4 Scholastic Stars Will Enroll At WVU

MORGANTOWN (AP) — West Virginia University's football recruiting squad wasted no time in picking the cream of Bluefield High School's prep crop by signing three outstanding players from this year's championship Beavers team to grant-in-aid scholarships.

Signed were halfback Pete Wood, tackle Larry McBride and fullback Ron Goodwin.

Wood and Goodwin headed the potent Beaver attack all season and scored three touchdowns between them in the Class AAA championship game against Charleston Stonewall Jackson.

McBride, a two-way player, was called "'probably the best blocking tackle I've ever coached," by Beaver coach Merrill Gainer.

Also signed Friday was Wirt County High's top-rated offensive tackle Mike Goodwin.

NEW KNICK. Bill Bradley, former Princeton All-American, stands outside Madison Square Garden, the home of his new team, the New York Knickerbockers. Bradley was released from the Air Force yesterday and will start working out with the Knicks tomorrow. (UPI Telephoto)

Bradley Out Of Air Force, Ready To Join NY Knicks

NEW YORK (AP) — Can the Bill Bradley mystique be affecting the New York Knickerbockers already?

"I'm available to play basketball," the former Princeton All-America said Tuesday at a news conference when he announced his six-month tour of duty with the Air Force was over.

But he wasn't in uniform Tuesday night when the Knicks took the court at Madison Square Garden. However, he was in the stands.

"Excellent," Bradley said after watching the game.

And excellent was just what the Knicks were in drubbing the Baltimore Bullets 148-117.

"I think Bradley coming in today had something to do with it," said forward Dick Van Arsdale. "At least for me it meant something."

Willis Reed thought the Knicks' top effort simply was the result of good play. But then the big center added:

"Psychologically maybe it (Bradley's presence at the Garden) did help.

But it is Bradley's appearance on the court that the Knicks want and need.

The National Basketball Association club signed Bradley to a four-year, $500,000 contract last spring after he had spent two years in England as a Rhodes Scholar.

"I was beginning to have a little trouble sleeping at night in my eagerness to get going," said Bradley, who had not been expected to end his sixth-month service tour until Jan. 6.

But Bradley said that when he arrived at McGuire AFB Monday to continue his tour, he was notified of a regulation that permitted him to get out early because he had completed his training. He still must attend Reserve meetings one weekend each month for the next 5½ years.

"I'll be ready to play when Mr. Donovan (General Manager Ed Donovan) and Mr. McGuire (Coach Dick McGuire) think I should. I think it will be on a day-to-day basis."

McGuire, whose team has a 12-14 record and is fourth in the Eastern Division, said Bradley would not accompany the team to Boston for its game with the Celtics tonight but that he would work out with the club Thursday.

Lakers Down 76ers

Bing Sparks Pistons To Win Over Rockets

By The Associated Press

The baskets came in bunches for Bing, Baylor and Boozer.

Dave Bing, held to 11 points through three quarters and on the bench in the fourth period until 4:49 remained, scored 12 of Detroit's last 14 points as the Pistons edged the San Diego Rockets 111-110 in the first game of a National Basketball Association doubleheader in New York.

Elgin Baylor flipped in eight points in overtime, including what proved to be the winning basket, as the Los Angeles Lakers downed the 76ers 128-122 in Philadelphia.

Bob Boozer sank two field goals in the last 31 seconds and led the Chicago Bulls to a 105-104 victory over the Cincinnati Royals at Evansville, Ind.

In the only other NBA games, the Knickerbockers drubbed Baltimore 148-117 in the second game at New York and San Francisco upended Seattle 133-121 at Oakland.

Bing, who finished with 23 points, grabbed the rebound of a missed Terry Dischinger shot and scored with just four seconds left to give Detroit its victory. Dischinger added 22 for the Pistons. Don Kojis scored 27 for San Diego.

Baylor's jump shot with 1:16 left in overtime broke a 120-120 tie for the Lakers, who had sent the game into the extra period when Mel Counts' foul shot made it 110-110 with 18 seconds left. Baylor finished with 32 points. Wilt Chamberlain scored 31 for Philadelphia.

Boozer's two baskets gave the Bulls their seventh victory in the last 10 games. He finished with 21 points, while Oscar Robertson paced Cincinnati with 37.

Nine players scored in double figures for New York, which ran up its season-high game total. Walt Bellamy led the way with 26 points, and Cazzie Russell added 22. Gus Johnson scored 21 and LeRoy Ellis 20 for Baltimore.

San Francisco, in racking up its 18th victory in the last 22 outings at the expense of Seattle, moved to within one-half game of idle St. Louis, the Western Division pacesetter. The triumph also was the Warriors' seventh straight in Oakland.

The Warriors built a 72-48 halftime bulge and coasted the rest of the way. Jeff Mullins headed the balanced San Francisco scoring parade with 29 points and big Nate Thurmond added 26. Walt Hazzard spearheaded the Sonics with 29 points, 17 in the third period.

Packers, LA Both Tough Defensively

NEW YORK (AP) — The clash of the Los Angeles Rams and the Green Bay Packers in the Memorial Coliseum Saturday afternoon shapes up as the big defensive battle of the season in the National Football League.

The Rams rank first in rushing defense, allowing an average of 76 yards a game in the first 12 gmes.

Vince Lombardi's battle-tested defensive warriors are first in total defense, yielding 230 yards a game, and also first in pass defense, giving up 90 yards a game.

Los Angeles rates higher than Green Bay on offense although neither club is among the leaders. Baltimore's over-all attack is best with a 374-yard average. Cleveland's running attack is first with 160 yards and Washington's passing barrage has averaged 275 yards. The Rams are sixth in offense and the Packers are ninth.

Baseball Clinic Set At Rochester

The first in a series of baseball clinics to be conducted by Tito Francona in Beaver County will be held Thursday from 2 to 3 p. m. at Rochester High School.

Francona, a member of the Atlanta Braves baseball team, has been employed by the Beaver County Recreation Department.

He will conduct clinics at various high schools throughout the county during the winter.

Charlie Ravenel scored 17 touchdowns and 6 extra points for 108 tallies in his three varsity football seasons at Harvard — 1958-60.

Charleston Pre-Season Cage Pick

By The Associated Press

West Virginia's Triple-A basketball season ended on a frantic note last winter and this season holds the same sort of promise, what with Charleston and Beckley fighting for top honors.

Charleston finished first and Beckley second in the Associated Press pre-season poll of sports writers and sportscasters. Charleston attracted seven first place votes and 104 points while Beckley drew the other five place votes and 103 points.

Beckley won the Triple - A championship in the tournament at Morgantown last March on a 75-69 decision in overtime. However, the Crimson Eagles will be without Roger Wood this season. The stringbean center, who played a vital role in the title victory, is now a freshman at Morris Harvey. All-stater John Wooten will anchor the Beckley offense this season and is its big hope on the backboards.

Charleston, on the other hand has four starters back from last season's team, including all-stater Curtis Price who had a 23.3 season average. Other returning starters include 6-5 Larry Harris, floor leader Sonny Burls and 6-0 Skip Mason.

The pre-season top ten (first-place votes in parentheses):

1. Charleston (7)	104
2. Beckley (5)	103
3. Williamson	88
4. Wheeling Central	71
5. Parkersburg	59
6. Huntington	48
7. Logan	42
8. Elkins	32
9. Wellsburg	25
10. St. Albans	15

Others receiving votes included Ceredo - Kenova, Bluefield, Fairmont West, Charleston Catholic, Weirton, Triadelphia, Farmington, DuPont, Richwood, Charleston Stonewall Jackson, South Charleston, Monongah, Huntington East, Mateway and Keyser.

Wins Lambert Trophy

NEW YORK (AP) — Penn State, bound for the Gator Bowl against Florida State, Monday was named winner of the Lambert Trophy, symbolizing the best major college football team in the East.

Nonpareil Sponsoring Cage League

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club is starting a basketball league for boys in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

There will be two four-team leagues, one for eighth graders and one for the sixth and seventh graders. The town has been divided into four areas for the purpose of the league. Boys who attended Pleasant Heights, Glenmoor or LaCroft elementary schools, even if they go to Westgate now, are asked to come to Westgate to practice from 6:30 - 9 tonight and every Wednesday night. Boys who attend or attended Garfield, Horace Mann, or Neville elementary schools are asked to come to practice at East Junior High from 6:30 - 9 tonight and every Wednesday night.

NEW KNICK. Bill Bradley, former Princeton All-American, stands outside Madison Square Garden, the home of his new team, the New York Knickerbockers. Bradley was released from the Air Force yesterday and will start working out with the Knicks tomorrow. (UPI Telephoto)

Bradley Out Of Air Force, Ready To Join NY Knicks

NEW YORK (AP) — Can the Bill Bradley mystique be affecting the New York Knickerbockers already?

"I'm available to play basketball," the former Princeton All-America said Tuesday at a news conference when he announced his six-month tour of duty with the Air Force was over.

But he wasn't in uniform Tuesday night when the Knicks took the court at Madison Square Garden. However, he was in the stands.

"Excellent," Bradley said after watching the game.

And excellent was just what the Knicks were in drubbing the Baltimore Bullets 148-117.

"I think Bradley coming in today had something to do with it," said forward Dick Van Arsdale. "At least for me it meant something."

Willis Reed thought the Knicks' top effort simply was the result of good play. But then the big center added:

"Psychologically maybe it (Bradley's presence at the Garden) did help.

But it is Bradley's appearance on the court that the Knicks want and need.

The National Basketball Association club signed Bradley to a four-year, $500,000 contract last spring after he had spent two years in England as a Rhodes Scholar.

"I was beginning to have a little trouble sleeping at night in my eagerness to get going," said Bradley, who had not been expected to end his sixth-month service tour until Jan. 6.

But Bradley said that when he arrived at McGuire AFB Monday to continue his tour, he was notified of a regulation that permitted him to get out early because he had completed his training. He still must attend Reserve meetings one weekend each month for the next 5½ years.

"I'll be ready to play when Mr. Donovan (General Manager Ed Donovan) and Mr. McGuire (Coach Dick McGuire) think I should. I think it will be on a day-to-day basis."

McGuire, whose team has a 12-14 record and is fourth in the Eastern Division, said Bradley would not accompany the team to Boston for its game with the Celtics tonight but that he would work out with the club Thursday.

Lakers Down 76ers

Bing Sparks Pistons To Win Over Rockets

By The Associated Press

The baskets came in bunches for Bing, Baylor and Boozer.

Dave Bing, held to 11 points through three quarters and on the bench in the fourth period until 4:49 remained, scored 12 of Detroit's last 14 points as the Pistons edged the San Diego Rockets 111-110 in the first game of a National Basketball Association doubleheader in New York.

Elgin Baylor flipped in eight points in overtime, including what proved to be the winning basket, as the Los Angeles Lakers downed the 76ers 128-122 in Philadelphia.

Bob Boozer sank two field goals in the last 31 seconds and led the Chicago Bulls to a 105-104 victory over the Cincinnati Royals at Evansville, Ind.

In the only other NBA games, the Knickerbockers drubbed Baltimore 148-117 in the second game at New York and San Francisco upended Seattle 133-121 at Oakland.

Bing, who finished with 23 points, grabbed the rebound of a missed Terry Dischinger shot and scored with just four seconds left to give Detroit its victory. Dischinger added 22 for the Pistons. Don Kojis scored 27 for San Diego.

Baylor's jump shot with 1:16 left in overtime broke a 120-120 tie for the Lakers, who had sent the game into the extra period when Mel Counts' foul shot made it 110-110 with 18 seconds left. Baylor finished with 32 points. Wilt Chamberlain scored 31 for Philadelphia.

Boozer's two baskets gave the Bulls their seventh victory in the last 10 games. He finished with 21 points, while Oscar Robertson paced Cincinnati with 37.

Nine players scored in double figures for New York, which ran up its season-high game total. Walt Bellamy led the way with 26 points, and Cazzie Russell added 22. Gus Johnson scored 21 and LeRoy Ellis 20 for Baltimore.

San Francisco, in racking up its 18th victory in the last 22 outings at the expense of Seattle, moved to within one-half game of idle St. Louis, the Western Division pacesetter. The triumph also was the Warriors' seventh straight in Oakland.

The Warriors built a 72-48 halftime bulge and coasted the rest of the way. Jeff Mullins headed the balanced San Francisco scoring parade with 29 points and big Nate Thurmond added 26. Walt Hazzard spearheaded the Sonics with 29 points, 17 in the third period.

Packers, LA Both Tough Defensively

NEW YORK (AP) — The clash of the Los Angeles Rams and the Green Bay Packers in the Memorial Coliseum Saturday afternoon shapes up as the big defensive battle of the season in the National Football League.

The Rams rank first in rushing defense, allowing an average of 76 yards a game in the first 12 gmes.

Vince Lombardi's battle-tested defensive warriors are first in total defense, yielding 230 yards a game, and also first in pass defense, giving up 90 yards a game.

Los Angeles rates higher than Green Bay on offense although neither club is among the leaders. Baltimore's over-all attack is best with a 374-yard average. Cleveland's running attack is first with 160 yards and Washington's passing barrage has averaged 275 yards. The Rams are sixth in offense and the Packers are ninth.

Baseball Clinic Set At Rochester

The first in a series of baseball clinics to be conducted by Tito Francona in Beaver County will be held Thursday from 2 to 3 p. m. at Rochester High School.

Francona, a member of the Atlanta Braves baseball team, has been employed by the Beaver County Recreation Department.

He will conduct clinics at various high schools throughout the county during the winter.

Charlie Ravenel scored 17 touchdowns and 6 extra points for 108 tallies in his three varsity football seasons at Harvard — 1958-60.

Charleston Pre-Season Cage Pick

By The Associated Press

West Virginia's Triple-A basketball season ended on a frantic note last winter and this season holds the same sort of promise, what with Charleston and Beckley fighting for top honors.

Charleston finished first and Beckley second in the Associated Press pre-season poll of sports writers and sportscasters. Charleston attracted seven first place votes and 104 points while Beckley drew the other five place votes and 103 points.

Beckley won the Triple - A championship in the tournament at Morgantown last March on a 75-69 decision in overtime. However, the Crimson Eagles will be without Roger Wood this season. The stringbean center, who played a vital role in the title victory, is now a freshman at Morris Harvey. All-stater John Wooten will anchor the Beckley offense this season and is its big hope on the backboards.

Charleston, on the other hand has four starters back from last season's team, including all-stater Curtis Price who had a 23.3 season average. Other returning starters include 6-5 Larry Harris, floor leader Sonny Burls and 6-0 Skip Mason.

The pre-season top ten (first-place votes in parentheses):

1. Charleston (7)	104
2. Beckley (5)	103
3. Williamson	88
4. Wheeling Central	71
5. Parkersburg	59
6. Huntington	48
7. Logan	42
8. Elkins	32
9. Wellsburg	25
10. St. Albans	15

Others receiving votes included Ceredo - Kenova, Bluefield, Fairmont West, Charleston Catholic, Weirton, Triadelphia, Farmington, DuPont, Richwood, Charleston Stonewall Jackson, South Charleston, Monongah, Huntington East, Mateway and Keyser.

Oaks Lose Star In Court Ruling

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Levern Tart of Oakland, the American Basketball Association's leading scorer, has been barred from playing for the Oaks for the rest of the season.

Judge John G. Brosky of Allegheny County Court ruled Friday that Tart must play for Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in the Eastern Basketball League, under the option clause in his 1966-67 contract.

Tart, who averaged 27 points a game, was the second player restrained from playing for the Oaks, who lost Rick Barry on a similar ruling concerning his contract with the San Francisco Warriors.

Willie Somerset of the ABA's Houston Mavericks is under a temporary restraining order from a federal judge in Houston barring him from playing. The Scranton, Pa., Miners of the Eastern League claimed they have a contract with him this year. A hearing is scheduled Dec. 8 in that case.

Waterford Betters Own Handle Mark

Each day of racing at Waterford Park for the balance of the 1967 season will be establishing a new record in mutuel handle and attendance. There are 16 more days of the sport at the West Virginia oval, weather permitting.

The records in the mutuel play will be increased with each bet made since the all-time mutuel record, set last year, has been passed. In 1966 fans at Waterford Park bet a record $63,399,444. That mark was passed last week.

The rise in popularity of Waterford Park may be attributed to a number of things, the principal ones being the accommodations offered and the fact that the caliber of horses racing at Waterford has been bettered.

The over - all increase in mutuels will be between 11 and 13 per cent, one of the better increases at any thoroughbred track in the United States and Canada. Waterford's 1967 figures were reached despite eight days lost to the weather during heavy snow periods in February and March.

The fans in the Tri-State area became more and more thoroughbred conscious, and in doing so made Waterford Park the track they attended for the pleasure of seeing thoroughbreds compete for purse money.

Speaking of purse money, that department, too, soared at Waterford. More than $2,759,000 has been paid to horsemen in purses to date.

Lamonica Takes Over Passing Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Otis Taylor, Kansas City's talented flanker, has moved into a tie with Oakland's Hewritt Dixon for the American Football League's pass reception lead.

But that didn't do Len Dawson, the KC quarterback, much good.

Dawson, the passing leader for most of the season, slipped to second place behind Oakland's Daryle Lamonica according to AFL statistics released today. Lamonica's 26 touchdown passes lead the league.

Taylor and Dixon have each snared 55 passes—two better thn George Sauer of New York. Taylor, who runs longer patterns than Dixon, a fullback, has gained 849 yards to the Oakland player's 524.

Denver's Floyd Little, who returned punt 72 yards for a touchdown against New York last Sunday, leads that department, averaging 16.9 yards per return on 16 attempts.

Jim Nance of Boston remains the rushing leader with 1,017 yards gained in 232 attempts. Houston's twin running threats, Hoyle Granger and Woodie Campbell, show the best averages. Granger is averaging five yards per carry and Campbell 5.2.

Lamonica Takes Over Passing Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Otis Taylor, Kansas City's talented flanker, has moved into a tie with Oakland's Hewritt Dixon for the American Football League's pass reception lead.

But that didn't do Len Dawson, the KC quarterback, much good.

Dawson, the passing leader for most of the season, slipped to second place behind Oakland's Daryle Lamonica according to AFL statistics released today. Lamonica's 26 touchdown passes lead the league.

Taylor and Dixon have each snared 55 passes—two better thn George Sauer of New York. Taylor, who runs longer patterns than Dixon, a fullback, has gained 849 yards to the Oakland player's 524.

Denver's Floyd Little, who returned punt 72 yards for a touchdown against New York last Sunday, leads that department, averaging 16.9 yards per return on 16 attempts.

Jim Nance of Boston remains the rushing leader with 1,017 yards gained in 232 attempts. Houston's twin running threats, Hoyle Granger and Woodie Campbell, show the best averages. Granger is averaging five yards per carry and Campbell 5.2.

Yanks Bomb Suspected Buildup Areas Of Reds

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Air Force B52 bombers dumped 450,000 pounds of bombs today on suspected Communist buildup areas near the Cambodian border and just inside North Vietnam.

In two early morning strikes, the eight-engine Stratofortresses dropped 300,000 pounds of explosives on suspected Communist weapons positions and troop concentrations two and three miles north-northeast of the Bu Dop Special Forces Camp 86 miles north of Saigon.

Heavy fighting and Communist mortar and artillery attacks have engaged the Americans off and on since last week around Bu Dop, which is only three miles east of the Cambodian border. Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops have been reported building up in the area from sanctuaries in Cambodia.

In a third raid, the B52s unloaded 150,000 pounds of bombs on suspected Communist antiaircraft and artillery positions, bunkers and supply areas along the southern tip of North Vietnam 12 miles north-northeast of the U.S. Marine outpost at Con Thien. The North Vietnamese are believed to have from 35,000 to 40,000 troops along the frontier area.

Fighting flared briefly again at Bu Dop Tuesday after a weekend of heavy Communist mortar and artillery attacks, A company from the U.S. 1st Infantry Division, sent in last week to reinforce the special forces camp, ran into two Communist platoons—about 70 men—who were in fortified positions less than a mile from the Bu Dop airstrip.

In a brief skirmish, the American infantrymen reported killing 10 of the enemy while suffering four wounded. The Communist platoons were reported armed with two wheel-mounted machine guns and 82mm mortars.

Early today the Viet Cong opened up with bazooka-type rockets on a company of 1st Division infantrymen on patrol in the Bu Dop area. One American was wounded.

In two skirmishes Tuesday along South Vietnam's coastal lowlands U.S. troops reported killing 34 enemy, including a North Vietnamese regimental commander. Three Americans were wounded in the two fights.

U.S. headquarters said papers found on the dead Communist officer indicated he was a major and had command of the North Vietnamese 2nd Division's 3rd Regiment.

South Vietnamese military headquarters announced officially that 47 civilians and seven militiamen were killed by Viet Cong forces who rampaged through the "new life" hamlet of Dak Song early Tuesday about 12 miles southwest of Bu Dop.

President Of Uruguay Dies Of Heart Attack

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — President Oscar Diego Gestido died early today of a heart attack. He was 66.

Government sources said Gestido became ill about 1 a.m. and his wife immediately called doctors from the military hospital. The president died shortly after.

Vice President Jorge Pacheco Areco, 47, took over the presidency.

Gestido, a retired air force general, was sworn in last March as Uruguay's first "solo" president in 16 years, replacing a government council of nine men who had been unable to get together to solve Uruguay's mounting economic woes.

The bushy-browed, 6-foot-2 former pilot resigned from the council to run as a candidate from the underdog Colorado party. He won by a landslide.

Though he did not have time to revitalize his financially sick country, he gave it some stunning shock treatments in his nine months in office.

He devalued the peso sharply from 99 to 200 to the dollar and raised floor prices for wool and grains. He began curtailing government spending and issued $100 million in treasury bonds to finance deficits.

Thirty Montevideo grocers who marked up their prices on old stock were prosecuted under a new antiprofiteering law.

Such measures did away with Uruguay's black market in foreign currency virtually overnight.

When state bank employes struck for higher pay and all but tied up the state economy, Gestido suspended constitutional guarantees, ordered a state of siege for two weeks, ordered the strikers back to work and fired four ministers who protested the measures.

Uruguay, a tiny country wedged in between giant Brazil and Argentina, has a population of some 2.6 million and one of Latin America's three highest standards of living.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Rifle Association says it will hold its annual rifle and pistol championships at Camp Perry, Ohio, next year, even though the Army won't help sponsor them.

About 2,000 competitors are expected, some 5,000 less than last year.

Franklin L. Orth, executive vice president of the 900,000-member organization, said the state of Ohio will cooperate in staging the August matches.

The Army last month said it was withdrawing its traditional support "to reduce expenditures and limit spending to only the most essential programs," primarily because of involvement in the Vietnam war.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission has called for a combined federal-state campaign against unfair and deceptive labeling and packaging.

"It is apparent to me," said FTC Chairman Paul Rand Dixon in a letter to state officials, "that the spirit of the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act calls for close FTC-state cooperation." He asked the states to work closely with the commission staff in adopting and enforcing rules under the law and in developing a coordinated enforcement program against deceptive and unfair practices.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury Department reports gold sales totaling $76.6 million to the United Kingdom during the third quarter of this year. It says the sales largely reflect frenzied trade in gold following the Middle East crisis last June.

The period saw a net decline in American gold holdings of $92.2 million—$53.2 million of it through sales to foreign governments and $39 million in sales to domestic users.

The United States now supplies 59 per cent of the gold sold on the London market.

Capital Footnotes

Cyrus R. Vance, the President's trouble shooter in the Cyprus crisis, has returned to Washington disclaiming any interest in becoming the new secretary of defense. He has been mentioned as a possible successor to Robert S. McNamara who will soon resign to become president of the World Bank.

President Johnson has accepted the resignation of W. True Davis, former U.S. ambassador to Switzerland, as an assistant secretary of the Treasury and the U.S. executive director of the Inter-American Development Bank. Davis has declined comment on speculation he will run for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo.

Capital Quote

We thought they'd like to have a couple of more birds around,"—Sen. Russell Long, D-La., as he brought to the White House a porcelain sculpture of bluebirds as a wedding gift from Democratic congressional leaders to Lynda Bird Johnson and her groom, Capt. Charles S. Robb.

Democratic Club Honors Risbeck

HANOVERTON — John Risbeck of North Georgetown, president of the Western Columbiana County Democratic Club, received the recognition of members Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Peg Knestrick for "outstanding leadership" during the last two years.

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, was present to launch the club's membership drive. He reminded precinct committeemen to get their petitions completed and filed before the deadline. The chairman was accompanied by Don Young, president of the Columbiana Democratic Club.

During remarks, Gosney said, "It has always been a mystery to me why some Ohio newspapers think it is a sin for deficit spending on the federal level yet back deficit spending on bond issues in Ohio and don't say anything about deficit spending on a state level."

Gifts were exchanged. Merle Hardy of North Georgetown, president - elect, will be installed by Gosney Jan. 2 at Summitville.

Druids of ancient Britain decked their halls with boughs of holly to shelter sylvan spirits threatened by frost and chill winter winds.

Yanks Bomb Suspected Buildup Areas Of Reds

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Air Force B52 bombers dumped 450,000 pounds of bombs today on suspected Communist buildup areas near the Cambodian border and just inside North Vietnam.

In two early morning strikes, the eight-engine Stratofortresses dropped 300,000 pounds of explosives on suspected Communist weapons positions and troop concentrations two and three miles north-northeast of the Bu Dop Special Forces Camp 86 miles north of Saigon.

Heavy fighting and Communist mortar and artillery attacks have engaged the Americans off and on since last week around Bu Dop, which is only three miles east of the Cambodian border. Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops have been reported building up in the area from sanctuaries in Cambodia.

In a third raid, the B52s unloaded 150,000 pounds of bombs on suspected Communist antiaircraft and artillery positions, bunkers and supply areas along the southern tip of North Vietnam 12 miles north-northeast of the U.S. Marine outpost at Con Thien. The North Vietnamese are believed to have from 35,000 to 40,000 troops along the frontier area.

Fighting flared briefly again at Bu Dop Tuesday after a weekend of heavy Communist mortar and artillery attacks, A company from the U.S. 1st Infantry Division, sent in last week to reinforce the special forces camp, ran into two Communist platoons—about 70 men —who were in fortified positions less than a mile from the Bu Dop airstrip.

In a brief skirmish, the American infantrymen reported killing 10 of the enemy while suffering four wounded. The Communist platoons were reported armed with two wheel-mounted machine guns and 82mm mortars.

Early today the Viet Cong opened up with bazooka-type rockets on a company of 1st Division infantrymen on patrol in the Bu Dop area. One American was wounded.

In two skirmishes Tuesday along South Vietnam's coastal lowlands U.S. troops reported killing 34 enemy, including a North Vietnamese regimental commander. Three Americans were wounded in the two fights.

U.S. headquarters said papers found on the dead Communist officer indicated he was a major and had command of the North Vietnamese 2nd Division's 3rd Regiment.

South Vietnamese military headquarters announced officially that 47 civilians and seven militiamen were killed by Viet Cong forces who rampaged through the "new life" hamlet of Dak Song early Tuesday about 12 miles southwest of Bu Dop.

Pupils Present Yule Program At Garfield Meeting

The annual Christmas program was presented by the elementary students during a meeting of the Garfield Home and School League Tuesday afternoon. About 140 attended.

Mrs. Jane Rife, elementary vocal music supervisor, was in charge, assisted by Miss Joan Flora, Miss Mary Philo, Mrs. Mary Ellen Zetz, Mrs. Ruby McComas, Mrs. Rosalie Spencer, Mrs. Naomi Hendrickson, Dennis Anthony and Paul Boggess, teachers.

Mrs. Kenneth Adams, vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Paul Burson, president. Mrs. Joseph Leonard served as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Robert Buchheit. The Rev. E. H. Harris of the Second Baptist Church conducted devotions.

President Of Uruguay Dies Of Heart Attack

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — President Oscar Diego Gestido died early today of a heart attack. He was 66.

Government sources said Gestido became ill about 1 a.m. and his wife immediately called doctors from the military hospital. The president died shortly after.

Vice President Jorge Pacheco Areco, 47, took over the presidency.

Gestido, a retired air force general, was sworn in last March as Uruguay's first "solo" president in 16 years, replacing a government council of nine men who had been unable to get together to solve Uruguay's mounting economic woes.

The bushy-browed, 6-foot-2 former pilot resigned from the council to run as a candidate from the underdog Colorado party. He won by a landslide.

Though he did not have time to revitalize his financially sick country, he gave it some stunning shock treatments in his nine months in office.

He devalued the peso sharply from 99 to 200 to the dollar and raised floor prices for wool and grains. He began curtailing government spending and issued $100 million in treasury bonds to finance deficits.

Thirty Montevideo grocers who marked up their prices on old stock were prosecuted under a new antiprofiteering law.

Such measures did away with Uruguay's black market in foreign currency virtually overnight.

When state bank employes struck for higher pay and all but tied up the state economy, Gestido suspended constitutional guarantees, ordered a state of siege for two weeks, ordered the strikers back to work and fired four ministers who protested the measures.

Uruguay, a tiny country wedged in between giant Brazil and Argentina, has a population of some 2.6 million and one of Latin America's three highest standards of living.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Rifle Association says it will hold its annual rifle and pistol championships at Camp Perry, Ohio, next year, even though the Army won't help sponsor them.

About 2,000 competitors are expected, some 5,000 less than last year.

Franklin L. Orth, executive vice president of the 900,000-member organization, said the state of Ohio will cooperate in staging the August matches.

The Army last month said it was withdrawing its traditional support "to reduce expenditures and limit spending to only the most essential programs," primarily because of involvement in the Vietnam war.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission has called for a combined federal-state campaign against unfair and deceptive labeling and packaging.

"It is apparent to me," said FTC Chairman Paul Rand Dixon in a letter to state officials, "that the spirit of the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act calls for close FTC-state cooperation." He asked the states to work closely with the commission staff in adopting and enforcing rules under the law and in developing a coordinated enforcement program against deceptive and unfair practices.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury Department reports gold sales totaling $76.6 million to the United Kingdom during the third quarter of this year. It says the sales largely reflect frenzied trade in gold following the Middle East crisis last June.

The period saw a net decline in American gold holdings of $92.2 million—$53.2 million of it through sales to foreign governments and $39 million in sales to domestic users.

The United States now supplies 59 per cent of the gold sold on the London market.

Capital Footnotes

Cyrus R. Vance, the President's trouble shooter in the Cyprus crisis, has returned to Washington disclaiming any interest in becoming the new secretary of defense. He has been mentioned as a possible successor to Robert S. McNamara who will soon resign to become president of the World Bank.

President Johnson has accepted the resignation of W. True Davis, former U.S. ambassador to Switzerland, as an assistant secretary of the Treasury and the U.S. executive director of the Inter-American Development Bank. Davis has declined comment on speculation he will run for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo.

Capital Quote

We thought they'd like to have a couple of more birds around,"—Sen. Russell Long, D-La., as he brought to the White House a porcelain sculpture of bluebirds as a wedding gift from Democratic congressional leaders to Lynda Bird Johnson and her groom, Capt. Charles S. Robb.

Democratic Club Honors Risbeck

HANOVERTON — John Risbeck of North Georgetown, president of the Western Columbiana County Democratic Club, received the recognition of members Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Peg Knestrick for "outstanding leadership" during the last two years.

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, was present to launch the club's membership drive. He reminded precinct committeemen to get their petitions completed and filed before the deadline. The chairman was accompanied by Don Young, president of the Columbiana Democratic Club.

During remarks, Gosney said, "It has always been a mystery to me why some Ohio newspapers think it is a sin for deficit spending on the federal level yet back deficit spending on bond issues in Ohio and don't say anything about deficit spending on a state level."

Gifts were exchanged. Merle Hardy of North Georgetown, president - elect, will be installed by Gosney Jan. 2 at Summitville.

Legion Post 4 Aims Resolution Against DeGaulle

Slides of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands were screened by W. E. Kaiser before the meeting of American Legion Post 4 Monday night.

Recommendations were accepted for constitutional and bylaw changes. The constitutional revision committee includes Dave Sakol, chairman, I. J. Vorndran, Ernest Lowe and G. William Brokaw.

The Americanism Committee recommended a resolution be passed stating that, since Gen. DeGaulle and France "have set out to undermine the United States — including training Russian paratroopers and ordering U. S. troops out of France, as well as many other unfriendly acts — the U. S. should make a public announcement to recognize gold for dollars, but in the case of France, before redemption, deduction of the large debt owed by France to the U. S. should be extracted."

Letters have been sent to Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Sen. Frank Lausche and Sen. Stephen Young and Rep. Wayne L. Hays, Gerald Hughey, commander, said.

Lunch was served by a committee headed by Ed Dailey.

The next meeting will be Monday at 8 p. m. in the former Siff Building on Market St.

'Career Day' Set At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — The annual Kiwanis Club "Career Day" will be held Thursday at East Palestine High School with James J. Barnett, executive vice president of the L. A. Barnett Co. of Barberton as speaker.

His topic at the 1 p. m. assembly will be "Taking America for Granted."

Groups will meet in separate sessions afterward. The largest will be secretarial, with 115 students enrolled. Teaching will be next with 109, and engineering third, 96.

Bexley Hall Shift To Rochester Set During Summer

GAMBIER, Ohio—Bexley Hall, Episcopal seminary at Kenyon College here, will be moved next summer to New York state to become an affiliate to Colgate Rochester Divinity School.

Trustees of the college approved the action after a committee study pointed to the need "for a closer union between traditional academic disciplines and the actual work of the ministry."

F. Edward Lund, president of 14-year-old Kenyon, noted that "it is unrealistic in this day and age to have a divinity school tied to an undergraduate college, and both will be better off fulfilling their own purposes."

Colgate Rochester, as Bexley's planning committee notes, "is an academically and administratively superior seminary which has a productive relationship with the University of Rochester and is "located in an adequately large city offering the normal variety of urban activities and problems." A further advantage is that it is remote from the "seminary - saturated Atlantic Coast" and close enough to Ohio to secure interest and support from that state.

The separation of the two schools involves a transfer of assets in excess of a million and a half dollars.

The action is the first legal step in the establishment of a Rochester Center for Theological Studies.

The sassafras tree bears leaves of three different shapes.

Personalities In The News

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Officials at RCA Victor say they soon will sign Rep. Richard Fulton, D-Tenn., to a contract as a singer.

Bob Ferguson, senior producer for RCA, said Tuesday the label plans to promote Fulton as a full-fledged recording star and will issue his first single Jan. 2.

"He'll get the full treatment," Ferguson said.

Fulton's previous vocal experience was limited to some church singing. His wife, Jewel, calls him "a bathtub baritone."

However, RCA sees him as a new country music star.

NEW YORK (AP) — Television personality and newspaper columnist Ed Sullivan was awarded the Bronze Medallion of the City of New York Tuesday on the occasion of his 20th year in television.

Mayor John V. Linday, in presenting the award, described Sullivan as "the laureate of American television" and said his Sunday night TV show had "broken all records for excellence as well as longevity."

—:—

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Robert Culp and Eurasian actress France Nuyen, who appeared together on the "I Spy" television series, said Tuesday they plan to marry this Saturday.

Culp, 37, and Miss Nuyen, 27, appeared together in three "I Spy" sequences, with the last two scripts written for her by Culp.

It will be the third marriage for Culp, who has four children by his second marriage. Miss Nuyen has been married once before and is the mother of a 3-year-old daughter.

GAMBIER, Ohio—Bexley Hall, Episcopal seminary at Kenyon College here, will be moved next summer to New York state to become an affiliate to Colgate Rochester Divinity School.

Trustees of the college approved the action after a committee study pointed to the need "for a closer union between traditional academic disciplines and the actual work of the ministry."

F. Edward Lund, president of 14-year-old Kenyon, noted that "it is unrealistic in this day and age to have a divinity school tied to an undergraduate college, and both will be better off fulfilling their own purposes."

Colgate Rochester, as Bexley's planning committee notes, "is an academically and administratively superior seminary which has a productive relationship with the University of Rochester and is "located in an adequately large city offering the normal variety of urban activities and problems." A further advantage is that it is remote from the "seminary - saturated Atlantic Coast" and close enough to Ohio to secure interest and support from that state.

The separation of the two schools involves a transfer of assets in excess of a million and a half dollars.

The action is the first legal step in the establishment of a Rochester Center for Theological Studies.

Personalities In The News

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Officials at RCA Victor say they soon will sign Rep. Richard Fulton, D-Tenn., to a contract as a singer.

Bob Ferguson, senior producer for RCA, said Tuesday the label plans to promote Fulton as a full-fledged recording star and will issue his first single Jan. 2.

"He'll get the full treatment," Ferguson said.

Fulton's previous vocal experience was limited to some church singing. His wife, Jewel, calls him "a bathtub baritone."

However, RCA sees him as a new country music star.

NEW YORK (AP) — Television personality and newspaper columnist Ed Sullivan was awarded the Bronze Medallion of the City of New York Tuesday on the occasion of his 20th year in television.

Mayor John V. Linday, in presenting the award, described Sullivan as "the laureate of American television" and said his Sunday night TV show had "broken all records for excellence as well as longevity."

—:—

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Robert Culp and Eurasian actress France Nuyen, who appeared together on the "I Spy" television series, said Tuesday they plan to marry this Saturday.

Culp, 37, and Miss Nuyen, 27, appeared together in three "I Spy" sequences, with the last two scripts written for her by Culp.

It will be the third marriage for Culp, who has four children by his second marriage. Miss Nuyen has been married once before and is the mother of a 3-year-old daughter.

Yanks Bomb Suspected Buildup Areas Of Reds

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Air Force B52 bombers dumped 450,000 pounds of bombs today on suspected Communist buildup areas near the Cambodian border and just inside North Vietnam.

In two early morning strikes, the eight-engine Stratofortresses dropped 300,000 pounds of explosives on suspected Communist weapons positions and troop concentrations two and three miles north-northeast of the Bu Dop Special Forces Camp 86 miles north of Saigon.

Heavy fighting and Communist mortar and artillery attacks have engaged the Americans off and on since last week around Bu Dop, which is only three miles east of the Cambodian border. Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops have been reported building up in the area from sanctuaries in Cambodia.

In a third raid, the B52s unloaded 150,000 pounds of bombs on suspected Communist antiaircraft and artillery positions, bunkers and supply areas along the southern tip of North Vietnam 12 miles north-northeast of the U.S. Marine outpost at Con Thien. The North Vietnamese are believed to have from 35,000 to 40,000 troops along the frontier area.

Fighting flared briefly again at Bu Dop Tuesday after a weekend of heavy Communist mortar and artillery attacks, A company from the U.S. 1st Infantry Division, sent in last week to reinforce the special forces camp, ran into two Communist platoons—about 70 men —who were in fortified positions less than a mile from the Bu Dop airstrip.

In a brief skirmish, the American infantrymen reported killing 10 of the enemy while suffering four wounded. The Communist platoons were reported armed with two wheel-mounted machine guns and 82mm mortars.

Early today the Viet Cong opened up with bazooka-type rockets on a company of 1st Division infantrymen on patrol in the Bu Dop area. One American was wounded.

In two skirmishes Tuesday along South Vietnam's coastal lowlands U.S. troops reported killing 34 enemy, including a North Vietnamese regimental commander. Three Americans were wounded in the two fights.

U.S. headquarters said papers found on the dead Communist officer indicated he was a major and had command of the North Vietnamese 2nd Division's 3rd Regiment.

South Vietnamese military headquarters announced officially that 47 civilians and seven militiamen were killed by Viet Cong forces who rampaged through the "new life" hamlet of Dak Song early Tuesday about 12 miles southwest of Bu Dop.

President Of Uruguay Dies Of Heart Attack

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — President Oscar Diego Gestido died early today of a heart attack. He was 66.

Government sources said Gestido became ill about 1 a.m. and his wife immediately called doctors from the military hospital. The president died shortly after.

Vice President Jorge Pacheco Areco, 47, took over the presidency.

Gestido, a retired air force general, was sworn in last March as Uruguay's first "solo" president in 16 years, replacing a government council of nine men who had been unable to get together to solve Uruguay's mounting economic woes.

The bushy-browed, 6-foot-2 former pilot resigned from the council to run as a candidate from the underdog Colorado party. He won by a landslide.

Though he did not have time to revitalize his financially sick country, he gave it some stunning shock treatments in his nine months in office.

He devalued the peso sharply from 99 to 200 to the dollar and raised floor prices for wool and grains. He began curtailing government spending and issued $100 million in treasury bonds to finance deficits.

Thirty Montevideo grocers who marked up their prices on old stock were prosecuted under a new antiprofiteering law.

Such measures did away with Uruguay's black market in foreign currency virtually overnight.

When state bank employes struck for higher pay and all but tied up the state economy, Gestido suspended constitutional guarantees, ordered a state of siege for two weeks, ordered the strikers back to work and fired four ministers who protested the measures.

Uruguay, a tiny country wedged in between giant Brazil and Argentina, has a population of some 2.6 million and one of Latin America's three highest standards of living.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Rifle Association says it will hold its annual rifle and pistol championships at Camp Perry, Ohio, next year, even though the Army won't help sponsor them.

About 2,000 competitors are expected, some 5,000 less than last year.

Franklin L. Orth, executive vice president of the 900,000-member organization, said the state of Ohio will cooperate in staging the August matches.

The Army last month said it was withdrawing its traditional support "to reduce expenditures and limit spending to only the most essential programs," primarily because of involvement in the Vietnam war.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission has called for a combined federal-state campaign against unfair and deceptive labeling and packaging.

"It is apparent to me," said FTC Chairman Paul Rand Dixon in a letter to state officials, "that the spirit of the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act calls for close FTC-state cooperation." He asked the states to work closely with the commission staff in adopting and enforcing rules under the law and in developing a coordinated enforcement program against deceptive and unfair practices.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury Department reports gold sales totaling $76.6 million to the United Kingdom during the third quarter of this year. It says the sales largely reflect frenzied trade in gold following the Middle East crisis last June.

The period saw a net decline in American gold holdings of $92.2 million—$53.2 million of it through sales to foreign governments and $39 million in sales to domestic users.

The United States now supplies 59 per cent of the gold sold on the London market.

Capital Footnotes

Cyrus R. Vance, the President's trouble shooter in the Cyprus crisis, has returned to Washington disclaiming any interest in becoming the new secretary of defense. He has been mentioned as a possible successor to Robert S. McNamara who will soon resign to become president of the World Bank.

President Johnson has accepted the resignation of W. True Davis, former U.S. ambassador to Switzerland, as an assistant secretary of the Treasury and the U.S. executive director of the Inter-American Development Bank. Davis has declined comment on speculation he will run for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo.

Capital Quote

We thought they'd like to have a couple of more birds around,"—Sen. Russell Long, D-La., as he brought to the White House a porcelain sculpture of bluebirds as a wedding gift from Democratic congressional leaders to Lynda Bird Johnson and her groom, Capt. Charles S. Robb.

Democratic Club Honors Risbeck

HANOVERTON — John Risbeck of North Georgetown, president of the Western Columbiana County Democratic Club, received the recognition of members Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Peg Knestrick for "outstanding leadership" during the last two years.

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, was present to launch the club's membership drive. He reminded precinct committeemen to get their petitions completed and filed before the deadline. The chairman was accompanied by Don Young, president of the Columbiana Democratic Club.

During remarks, Gosney said, "It has always been a mystery to me why some Ohio newspapers think it is a sin for deficit spending on the federal level yet back deficit spending on bond issues in Ohio and don't say anything about deficit spending on a state level."

Gifts were exchanged. Merle Hardy of North Georgetown, president - elect, will be installed by Gosney Jan. 2 at Summitville.

Druids of ancient Britain decked their halls with boughs of holly to shelter sylvan spirits threatened by frost and chill winter winds.

Royal now has about 60 workers at Plant No. 4, making a specialized ovenware.

Expenditures included $54,000 for interest on bonds, $11,711 real estate and personal property taxes; $9,298 for insurance, and $850 miscellaneous, for a total of $75,500, leaving a current balance of about $9,000.

Legion Post 4 Aims Resolution Against DeGaulle

Slides of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands were screened by W. E. Kaiser before the meeting of American Legion Post 4 Monday night.

Recommendations were accepted for constitutional and bylaw changes. The constitutional revision committee includes Dave Sakol, chairman, I. J. Vorndran, Ernest Lowe and G. William Brokaw.

The Americanism Committee recommended a resolution be passed stating that, since Gen. DeGaulle and France "have set out to undermine the United States — including training Russian paratroopers and ordering U. S. troops out of France, as well as many other unfriendly acts — the U. S. should make a public announcement to recognize gold for dollars, but in the case of France, before redemption, deduction of the large debt owed by France to the U. S. should be extracted."

Letters have been sent to Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Sen. Frank Lausche and Sen. Stephen Young and Rep. Wayne L. Hays, Gerald Hughey, commander, said.

Lunch was served by a committee headed by Ed Dailey.

The next meeting will be Monday at 8 p. m. in the former Siff Building on Market St.

'Career Day' Set At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — The annual Kiwanis Club "Career Day" will be held Thursday at East Palestine High School with James J. Barnett, executive vice president of the L. A. Barnett Co. of Barberton as speaker.

His topic at the 1 p. m. assembly will be "Taking America for Granted."

Groups will meet in separate sessions afterward. The largest will be secretarial, with 115 students enrolled. Teaching will be next with 109, and engineering third, 96.

Bexley Hall Shift To Rochester Set During Summer

GAMBIER, Ohio—Bexley Hall, Episcopal seminary at Kenyon College here, will be moved next summer to New York state to become an affiliate to Colgate Rochester Divinity School.

Trustees of the college approved the action after a committee study pointed to the need "for a closer union between traditional academic disciplines and the actual work of the ministry."

F. Edward Lund, president of 14-year-old Kenyon, noted that "it is unrealistic in this day and age to have a divinity school tied to an undergraduate college, and both will be better off fulfilling their own purposes."

Colgate Rochester, as Bexley's planning committee notes, "is an academically and administratively superior seminary which has a productive relationship with the University of Rochester and is "located in an adequately large city offering the normal variety of urban activities and problems." A further advantage is that it is remote from the "seminary - saturated Atlantic Coast" and close enough to Ohio to secure interest and support from that state.

The separation of the two schools involves a transfer of assets in excess of a million and a half dollars.

The action is the first legal step in the establishment of a Rochester Center for Theological Studies.

"He'll get the full treatment," Ferguson said.

Fulton's previous vocal experience was limited to some church singing. His wife, Jewel, calls him "a bathtub baritone."

However, RCA sees him as a new country music star.

U.S. Silent On Plans For U.N. Viet Bid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States kept silent today on plans to seek U.N. action on the Vietnam war amid an apparent U.S.-South Vietnamese split over whether to invite the Viet Cong to participate.

A spokesman for the U.S. delegation said no instructions had been received from the White House since the Senate approved a resolution last Friday calling on President Johnson to seek U.N. help to end the war.

Johnson told a news conference Monday that the resolution would be sent to the State Department and U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg for their "reactions" before any steps are taken.

Questioned about the prospects of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front taking part in the proposed Security Council debate, the State Department recalled Goldberg's telling the Senate Foreign Relations Committee a month ago the United States "would not stand in the way of any group, including the NFL, being invited."

In the wake of the State Department comment, South Vietnam's Foreign Ministry appealed to the United Nations not to allow the world forum to be used for "propaganda purposes."

"The South Vietnamese people can only negotiate with North Vietnam, and will energetically refuse any presence by South Vietnam National Liberation Front representatives under the name or meaning of a separate delegation in any peace negotiations," the foreign ministry said.

Hearings Set In Two Suits

A hearing has been set Dec. 15 in two suits filed against Hancock County Sheriff Joseph Rodak and New Cumberland Police Chief William Webster. The actions total $2,000.

Judge James McClure set 11:45 a. m. for the hearing in Circuit Court after notices of motions were filed by attorneys for the defense, Frank Pietranton and Joseph George.

The suits were filed in November by Irwin Mayhew and Mrs. Betty Brown, both of New Cumberland, on behalf of their minor sons.

In separate actions, Mayhew alleges Rodak and Webster, who was acting at the time in his capacity as constable of Clay District, detained his 10-year-old son in the Hancock jail Oct. 20 from 2:30 to 7:10 p. m. Mrs. Brown charges her son was detained in the jail on that same date and was not released until Nov. 20. Both parents seek $1,000.

Mrs. Brown, 34, of Hardins Run Rd. and her two young sons were indicted by the September term of the grand jury in connection with breaking and enterings in the New Cumberland area.

Mrs. Brown was charged with receiving stolen goods from juveniles. The items allegedly were taken from the New Cumberland Junior High School and the Hardins Run Inn.

Her sons, Richard and John Brown, were indicted on two counts each of breaking and entering the school and tavern and for escaping from the Hancock jail in mid - July. The boys were apprehended the next day by Steubenville police.

The trio originally had been linked with robberies at the Crescent Brick Co., the Georgetown Sportsman's Club and the New Cumberland cemetery.

Mrs. Brown's jury trial has been continued until Jan. 20.

The cases of her two sons were referred back to Juvenile Court by Judge McClure.

Second Of Two Sessions Held

the Nov. 28 session and yesterday included lack of industrial growth, lack of cooperation between the northern and southern areas, improved educational facilities and opportunities, lack of effective leadership, lack of communications, lack of long-range planning, improved medical services, highway programs, apathy, water and sewer development, airport need, and others.

—:—

AMONG COMMUNITY goals listed by those attending were better communications between areas in the county, improved vocational and technical education, a good east-west highway, adequate wages, strip mine reclamation, enlarged recreation facilities, avoidance of duplicate health faclities, and others.

Speakng on updating local government, Dr. Coke cited the need to recognize that conditions have changed in America, and that new means of solving governmental problems should be used.

He said the urbanization of American has modified the basic economy so that there are fewer jobs in basic manufacturing and more in the service and professional levels. There is no longer much difference between rural and urban ways of life, he went on, and the role of the federal government had become much larger on the local level to help meet some of the basic problems.

"Local government has been crippled by the image of suspicion and waste and politics, and there have been few radical changes in the basic structure over the years," he said, adding most communities get better governmental services and leadership than they deserve from the amount of money invested.

He suggested the county be the basic unit of government, mentioning the "Lakewood (Calif.) Plan" in which cities contract all services through a county program, although having their own mayor and council. This is better economy and better distribution of the tax resources, he said.

HE ALSO said that schools could be better operated under a county program rather than independently, in terms of administration and use of the tax dollar.

Dr. Coke emphasized the need for adequate pay for local government employes in order to have truly professional staffs working for the community. "We have the policemen and firemen doing our dirty work for us, and are unwilling to pay them." He said there have been increasing strikes among municipal employes, and more can be expected.

He also declared new tax sources must be tapped to provide local government operations. He mentioned one plan by which the state would return additional revenue to each subdivision to be used for whatever the subdivision wanted.

Dr. Coke said there should be greater flexibility and long term effort on the local scale for really effective government. He referred to the "professionalized bureaucracy" for running government, keeping it in tune with operations across the nation, just as engineers, educators, lawyers, architects and others operate on a professional basis.

He concluded by emphasizing that whatever is done on the local level, must be done "by ourselves."

A discussion on the value and effectiveness of the seminar was held afterward by Al Pugh, extension specialist on community resources development from Ohio State, and Paul Gipp, county extension agent.

IT WAS decided the steering committee will meet early next year to plan a general meeting of the seminar members to evaluate county problems and possible action to solve them.

Among those attending the seminar from the area were George Ford of the Crucible Steel Co., George Steele of the city planning commission, Ray Trevelline of the Community Improvement Corp., Frank Mangano of the Jaycees Nelson Hagerty of the 1st National Bank, East Liverpool.

School Supt. Don Lowe and Principal Charles Wilfing, J. F. Russell, Perpetual Savings & Loan, J. Marvin Hall, Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Helen Welch, Community Action Committee, all of Wellsville.

School Supt. Joseph Driscoll, Lisbon; Rev. Fred Schiltz, Dan Meyers, Harry Morris, Lisbon; Charles Koch, Wayne Rupert, and Henry Garrod, New Waterford; Paul Brittain and Harold Smith of East Palestine, and various county officials and employes.

Western Pennsylvania Cites Ohio Cigarette Bootlegging

HARRISBURG (!P) — Bootlegging of milk from Ohio, where it costs less, has been a minor problem in Western Pennsylvania for some years. Now, cigarettes have joined the list of contraband.

Police are virtually powerless to stop the small-scale smuggling, because, among other reasons, there is not enough of them.

"We know there is a tremendous amount of Pennsylvanians going across the state line to purchase cigarettes," Revenue Secretary Warner M. Depuy said Tuesday.

The reason is Pennsylvania's recently enacted 5 cent increase in the cigarette tax, which now stands at 13 cents a pack, compared with Ohio's 5 cents a pack.

By buying cigarettes in Ohio, Pennsylvanians can save 80 cents a carton. The practice is illegal, but the chances of getting caught are slim.

Depuy said there was nothing to indicate any widespread bootlegging, and to keep the illicit traffic slow, his department is increasing enforcement by 50 per cent by taking on 25 additional field investigators and auditors.

"Our main problem is getting qualified personnel at the salary we pay," the secretary remarked.

Depuy said organized bootlegging on a large scale could cost the state dearly in revenue. He noted that New York City and New York State, with cigarette taxes of 14 and 11 cents respectively, lost a total of 50 million last year.

Campus Area Probed In Killer Hunt

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP)—Police, stymid by the brutal murder of a mild-mannered education professor, today moved their investigation onto the area of the school campus in search of the killer.

Greene County Sheriff Russell Bradley said, however, he saw no connection between the "senseless" slaying of Dr. Ruth Hargrave, 63, Monday night and a Black Power group that has been blamed for recent racial disturbnces at the predominantly Negro school.

Some school officials said Dr. Hargrave, a pioneer in training of young teachers, was opposed to the tactics of the racial extremists, but had not openly attacked them.

Bradley ruled out sex or robbery as a motive.

Dr. Hargraves apparently was buldgeoned with a brick. Brick fragments were found in a 20-square-foot area near the door and deputies said there were no signs of forcible entry into the teacher's residence.

Police have been able to reconstruct an account of whereabouts of Dr. Hargrave hours prior to her death--except for a 40-minute period when the murder apparently took place.

The teacher had talked to her husband in Cincinnati by telephone from 9:30 p.m. to 9:45 p.m. Her body was found at 10:25 p.m. by a neighbor

Court Income Rises $1,519

Municipal Court income hit $5,792 in November, a gain of $1,519 from October's $4,273, it was shown today in the monthly report of Wilbur J. Harmon, clerk.

The clerk turned over $4,274 from its November revenue to the city treasury, a gain of $755 from the $3,519 paid the municipality out of October receipts.

The city's share was comprised of $280 in costs from civil cases, $3,327 in fines, costs and forfeitures in criminal cases and $666 from citations issued by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

In addition to the amount turned over to the city, the court paid $666 to the state treasury, and $88 to the Law Library Association.

The total amount handled by the court in November was $10,478, a gain of $1,143 from the $9,335 in October. The sums handled last month included $4,270 in the civil branch and $6,208 in the criminal branch.

A breakdown of cases for November showed: 30 civil actions filed, 47 disposed of and 155 pending; 62 city criminal cases filed, 52 disposed of and 112 pending, and 123 state criminal cases filed, 119 disposed of and 23 pending.

For Conduction Deliberations

Pennsylvania Convention Votes On Operating Rules

HARRISBURG (AP) — Delegates to Pennsylvania's constitutional convention here scheduled to vote today on proposed operating rules and procedures for conducting day-to-day deliberations.

The suggested regulations were released to the floor for action late Tuesday afternoon by an 18 - member temporary rules committee headed by former Gov. William W. Scranton, a Republican, and former State Sen. Robert P. Casey, a Democrat.

Casey, convention first vice-president, and Scranton said their committee report represented changes made in the rules drafted by the preparatory committee to reflect the wishes of convention delegates.

The major recommendations included:

— Delegates be seated alphabetically rather than by senatorial districts.

— Committee membership be expanded so that each of the 163 delegates may be given a committee assignment.

— Delegates be permitted to debate committee recommendations for 15 rather than 10 minutes.

Casey and Scranton said the rules were designed to permit the convention to function as "unpartisan-like" as possible.

"I think it's important to set the tone for the convention, and that's what the rules committee tried to do," Casey said.

"And I think it's a very good tone," Scranton added.

The committee spent most of Monday and Tuesday preparing its report on proposals that will permit the convention to begin in earnest its task of revising four key areas of the state's 93-year-old constitution.

Members of the legislature were to be honored at today's session, officially designated as "General Assembly Day." Spokesmen selected by Senate and House leaders were invited to attend as honored guests.

In addition, Judge Burton Laub, dean of the Dickinson School of Law, was to brief delegates on proposals affecting the judiciary, one of the four constitutional sections to be revised.

Other areas of revision are legislative apportionment, local government, and taxation and finance. Detailed briefings on the four topics were prepared by special task forces appointed earlier by the preparatory committee.

The first briefing, on legislative apportionment, was presented Tuesday by David Stahl, Pittsburgh city solicitor and a former state attorney general.

Sensed Defeat After Debate

Dirksen Drops Proposal, Removes School Aid Bar

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen's withdrawal of a hotly argued amendment on school busing removes a major barrier to passage of the $14.2 billion federal school aid bill.

The Senate Republican leader, apparently sensing defeat after two days of debate, withdrew Monday night his proposal to bar use of federal funds for busing pupils in order to overcome racial imbalances in schools.

Southern senators have other pending proposals to weaken the impact of civil rights laws, making possible further prolonged debate on the legislation.

But Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., leading the administration's fight for the measure in its present form, expressed hope Southern opposition could be turned back in time to send the bill to a House-Senate conference by week's end.

The Southern opposition is focused on two proposed amendments.

One, sponsored by Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., would prevent the Department of Health, Education and Welfare from cutting off aid to any district after a school year started. It would apply even when the school was found to be violating the section of the 1964 Civil Rights Act barring federal segregation is practiced.

The other is the rider which Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., got into the House's school bill. It would prevent HEW from deferring approval of aid applications from districts practicing segregation. Instead, the agency would have to go through a lengthy, formal process to cut off funds.

This amendment was stricken from the bill by the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee but Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said he would seek to restore it during floor consideration.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, announced he will offer an amendment to cut back the authorization total in the bill by about $2.4 billion. He insisted authorizations for the various aid programs covered by the measure should be held to the level of the current year.

The Senate bill would increase them substantially in each of the next three years, rising to a $5.1 billion total in fiscal 1971 compared with $3.9 billion in the present year.

Memorial Mass Held

U.S. Servicemen In Viet Pay Tribute To Spellman

SAIGON (AP) — Generals and privates, admirals and seamen paid tribute today to Francis Cardinal Spellman at a memorial Mass at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut Air Base.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, was among the hundreds in the large auditorium at U.S. military headquarters who heard the cardinal eulogized as a great American."

Cardinal Spellman was Roman Catholic vicar for the U.S. armed forces and spent Christmas in Vietnam in 1965 and 1966.

Col. Joseph Chmielewski, the military chaplain delegate for Roman Catholics in Vietnam, said in a eulogy that Cardinal Spellman "had a great affection for the armed forces. His 16 trips overseas to spend Christmases with the troops in the embattled areas are witness to his affection for and devotion to the armed forces of our country."

Col. Chmielewski said the cardinal often said if he had to give up one of his posts as archbishop or military vicar, "he would relinquish his position as archbishop of New York ... such was his devotion and affection for the armed forces."

The chaplain said Spellman "prayed to the Good Lord that our nation be given the fortitude, the courage and the means to come to the aid of our fellow men in this corner of Asia, in imitation of the Good Samaritan who came to the aid of another victim of aggression."

His words recalled the furor that followed Spellman's statement during his Christmas visit to Saigon last year that the war "is a war for civilization" and anything less than a victory for the United States was inconceivable.

The Vatican, which at the time was repeatedly sounding appeals for peace, was reported upset.

In New York, where Cardinal Spellman's body is lying in state in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Archbishop Iakovos of the Greek Orthodox Church conducted a requiem service Tuesday in the Cathedral. It was believed the first Orthodox service conducted in a Roman Catholic Church since the Eastern Church broke away in 1054.

Up to several thousand mourners an hour continued to pass by the catafalque of Cardinal Spellman, who died Saturday at the age of 78. A church spokesman said 1,500 of the general public will be admitted at the 90-minute pontifical requiem Mass on Thursday, after which Cardinal Spellman will be buried in a crypt below St. Patrick's altar.

The remaining 1,000 seats will be reserved for the cardinal's relatives and friends, churchmen and dignitaries.

U.S. Silent On Plans For U.N. Viet Bid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States kept silent today on plans to seek U.N. action on the Vietnam war amid an apparent U.S.-South Vietnamese split over whether to invite the Viet Cong to participate.

A spokesman for the U.S. delegation said no instructions had been received from the White House since the Senate approved a resolution last Friday calling on President Johnson to seek U.N. help to end the war.

Johnson told a news conference Monday that the resolution would be sent to the State Department and U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg for their "reactions" before any steps are taken.

Questioned about the prospects of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front taking part in the proposed Security Council debate, the State Department recalled Goldberg's telling the Senate Foreign Relations Committee a month ago the United States "would not stand in the way of any group, including the NFL, being invited."

In the wake of the State Department comment, South Vietnam's Foreign Ministry appealed to the United Nations not to allow the world forum to be used for "propaganda purposes."

"The South Vietnamese people can only negotiate with North Vietnam, and will energetically refuse any presence by South Vietnam National Liberation Front representatives under the name or meaning of a separate delegation in any peace negotiations," the foreign ministry said.

AMONG COMMUNITY goals listed by those attending were better communications between areas in the county, improved vocational and technical education, a good east-west highway, adequate wages, strip mine reclamation, enlarged recreation facilities, avoidance of duplicate health faclities, and others.

Speakng on updating local government, Dr. Coke cited the need to recognize that conditions have changed in America, and that new means of solving governmental problems should be used.

He said the urbanization of American has modified the basic economy so that there are fewer jobs in basic manufacturing and more in the service and professional levels. There is no longer much difference between rural and urban ways of life, he went on, and the role of the federal government had become much larger on the local level to help meet some of the basic problems.

"Local government has been crippled by the image of suspicion and waste and politics, and there have been few radical changes in the basic structure over the years," he said, adding most communities get better governmental services and leadership than they deserve from the amount of money invested.

He suggested the county be the basic unit of government, mentioning the "Lakewood (Calif.) Plan" in which cities contract all services through a county program, although having their own mayor and council. This is better economy and better distribution of the tax resources, he said.

HE ALSO said that schools could be better operated under a county program rather than independently, in terms of administration and use of the tax dollar.

Dr. Coke emphasized the need for adequate pay for local government employes in order to have truly professional staffs working for the community. "We have the policemen and firemen doing our dirty work for us, and are unwilling to pay them." He said there have been increasing strikes among municipal employes, and more can be expected.

He also declared new tax sources must be tapped to provide local government operations. He mentioned one plan by which the state would return additional revenue to each subdivision to be used for whatever the subdivision wanted.

Dr. Coke said there should be greater flexibility and long term effort on the local scale for really effective government. He referred to the "professionalized bureaucracy" for running government, keeping it in tune with operations across the nation, just as engineers, educators, lawyers, architects and others operate on a professional basis.

He concluded by emphasizing that whatever is done on the local level, must be done "by ourselves."

A discussion on the value and effectiveness of the seminar was held afterward by Al Pugh, extension specialist on community resources development from Ohio State, and Paul Gipp, county extension agent.

IT WAS decided the steering committee will meet early next year to plan a general meeting of the seminar members to evaluate county problems and possible action to solve them.

Among those attending the seminar from the area were George Ford of the Crucible Steel Co., George Steele of the city planning commission, Ray Trevelline of the Community Improvement Corp., Frank Mangano of the Jaycees Nelson Hagerty of the 1st National Bank, East Liverpool.

School Supt. Don Lowe and Principal Charles Wilfing, J. F. Russell, Perpetual Savings & Loan, J. Marvin Hall, Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Helen Welch, Community Action Committee, all of Wellsville.

School Supt. Joseph Driscoll, Lisbon; Rev. Fred Schiltz, Dan Meyers, Harry Morris, Lisbon; Charles Koch, Wayne Rupert, and Henry Garrod, New Waterford; Paul Brittain and Harold Smith of East Palestine, and various county officials and employes.

Western Pennsylvania Cites Ohio Cigarette Bootlegging

HARRISBURG (!P) — Bootlegging of milk from Ohio, where it costs less, has been a minor problem in Western Pennsylvania for some years. Now, cigarettes have joined the list of contraband.

Police are virtually powerless to stop the small-scale smuggling, because, among other reasons, there is not enough of them.

"We know there is a tremendous amount of Pennsylvanians going across the state line to purchase cigarettes," Revenue Secretary Warner M. Depuy said Tuesday.

The reason is Pennsylvania's recently enacted 5 cent increase in the cigarette tax, which now stands at 13 cents a pack, compared with Ohio's 5 cents a pack.

By buying cigarettes in Ohio, Pennsylvanians can save 80 cents a carton. The practice is illegal, but the chances of getting caught are slim.

Depuy said there was nothing to indicate any widespread bootlegging, and to keep the illicit traffic slow, his department is increasing enforcement by 50 per cent by taking on 25 additional field investigators and auditors.

"Our main problem is getting qualified personnel at the salary we pay," the secretary remarked.

Depuy said organized bootlegging on a large scale could cost the state dearly in revenue. He noted that New York City and New York State, with cigarette taxes of 14 and 11 cents respectively, lost a total of 50 million last year.

Campus Area Probed In Killer Hunt

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP)— Police, stymid by the brutal murder of a mild-mannered education professor, today moved their investigation onto the area of the school campus in search of the killer.

Greene County Sheriff Russell Bradley said, however, he saw no connection between the "senseless" slaying of Dr. Ruth Hargrave, 63, Monday night and a Black Power group that has been blamed for recent racial disturbnces at the predominantly Negro school.

Some school officials said Dr. Hargrave, a pioneer in training of young teachers, was opposed to the tactics of the racial extermists, but had not openly attacked them.

Bradley ruled out sex or robbery as a motive.

Dr. Hargraves apparently was buldgeoned with a brick. Brick fragments were found in a 20-square-foot area near the door and deputies said there were no signs of forcible entry into the teacher's residence.

Police have been able to reconstruct an account of whereabouts of Dr. Hargrave hours prior to her death--except for a 40-minute period when the murder apparently took place.

The teacher had talked to her husband in Cincinnati by telephone from 9:30 p.m. to 9:45 p.m. Her body was found at 10:25 p.m. by a neighbor

Court Income Rises $1,519

Municipal Court income hit $5,792 in November, a gain of $1,519 from October's $4,273, it was shown today in the monthly report of Wilbur J. Harmon, clerk.

The clerk turned over $4,274 from its November revenue to the city treasury, a gain of $755 from the $3,519 paid the municipality out of October receipts.

The city's share was comprised of $280 in costs from civil cases, $3,327 in fines, costs and forfeitures in criminal cases and $666 from citations issued by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

In addition to the amount turned over to the city, the court paid $666 to the state treasury, and $88 to the Law Library Association.

The total amount handled by the court in November was $10,478, a gain of $1,143 from the $9,335 in October. The sums handled last month included $4,270 in the civil branch and $6,208 in the criminal branch.

A breakdown of cases for November showed: 30 civil actions filed, 47 disposed of and 155 pending; 62 city criminal cases filed, 52 disposed of and 112 pending, and 123 state criminal cases filed, 119 disposed of and 23 pending.

For Conduction Deliberations

Pennsylvania Convention Votes On Operating Rules

HARRISBURG (AP) — Delegates to Pennsylvania's constitutional convention here scheduled to vote today on proposed operating rules and procedures for conducting day-to-day deliberations.

The suggested regulations were released to the floor for action late Tuesday afternoon by an 18 - member temporary rules committee headed by former Gov. William W. Scranton, a Republican, and former State Sen. Robert P. Casey, a Democrat.

Casey, convention first vice-president, and Scranton said their committee report represented changes made in the rules drafted by the preparatory committee to reflect the wishes of convention delegates.

The major recommendations included:

— Delegates be seated alphabetically rather than by senatorial districts.

— Committee membership be expanded so that each of the 163 delegates may be given a committee assignment.

— Delegates be permitted to debate committee recommendations for 15 rather than 10 minutes.

Casey and Scranton said the rules were designed to permit the convention to function as "unpartisan-like" as possible.

"I think it's important to set the tone for the convention, and that's what the rules committee tried to do," Casey said.

"And I think it's a very good tone," Scranton added.

The committee spent most of Monday and Tuesday preparing its report on proposals that will permit the convention to begin in earnest its task of revising four key areas of the state's 93-year-old constitution.

Members of the legislature were to be honored at today's session, officially designated as "General Assembly Day." Spokesmen selected by Senate and House leaders were invited to attend as honored guests.

In addition, Judge Burton Laub, dean of the Dickinson School of Law, was to brief delegates on proposals affecting the judiciary, one of the four constitutional sections to be revised.

Other areas of revision are legislative apportionment, local government, and taxation and finance. Detailed briefings on the four topics were prepared by special task forces appointed earlier by the preparatory committee.

The first briefing, on legislative apportionment, was presented Tuesday by David Stahl, Pittsburgh city solicitor and a former state attorney general.

Sensed Defeat After Debate

Dirksen Drops Proposal, Removes School Aid Bar

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen's withdrawal of a hotly argued amendment on school busing removes a major barrier to passage of the $14.2 billion federal school aid bill.

The Senate Republican leader, apparently sensing defeat after two days of debate, withdrew Monday night his proposal to bar use of federal funds for busing pupils in order to overcome racial imbalances in schools.

Southern senators have other pending proposals to weaken the impact of civil rights laws, making possible further prolonged debate on the legislation.

But Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., leading the administration's fight for the measure in its present form, expressed hope Southern opposition could be turned back in time to send the bill to a House-Senate conference by week's end.

The Southern opposition is focused on two proposed amendments.

One, sponsored by Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., would prevent the Department of Health, Education and Welfare from cutting off aid to any district after a school year started. It would apply even when the school was found to be violating the section of the 1964 Civil Rights Act barring federal segregation is practiced.

The other is the rider which Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., got into the House's school bill. It would prevent HEW from deferring approval of aid applications from districts practicing segregation. Instead, the agency would have to go through a lengthy, formal process to cut off funds.

This amendment was stricken from the bill by the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee but Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said he would seek to restore it during floor consideration.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, announced he will offer an amendment to cut back the authorization total in the bill by about $2.4 billion. He insisted authorizations for the various aid programs covered by the measure should be held to the level of the current year.

The Senate bill would increase them substantially in each of the next three years, rising to a $5.1 billion total in fiscal 1971 compared with $3.9 billion in the present year.

Memorial Mass Held

U.S. Servicemen In Viet Pay Tribute To Spellman

SAIGON (AP) — Generals and privates, admirals and seamen paid tribute today to Francis Cardinal Spellman at a memorial Mass at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut Air Base.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, was among the hundreds in the large auditorium at U.S. military headquarters who heard the cardinal eulogized as a great American."

Cardinal Spellman was Roman Catholic vicar for the U.S. armed forces and spent Christmas in Vietnam in 1965 and 1966.

Col. Joseph Chmielewski, the military chaplain delegate for Roman Catholics in Vietnam, said in a eulogy that Cardinal Spellman "had a great affection for the armed forces. His 16 trips overseas to spend Christmases with the troops in the embattled areas are witness to his affection for and devotion to the armed forces of our country."

Col. Chmielewski said the cardinal often said if he had to give up one of his posts as archbishop or military vicar, "he would relinquish his position as archbishop of New York ... such was his devotion and affection for the armed forces."

The chaplain said Spellman "prayed to the Good Lord that our nation be given the fortitude, the courage and the means to come to the aid of our fellow men in this corner of Asia, in imitation of the Good Samaritan who came to the aid of another victim of aggression."

His words recalled the furor that followed Spellman's statement during his Christmas visit to Saigon last year that the war "is a war for civilization" and anything less than a victory for the United States was inconceivable.

The Vatican, which at the time was repeatedly sounding appeals for peace, was reported upset.

In New York, where Cardinal Spellman's body is lying in state in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Archbishop Iakovos of the Greek Orthodox Church conducted a requiem service Tuesday in the Cathedral. It was believed the first Orthodox service conducted in a Roman Catholic Church since the Eastern Church broke away in 1054.

Up to several thousand mourners an hour continued to pass by the catafalque of Cardinal Spellman, who died Saturday at the age of 78. A church spokesman said 1,500 of the general public will be admitted at the 90-minute pontifical requiem Mass on Thursday, after which Cardinal Spellman will be buried in a crypt below St. Patrick's altar.

The remaining 1,000 seats will be reserved for the cardinal's relatives and friends, churchmen and dignitaries.

The countries are Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Chile, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, France, Great Britain, Japan, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Russia, South Africa and the United States.

Sends Love To Wife

Heart Transplant Patient Gives Thanks To Doctors

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Louis Washkansky personally thanked his surgeons Tuesday for the epochal heart transplant that is keeping him alive and sent his love to his wife.

Washkansky's doctors said he continued in a satisfactory condition, but they advised his wife, Ann, to wait a week before seeing her husband to avoid any chance of infection.

The critical hurdle for the 55-year-old wholesale grocer is expected this weekend, when his body may indicate whether it will accept or reject the heart of 25-year-old Denise Ann Darvall, who died in an auto accident.

"I am not endangering my husband for anything in the world," said Mrs. Washkansky. "It is not for me to barge in and upset the apple cart. To survive the operation was incredible enough. I want to see him in health again."

The first recorded human heart transplant did not affect the real principle of life, said the Vatican daily newspaper L'Osservatore Romano in the first)Vatican comment on the operation.

"The heart is a physiological organ," said L'Osservatore, discussing the philosophical and spiritual implications of the operation. "Its function is purely mechanical, although it conditions human existence."

The life principle of man resides in the soul, an "interior and invisible power," the paper continude, adding that the operation did not go against God's will because "God created man in His own image. . . and to increasingly dominate physical and natural resources."

Prof. Christian Barnard, 44, who headed the surgical team for the operation, said a Cape Town druggist may be the next recipient of a transplanted heart, but Banard added that right now his 30-member team is spending all its time checking on Washkansky's progress.

"Some of these boys have not slept for three days," he added.

Washkansky came to South Africa with his parents from Lithuania, grew up in Cape Town and became the director of a wholesale grocery business.

The Washkanskys have a son, Michael, 15. They belong to a Cape Town Hebrew congregation.

Salineville Chief Warns Motorists

SALINEVILLE — Police Chief Gordon Sweeney today issued a warning to motorists against parking along Main St. with wheels over curbs.

The chief said it has been a practice for some drivers to pull up over the curb along the narrow street in an effort to keep their cars away from moving traffic or because they could not see the very low curb at some places.

Chief Sweeney said he has been receiving a number of complaints about the situation and said he will tag all autos parked improperly.

'Resistance' Group Plans Vigil In Protest To War

CINCINNATI (AP) — Members of a group called "The Resistance" plan a vigil outside the federal building tonight as part of a week-long series of protests against the war in Vietnam.

More than 50 persons took part in a demonstration at Wilmington Tuesday, and about the same number handed in blood-soaked cards to induction officials here Monday. Officials said nine of the cards were genuine draft cards or duplicates.

There have been no arrests in Southwest Ohio, but scores of persons have been arrested during similar demonstrations in other parts of the country this week.

The Wilmington demonstration was to be a "silent vigil" in support of James R. Wessner of Blanchester who refused to join seven other inductees in boarding a bus to Cincinnati. There was no trouble, but local residents staged a counter-demonstration while a loudspeaker truck played patriotic music.

Students and faculty members of the Quaker-supported Wilmington College took part in both the demonstration and the counter-demonstration.

Wessner is a graduate student of comparative literature at the University of California. He is married to a granddaughter of Cyrus Eaton, Cleveland industrialist and a prominent opponent of U.S. policy in Vietnam.

Many of the participants in both Monday's and Tuesday's demonstrations were bearded and long-haired youths. Students from Antioch College at Yellow Springs took a prominent part in Monday's demonstration.

Leaflets distributed by "The Resistance" say there will be a sit-in at Selective Service headquarters here Thursday.

Army's Forgotten Soldier Today Is 'Real Civilian'

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Joe A. Smith, the soldier the Army lost in its filing system for 18 months, is a real civilian today and says "it's a great feeling."

Without comment, the Army put Smith, 23, through its separation processing Tuesday at the Oakland Army Base.

Following Army instructions, he had waited at his Brownsville, Calif. home, standing by for special orders following basic training in 1965 at Ft. Hood, Tex.

After 18 months of waiting, at home with his wife, Glenda, Smith put on his uniform and reported at the Oakland base last June to ask for his discharge.

"It was quite a sweat, but now it's all over, and everythings all right," said Smith after emerging Tuesday from the base with his separation papers.

"Now I want to find me a job here in the Bay area."

Smith's adventure began when he went to his home on 30-day leave. The Army sent him a message there telling him to stand by for special orders.

While he waited Smith took a logging job at $130 a week. The Army's monthly allotment check for $92.50 kept coming to his wife, plus an $18.50 U.S. savings bond every three months.

The American Civil Liberties Union took up Smith's cause, contending he had followed the Army's orders precisely.

While the ACLU took the case to court, Smith was assigned to the 6th Army headquarters at the Presidio as a runner and promoted to private first class.

As federal Judge Robert C. Pekham issued a show cause order last Friday for the Army to explain why Smith should not be released, the Army announced he would be discharged.

Smith said he unterstood the Army would make no claim for the allotment payments to his wife.

"In fact, when everything's computed I should have back pay coming," Smith said.

A government that is run by women is called a gynarchy.

Faulk, who served as vice president the past year, succeeds David L. McKenzie, Mrs. Cora M. Hewitt of Georgetown was named vice president.

—:—

FAULK WAS defeated in the Nov. 7 general election. However, James McCoy of Hanover Township resigned following the election because of a heart attack. At the opening of Monday's meeting, Faulk was appointed to fill McCoy's term, which will expire at the end of 1968.

Brought On By War

North Viet Food Scarcity Indicated With Shipping

WASHINGTON (AP) — Food ships are getting first priority in unloading at North Vietnam's key port of Haiphong, U.S. sources say, fueling speculation the Communist country is feeling the pinch of food scarcity brought on by war.

Intelligence reports say the North Vietnamese rice harvest has been poor for two years and that the food situation may have worsened.

Intensified U.S. air attacks on North Vietnam roads apparently disrupted this year's rice harvest, the sources said.

"They are not starving," said one expert. "But normally they are on close to a subsistence level, and if their food stocks are cut from 10 to 20 per cent, they really have to tighten their belts."

Reports indicate petroleum products make up the largest volume of nonmilitary goods entering North Vietnam through Haiphong. But the unloading of gasoline and oil has rated second to the discharge of cargo ships carrying food.

Authorities declined to say how this intelligence was gathered.

Since last January, Soviet vessels have been hauling increasing amounts of wheat and flour from Vladivostok in Siberia to North Vietnam. And Communist Chinese ships have been carrying rice to Haiphong, sources said.

Priority cargo is being unloaded within a week, it was indicated. Some food ships have been discharged in as little as five days compared with as many as nine days several months ago.

During September, the most recent month for which statistics are available, 25 ships anchored in Haiphong harbor. Eight were Soviet vessels, eight were Communist Chinese, two were from European Communist bloc countries and seven were Hong Kong-registered vessels flying the British flag.

The September ship total at Haiphong compared with 22 vessels in both August and July, 34 in June, 39 in May and 36 in April.

American sources reported there is evidence the North Vietnamese are relying more on inland waterways to carry supplies because the road network and bridges have been hammered by U.S. warplanes.

It was said the North Vietnamese have been deepening rivers and canals by dredging instead of concentrating on repair of damaged roads and bridges.

The dredging operations evidently are intended to permit larger cargo boats to carry supplies.

School Integration Promotes Racial Harmony, Howe Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Howe II, U.S. commissioner of education, says of segregated schools that "the danger we run is becoming a South Africa without really knowing it and without admitting it to ourselves."

South Africa officially observes a rigid policy of apartheid, or separation of the races.

"I don't think the primary reason to have Negroes and whites go to school together is to learn reading, writing and arithmetic—it's so we have one society instead of two," Howe said in an interview.

He said integration promotes racial harmony because "mutual suspicion among human beings disappears when they get to know each other."

He also said of integration: "Over a period of time I think it is going to help the learning outcomes of youngsters from poor families—both Negroes and whites."

Howe's comments came shortly after two studies concluded Negro children bused to middle-class schools did not achieve more scholastically.

Civil rights leaders, at a recent Washington conference, showed more enthusiasm for improving segregated Negro schools than for integration.

Bill By Hays Would Guard Ferroalloys

WASHINGTON (Special) — A bill to regulate the imports of ferroalloys and related products has been introduced in the House by Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District Ohio Democrat.

Known as H.R. 13996, it would hold imports to a yearly level of approximately 13.5 per cent of the present market.

The legislation is similar to the steel quota bill now before the Senate Committee on Finance. Industry spokesman give the ferroalloys bill a good chance for passage early in the second session of the 90th Congress, which will convene Jan. 1.

Imports of ferroalloys have risen steadily over the last six to seven years and now have reached a level that could endanger our national security in time of national emergency, Hays pointed out.

"Presently, imports of ferroalloys are flooding the U. S. market from foreign countries whose producers are paying wages to their workers as low as $1.10 per hour. U.S. producers pay wages and benefits of approximately $4.73 per hour," he added.

Stone Hits Auto In Chester Area

A large stone rolled from a hillside and struck an auto in Hancock County this morning, causing the vehicle to swerve off Route 66 and into a guardrail.

Hancock Sheriff's deputies said Ronald B. Miller, 25, of Littleton, W. Va., was northbound on Route 66 between Chester and Newell when the stone rolled from the hillside and struck the vehicle in the right rear fender. Miller swerved to miss the boulder, and the car went across the highway and hit a guard rail, causing about $300 damage to the 1966 sedan.

The mishap occurred about 7:15 a. m. Miller was not injured.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I make cheese puffs for guests in my home?

A.—Blend one eight-ounce package of pimento cheese with one well-beaten egg. Season to taste. Cut bread into triangles (four to each piece), and toast. Spread with butter and the pimento-cheese mixture, and broil until brown and puffed.

Q.—How can I keep cheese from drying out?

A.—Grandmother's method is still good today — wrap the cheese in a cloth dampened with vinegar.

Smith Orders Civil Service Expansion

CHARLESTON (AP) — The largest one-time expansion of State Civil Service System coverage was ordered Tuesday by Gov. Hulett Smith.

Smith by executive order placed 353 additional workers in the State Tax Department under Civil Service to encourage what he called "the competence, efficiency, equality of opportunity and related progressive personnel management objectives in state employment."

Smith said the department has 490 employes and 120 were covered by Civil Service prior to his order.

Taft To Seek New Term As Chief Justice

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Chief Justice Kingsley A. Taft of the Ohio Supreme Court announced his candidacy Wednesday for a second six-year term as chief justice of the high court.

Taft, a native of Cleveland and now 64 years of age, has been a member of the Supreme Court for 19 years and chief justice for the last five years.

He had practiced law in Cleveland for 20 years prior to his first election to the high court, except while on active duty in the Army for 3½ years during World War II.

He served as a state representative from Cuyahoga County in 1933 and 1934 and was on the Shaker Heights Board of Education 1940-42, and was president of that board in 1942. In 1946 he was elected to the United States Senate for an unexpired term of 59 days.

This 'N' That

The 1880-90 period in the United States was a brilliant decade for inventors. Industry introduced the incandescent lamp, the automobile, the cash register, the trolley car, the pneumatic tire, the dynamo, transparent film, electric welding, the electric furnace, steam turbine and smokeless powder.

Martin Luther is credited with first adorning a tree with candles at Christmastime, in simulation of an evergreen shimmering with starlit snow. Christmas trees were confined to the Rhine country until 1700 and the custom is believed to have crossed the Atlantic with Hessian mercenaries during the American Revolution.

North Viet Food Scarcity Indicated With Shipping

WASHINGTON (AP) — Food ships are getting first priority in unloading at North Vietnam's key port of Haiphong, U.S. sources say, fueling speculation the Communist country is feeling the pinch of food scarcity brought on by war.

Intelligence reports say the North Vietnamese rice harvest has been poor for two years and that the food situation may have worsened.

Intensified U.S. air attacks on North Vietnam roads apparently disrupted this year's rice harvest, the sources said.

"They are not starving," said one expert. "But normally they are on close to a subsistence level, and if their food stocks are cut from 10 to 20 per cent, they really have to tighten their belts."

Reports indicate petroleum products make up the largest volume of nonmilitary goods entering North Vietnam through Haiphong. But the unloading of gasoline and oil has rated second to the discharge of cargo ships carrying food.

Authorities declined to say how this intelligence was gathered.

Since last January, Soviet vessels have been hauling increasing amounts of wheat and flour from Vladivostok in Siberia to North Vietnam. And Communist Chinese ships have been carrying rice to Haiphong, sources said.

Priority cargo is being unloaded within a week, it was indicated. Some food ships have been discharged in as little as five days compared with as many as nine days several months ago.

During September, the most recent month for which statistics are available, 25 ships anchored in Haiphong harbor. Eight were Soviet vessels, eight were Communist Chinese, two were from European Communist bloc countries and seven were Hong Kong-registered vessels flying the British flag.

The September ship total at Haiphong compared with 22 vessels in both August and July, 34 in June, 39 in May and 36 in April.

American sources reported there is evidence the North Vietnamese are relying more on inland waterways to carry supplies because the road network and bridges have been hammered by U.S. warplanes.

It was said the North Vietnamese have been deepening rivers and canals by dredging instead of concentrating on repair of damaged roads and bridges.

The dredging operations evidently are intended to permit larger cargo boats to carry supplies.

School Integration Promotes Racial Harmony, Howe Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Howe II, U.S. commissioner of education, says of segregated schools that "the danger we run is becoming a South Africa without really knowing it and without admitting it to ourselves."

South Africa officially observes a rigid policy of apartheid, or separation of the races.

"I don't think the primary reason to have Negroes and whites go to school together is to learn reading, writing and arithmetic—it's so we have one society instead of two," Howe said in an interview.

He said integration promotes racial harmony because "mutual suspicion among human beings disappears when they get to know each other."

He also said of integration: "Over a period of time I think it is going to help the learning outcomes of youngsters from poor families—both Negroes and whites."

Howe's comments came shortly after two studies concluded Negro children bused to middle-class schools did not achieve more scholastically.

Civil rights leaders, at a recent Washington conference, showed more enthusiasm for improving segregated Negro schools than for integration.

Stone Hits Auto In Chester Area

A large stone rolled from a hillside and struck an auto in Hancock County this morning, causing the vehicle to swerve off Route 66 and into a guardrail.

Hancock Sheriff's deputies said Ronald B. Miller, 25, of Littleton, W. Va., was northbound on Route 66 between Chester and Newell when the stone rolled from the hillside and struck the vehicle in the right rear fender. Miller swerved to miss the boulder, and the car went across the highway and hit a guard rail, causing about $300 damage to the 1966 sedan.

The mishap occurred about 7:15 a. m. Miller was not injured.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I make cheese puffs for guests in my home?

A.—Blend one eight-ounce package of pimento cheese with one well-beaten egg. Season to taste. Cut bread into triangles (four to each piece), and toast. Spread with butter and the pimento-cheese mixture, and broil until brown and puffed.

Q.—How can I keep cheese from drying out?

A.—Grandmother's method is still good today — wrap the cheese in a cloth dampened with vinegar.

Major Victory For Housewives

Congress Approval Due For Meat Inspection Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sweeping meat inspection bill, termed by backers a major victory for American housewives, appears headed for congressional approval.

House-Senate conferees agreed Tuesday on terms of the compromise measure to revamp the 60-year-old federal meat inspection law.

It is designed to extend federal standards within the next three years to 15,000 plants not now covered.

The measure now goes back to the House and Senate for expected final approval before being sent to President Johnson. The House may consider it today.

"This is one of the most remarkable victories for the American consumers in recent years," said Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., a cosponsor of the Senate version.

President Johnson said the measure would help guarantee to every American family "that the meat on their tables" is safe and fit to eat.

Betty Furness, special assistant on consumer affairs to President Johnson, credited housewives and the press with spurring passage of what she termed "this wholesome meat bill."

She said the conference action "is the direct result of the housewives' vocal reaction to the graphic coverage by the nation's press."

But Chairman W. R. Poage of the House Agriculture Committee contended the bill was an attempt by Washington to impose federal controls in a matter where states should have the final say.

Poage and Rep. E. C. Gathings, D-Ark., were the only conferees who refused to sign the conference report. Poage said he would vote against the measure on the House floor but conceded he felt it would win final approval.

The measure would give states up to two years—three if significant progress has been made—to set up inspection programs for meat produced and sold within their borders. The federal government would pay half the cost of present and new state programs, which would have to be at least equal to federal standards.

But if a state didn't act the federal government could impose its own standards.

Federal regulations now apply only to meat which moves in interstate commerce, exempting about 15 per cent of the slaughtered meat and about 25 per cent of processed meat in the country.

Hearing Awaited For Pughtown's Change Of Name

A public hearing is scheduled Thursday night at the Hancock County Courthouse on the proposed changing of the name of Pughtown to New Manchester.

County commissioners in November set the date for the hearing during which residents may express views in favor of or against the new name.

Commissioners said they will actually have no decision to make — if an examination of petitions and a review of opinions expressed indictes a majority of registered voters in Precinct 15 — known as Pughtown — support the change, it will go into effect.

Petitions submitted last month had 80 names. Atty. Edwin Flowers, counsel for residents seeking the change, said there are 127 residents eligible to decide the question.

The hearing will start at 7:30.

Apartment 'Intruder' Cited For Intoxication

A Midland area man who allegedly forced his way into an apartment in East End early today and then went to sleep on a couch was taken into custody by police on an intoxication charge.

He was identified as Ronald D. Brown of Smiths Ferry RD 2, cited at 5:50 this morning in a Mulberry St. apartment by Patrolman H. Clyde Dillon. The officer said he responded to a complaint a man was "forcing his way into an apartment where he does not belong."

The two women occupants of the apartment told the officer Brown struck one of them in gaining entry. Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff set a hearing Thursday for Brown after officers said his condition would not warrant a court appearance this morning.

O'Brien Boosts Kennedy As LBJ Primary Stand-In

Associated Press Writers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien is boosting Sen. Edward M. Kennedy as a Massachusetts primary stand-in for President Johnson—a task Kennedy says he won't perform.

O'Brien, denying reports he might make the April 30 race in Johnson's behalf, called Kennedy "the ideal candidate" to stand in for the President against Minnesota Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, who intends to enter the Democratic primary on a platform of opposition to administration Vietnam policy.

"I have absolutely no intention of running in the primary," Kennedy said Tuesday. "It's as sure as anything can be in political life."

On the other side of the political fence, the Ripon Society—describing itself as "the only noncandidate group on the Republican left which is national in scope"—said if the GOP national convention were held today Richard M. Nixon and Ronald Reagan would probably command the support of three-fifths of the delegates.

President Lee W. Huebner wrote in the society's "forum" that if Nixon, the 1960 nominee, is generally successful in presidential primaries, he "could sweep the convention next summer without too much trouble."

"If he fails," Huebner said, "the most likely beneficiary would appear to be Ronald Reagan," California governor.

Huebner said Nixon's organization is growing in strength and Reagan conservatives are active in the grass roots where delegates are chosen in nonprimary states.

"While primary elections could launch some candidates and finish others," he said, "the Republican nominee will finally be chosen (in precinct meetings) in the living rooms and the school houses of nonprimary states. At present this process heavily favors Republican conservatives."

Huebner said the party's moderates now are unsatisfied that Gov. George Romney of Michigan can make the grade for the nomination and yet are doing nothing effective toward bringing forth any fresh contender.

The Forum article named Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as a proven candidate but said the New Yorker could not emerge as a contender until convention time unless he made an about-face in his stand against becoming a candidate.

Meanwhile in Troy, N.Y., House GOP Leader Gerald R. Ford said Rockefeller could win the nomination "if the convention gets deadlocked." Ford is a nominal Romney supporter.

"Everything indicates that Gov. Rockefeller wants to help Gov. George Romney," Ford said at a news conference. "But on the other hand if the convention gets deadlocked in 1968, it's always possible Rockefeller would become the GOP's choice."

Discussing the Massachusetts primary, O'Brien said if Kennedy isn't going to run he should get together with state Democratic leaders to decide what should be done. Kennedy men argue it's up to the White House to decide how to handle McCarthy's challenge.

An O'Brien spokesman said the postmaster general was acting on his own, not at President Johnson's behest, in urging that Kennedy make the race.

The spokesman said neither Johnson nor Kennedy suggested that O'Brien enter as the administration stand-in. Some Massachusetts Democrats suspect O'Brien would like to enter the primary to test his home-state political strength.

Ohio Legislators Due Back Sooner Than Expected

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's legislators, back on the home front enjoying a recess, may have to come back to work sooner than expected to tackle a congressional redistricting problem.

The general assembly was scheduled to return Jan. 15 but Monday's U.S. Supreme Court ruling that Ohio's congressional districts must be revamped has brought up the possibility of a special session.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, currently on a nationwide tour, said Tuesday he will have to talk with legislative leaders before calling a special session, however.

Ohio Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, who met Tuesday with John McElroy, the governor's top aide, said a delay until the January legislative session apparently would "only invite trouble."

Another suggestion is that the state postpone the Feb. 7 filing deadline for candidates running in the May primary.

Major Victory For Housewives

Congress Approval Due For Meat Inspection Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sweeping meat inspection bill, termed by backers a major victory for American housewives, appears headed for congressional approval.

House-Senate conferees agreed Tuesday on terms of the compromise measure to revamp the 60-year-old federal meat inspection law.

It is designed to extend federal standards within the next three years to 15,000 plants not now covered.

The measure now goes back to the House and Senate for expected final approval before being sent to President Johnson. The House may consider it today.

"This is one of the most remarkable victories for the American consumers in recent years," said Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., a cosponsor of the Senate version.

President Johnson said the measure would help guarantee to every American family "that the meat on their tables" is safe and fit to eat.

Betty Furness, special assistant on consumer affairs to President Johnson, credited housewives and the press with spurring passage of what she termed "this wholesome meat bill."

She said the conference action "is the direct result of the housewives' vocal reaction to the graphic coverage by the nation's press."

But Chairman W. R. Poage of the House Agriculture Committee contended the bill was an attempt by Washington to impose federal controls in a matter where states should have the final say.

Poage and Rep. E. C. Gathings, D-Ark., were the only conferees who refused to sign the conference report. Poage said he would vote against the measure on the House floor but conceded he felt it would win final approval.

The measure would give states up to two years—three if significant progress has been made—to set up inspection programs for meat produced and sold within their borders. The federal government would pay half the cost of present and new state programs, which would have to be at least equal to federal standards.

But if a state didn't act the federal government could impose its own standards.

Federal regulations now apply only to meat which moves in interstate commerce, exempting about 15 per cent of the slaughtered meat and about 25 per cent of processed meat in the country.

Hearing Awaited For Pughtown's Change Of Name

A public hearing is scheduled Thursday night at the Hancock County Courthouse on the proposed changing of the name of Pughtown to New Manchester.

County commissioners in November set the date for the hearing during which residents may express views in favor of or against the new name.

Commissioners said they will actually have no decision to make — if an examination of petitions and a review of opinions expressed indictes a majority of registered voters in Precinct 15 — known as Pughtown — support the change, it will go into effect.

Petitions submitted last month had 80 names. Atty. Edwin Flowers, counsel for residents seeking the change, said there are 127 residents eligible to decide the question.

The hearing will start at 7:30.

Apartment 'Intruder' Cited For Intoxication

A Midland area man who allegedly forced his way into an apartment in East End early today and then went to sleep on a couch was taken into custody by police on an intoxication charge.

He was identified as Ronald D. Brown of Smiths Ferry RD 2, cited at 5:50 this morning in a Mulberry St. apartment by Patrolman H. Clyde Dillon. The officer said he responded to a complaint a man was "forcing his way into an apartment where he does not belong."

The two women occupants of the apartment told the officer Brown struck one of them in gaining entry. Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff set a hearing Thursday for Brown after officers said his condition would not warrant a court appearance this morning.

O'Brien Boosts Kennedy As LBJ Primary Stand-In

Associated Press Writers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien is boosting Sen. Edward M. Kennedy as a Massachusetts primary stand-in for President Johnson—a task Kennedy says he won't perform.

O'Brien, denying reports he might make the April 30 race in Johnson's behalf, called Kennedy "the ideal candidate" to stand in for the President against Minnesota Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, who intends to enter the Democratic primary on a platform of opposition to administration Vietnam policy.

"I have absolutely no intention of running in the primary," Kennedy said Tuesday. "It's as sure as anything can be in political life."

On the other side of the political fence, the Ripon Society—describing itself as "the only noncandidate group on the Republican left which is national in scope"—said if the GOP national convention were held today Richard M. Nixon and Ronald Reagan would probably command the support of three-fifths of the delegates.

President Lee W. Huebner wrote in the society's "forum" that if Nixon, the 1960 nominee, is generally successful in presidential primaries, he "could sweep the convention next summer without too much trouble."

"If he fails," Huebner said, "the most likely beneficiary would appear to be Ronald Reagan," California governor.

Huebner said Nixon's organization is growing in strength and Reagan conservatives are active in the grass roots where delegates are chosen in nonprimary states.

"While primary elections could launch some candidates and finish others," he said, "the Republican nominee will finally be chosen (in precinct meetings) in the living rooms and the school houses of nonprimary states. At present this process heavily favors Republican conservatives."

Huebner said the party's moderates now are unsatisfied that Gov. George Romney of Michigan can make the grade for the nomination and yet are doing nothing effective toward bringing forth any fresh contender.

The Forum article named Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as a proven candidate but said the New Yorker could not emerge as a contender until convention time unless he made an about-face in his stand against becoming a candidate.

Meanwhile in Troy, N.Y., House GOP Leader Gerald R. Ford said Rockefeller could win the nomination "if the convention gets deadlocked." Ford is a nominal Romney supporter.

"Everything indicates that Gov. Rockefeller wants to help Gov. George Romney," Ford said at a news conference. "But on the other hand if the convention gets deadlocked in 1968, it's always possible Rockefeller would become the GOP's choice."

Discussing the Massachusetts primary, O'Brien said if Kennedy isn't going to run he should get together with state Democratic leaders to decide what should be done. Kennedy men argue it's up to the White House to decide how to handle McCarthy's challenge.

An O'Brien spokesman said the postmaster general was acting on his own, not at President Johnson's behest, in urging that Kennedy make the race.

The spokesman said neither Johnson nor Kennedy suggested that O'Brien enter as the administration stand-in. Some Massachusetts Democrats suspect O'Brien would like to enter the primary to test his home-state political strength.

The first horseless carriage with a fare meter was built by the Daimler Motor Company and put to work on the streets of Stuttgart, Germany, in 1897. An ad in a German paper said: "This modern undertaking is warmly recommended to the gentry, officers, hunting and sport clubs and the general

Ohio Legislators Due Back Sooner Than Expected

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's legislators, back on the home front enjoying a recess, may have to come back to work sooner than expected to tackle a congressional redistricting problem.

The general assembly was scheduled to return Jan. 15 but Monday's U.S. Supreme Court ruling that Ohio's congressional districts must be revamped has brought up the possibility of a special session.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, currently on a nationwide tour, said Tuesday he will have to talk with legislative leaders before calling a special session, however.

Ohio Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, who met Tuesday with John McElroy, the governor's top aide, said a delay until the January legislative session apparently would "only invite trouble."

Another suggestion is that the state postpone the Feb. 7 filing deadline for candidates running in the May primary.

Cumberland Audit Goes On

NEW CUMBERLAND — Auditors from the office of the West Virginia Tax Commissioner have completed their re-audit of the fiscal records of the city for the year 1965-66 and are in the process of conducting an audit on the 1966-67 books, it was reported at a meeting of council Monday.

The re-audit was requested by city officials when a discrepancy amounting to $2,584.51 was discovered in the financial records of the Water Fund and Sewage Fund for the 1965-66 fiscal year.

Auditors expect to complete their work at the end of next week and will issue a report on their findings at that time. They began the audit Nov. 14.

In other council business, payment of a bill from the auditors for $686.32 for their work was not approved pending a ruling from the state tax commissioner's office on the liability of the city in paying for the audit since it had been conducted one other time and the city had fulfilled its responsibility in having it performed the first time.

Carl Kirkland, Hancock County conservation officer, will be contacted concerning the dumping of rubbish on the hillside between Ridge Ave. and South Chestnut St. by residents of the community.

A motion to purchase 40 sets of Christmas lights from the town of Hickory, Pa., was approved. Only a portion of the lights will be strung this year.

A match would not burn in a space ship traveling beyond the pull of earth's gravity. Instead of rising, the hot gases would accumulate in a sphere that would put out the flame.

In Vietnamese, Tet Nhat means "first day of the return of spring." The observance of the festival of Tet occurs in January or February.

Patrol Cites Two Drivers

A Glenmoor man and a Struthers woman were cited following two separate rear end collisions investigated Tuesday by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

William V. Erwin, 43, of Glenmoor was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance after a collision on Route 170 about a mile east of Route 30 at 2:20 p. m.

He was in a 1959 pickup truck following an eastbound auto operated by Grace I. Mays, 50, of Wellsville RD 1. When she halted to make a turn into a parking area, his truck slid into the rear of her 1964 sedan.

Louise Leona Marr, 32, of Struthers was cited on a similar charge after a collision on Route 30, a half-mile south of the intersection with Route 7 at 7:10 a. m.

Officers said Margaret Carr, 42, of Struthers was headed south, slowed suddenly, and her 1965 sedan was struck in the rear by a 1960 coach driven by the other woman who was pulling a trailer and boat.

The tamarisk, a flowering tree in Israel, has a mineral content which may reach 19 per cent of its dry weight.

Post To Hold Benefit Dance

Plans for a "Christmas Cheer Dance" Saturday were made when Wellsville American Legion Post 70 met Monday night.

Admission will be either by cash or through the donation of two cans of food per person to be used in baskets for the needy. The post distributed 25 baskets last year, Francis House, past commander, said.

Russ Ludwig and the Blue Shades will play for dancing Saturday.

Dorman Householder, first vice commander, said a Wellsville Kiwanis banquet will be held in the post home Friday. Jerome Gitschier, commander, reminded members that reservations for a New Year's party will be accepted until Dec. 18. After that date, reservations may be made by non-members of the post.

Decorations have been erected inside and outside the post by a committee that included Robert Beresford, Wally Tipton, Bill Boyce, Robert Tolson, Harold Dickinson, Mel Gitschier, Ken Hoover and Ralph Kelley.

It was announced that the post will purchase eight mock rifles to be used by the Wellsville High School Band. They are of white wood with chrome appointments, House said.

Pans were completed for a Christmas party for members' children.

Harry Excell, adjutant, reported the membership at 300.

House said that Robert McKinnon will assist him in administering an Americanism and Government test Thursday at 2 p. m. for Wellsville High School juniors and seniors.

Work is continuing on the parking lot, House concluded.

The next meeting will be Monday at 8 p. m.

Setting up electric trains beneath or near a Christmas tree is a fire hazard.

A Glenmoor man and a Struthers woman were cited following two separate rear end collisions investigated Tuesday by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

William V. Erwin, 43, of Glenmoor was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance after a collision on Route 170 about a mile east of Route 30 at 2:20 p. m.

He was in a 1959 pickup truck following an eastbound auto operated by Grace I. Mays, 50, of Wellsville RD 1. When she halted to make a turn into a parking area, his truck slid into the rear of her 1964 sedan.

Louise Leona Marr, 32, of Struthers was cited on a similar charge after a collision on Route 30, a half-mile south of the intersection with Route 7 at 7:10 a. m.

Officers said Margaret Carr, 42, of Struthers was headed south, slowed suddenly, and her 1965 sedan was struck in the rear by a 1960 coach driven by the other woman who was pulling a trailer and boat.

Post To Hold Benefit Dance

Plans for a "Christmas Cheer Dance" Saturday were made when Wellsville American Legion Post 70 met Monday night.

Admission will be either by cash or through the donation of two cans of food per person to be used in baskets for the needy. The post distributed 25 baskets last year, Francis House, past commander, said.

Russ Ludwig and the Blue Shades will play for dancing Saturday.

Dorman Householder, first vice commander, said a Wellsville Kiwanis banquet will be held in the post home Friday.

Jerome Gitschier, commander, reminded members that reservations for a New Year's party will be accepted until Dec. 18. After that date, reservations may be made by non-members of the post.

Decorations have been erected inside and outside the post by a committee that included Robert Beresford, Wally Tipton, Bill Boyce, Robert Tolson, Harold Dickinson, Mel Gitschier, Ken Hoover and Ralph Kelley.

It was announced that the post will purchase eight mock rifles to be used by the Wellsville High School Band. They are of white wood with chrome appointments, House said.

Pans were completed for a Christmas party for members' children.

Harry Excell, adjutant, reported the membership at 300.

House said that Robert McKinnon will assist him in administering an Americanism and Government test Thursday at 2 p. m. for Wellsville High School juniors and seniors.

Work is continuing on the parking lot, House concluded.

The next meeting will be Monday at 8 p. m.

SANTA and the PIGWIDGEN

By Lucrece Beale

Synopsis: Searching for the Pigwidgen, Claus meets an old crone who directs him on a strange road where he finds a crooked-legged elf named Patrick Tweedleknees.

"I am the captain of the ferry," said Tweedleknees.

CHAPTER FIVE

Claus sat up and rubbed his nose. Patrick Tweedleknees stood before him two feet tall.

The little elf's legs were bowed. His nose was pointed. Woolly eyebrows drooped over his fierce blue eyes. Bristles of red hair sprang straight up from his head.

Claus laughed. He thought he had never seen so comical a figure. Tweedleknees brandished his firefly flashlight and hollered, "You're trespassing on private property, sir! I'd like to know what's so funny about that!"

Claus said hastily, "I am sorry. I was looking for the Sopchoppy River and the elf who runs the ferry there."

"I am the elf," said Tweedleknees. "I am the captain of the ferry."

"But," said Claus. "where is the river?"

"You are sitting on it," said Tweedleknees grumpily.

—:—

CLAUS jumped to his feet in alarm. He peered at the ground. The first light of day had now come but he could see no river, not even a puddle.

"It's an underground river," said Tweedleknees huffily. "You were sitting on the entrance."

He kicked aside a layer of sod. There was a trap door. He lifted the door and flashed his light into a great hole. At the bottom was a river. Anchored there was a flimsy raft made of thousands and thousands of matchsticks.

"That," announced the elf, "is the Sopchoppy River Ferry. Now may I inquire who you are and what you're doing poking into business that is no concern of yours?"

"But it is my business!" declared Claus.

He told Tweedleknees how a curse had escaped from a mysterious black pocket book left in his keeping. And how all the children of the land had fallen into a sleep from which they could not be wakened. And how he had found a key marked "Pigwidgen" in the purse.

—:—

"I HAVE set out to destroy the Pigwidgen, whoever or whatever he is," finished Claus. "And I have heard you are the one who can tell me what I need to know."

"The Pigwidgen is the strongest power on earth," said the elf. "You can never destroy him."

"Nevertheless," said Claus, "I shall try."

"Centuries ago the Pigwidgen laid a curse on the elves," said Tweedleknees. "Since then if the light of sun or moon falls on an elf he will turn to ashes. All except me. I was swimming under the Sopchoppy River at the time. I am very good at underwater swimming and I escaped the curse. All other elves must live underground and can be reached only by my ferry."

"Where will I find the Pigwidgen?" asked Claus.

"No elf has ever seen him. He lives behind walls in a land of frost and never-ending snow."

"I will go there," said Claus.

"You are braver than you look to be," said Tweedleknees prudgingly. His nose seemed to grow sharper. His red hair turned more fiery. "No one is braver than I," he declared beligerently. "I will go with you."

"Then let us be off!" said Claus.

"We will need weapons," said Tweedleknees.

"What kind of weapons?"

"Special ones. The elves will make them. Come, don't dally so."

He gave the unsuspecting Claus a shove and they both tumbled down the hole to the Sopchoppy River Ferry.

Midland To Join In 'Bundle Days' For Appalachia

To help children in Appalachia who need decent school clothing, Midland Elementary Principal Robert L. Blinn, chairman, today appealed to Midland residents to participate in the 26th annual "Save the Children Federation's Bundle Days" drive.

The 1st, 4th and 7th St. schools will serve as local sponsors for "Bundle Days" Monday through Dec. 15.

American school children collected more than three million pounds of used clothing in the 1966-67 drive. The clothing is distributed through the 105 federation clothing centers in Appalachia.

Blinn said, "Children in Appalachia need an education if they are to make a better life for themselves. They need warm, durable clothes to wear to school. I hope our students will participate in this children-to-children giving."

He also appealed to clubs and organizations to send or bring wearable shoes, coats, dresses and suits for children or adults to the 1st, 4th and 7th St. Schools during "Bundle Days."

Rhodes Slated For Talk In Dallas Today

DALLAS (AP)— Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes—in the middle of a cross country tour—was due here today to speak before the National Aviation Trade Association.

Rhodes, who was in New York City for a round of appearances Tuesday, was to receive an award from the association citing him for his airport development program back in his home state.

In New York, Rhodes and 49 Ohio mayors threw an industrial appreciation dinner for representatives of 250 corporations in an attempt to win plant expansion for Ohio.

Among speakers at the dinner was Cleveland Mayor Carl B. Stokes, who said the theme of his administration will be to create the "best possible climate for industrial and commercial growth and prosperity of any city in the United States."

Also in New York was Ohio's industrial development team.

Ohio Development Director Fred P. Neuenschwander said the team, which would remain here until the weekend, had visited 95 companies and about 20 per cent of them appeared willing to set up opeartions in the Buckeye State.

While in New York, Rhodes paid what was termed strictly as a courtesy call on Mayor John V. Lindsay, also a Republican.

Rhodes will be off to Los Angeles Thursday to speak to the California Chamber of Commerce before heading for a three-day Republican Governor's Conference in Palm Beach, Fla. He is due back in Ohio late Saturday.

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)— Fire destroyed the Custer Antique and Investment Co. and damaged two other companies located in the same building Tuesday, leaving damages estimated at $400,000.

Firemen said the fire erupted in a faulty heating plant. One fireman was injured, not seriously, as some 60 firemen battled the blaze.

Youth, 14, Collapses, Dies During Game

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A 14-year-old boy collapsed and died Tuesday night during a church league basketball game. He had played about five minutes before collapsing on his team's bench.

The coroner's preliminary report said the boy, John Davis, apparently died of natural causes.

Trial Of Ex-Sheriff On Tax Fraud Starts

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The trial of former Washington County Sheriff Dean Ellis on charges of filing fraudulent income tax returns in 1956, 1957 and 1958, began Tuesday in U.S. District Court here. Ellis allegedly listed his and his wife's taxes as $2,394 when the actual figure was $5,357.

Ellis, now a deputy to his son, Sheriff Richard Ellis, allegedly failed to list profits of a food contract granted to his wife, Zoe, who served as jail matron to feed county jail prisoners while the elder Ellis was sheriff. His wife has been granted a separate trial on income tax evasion charges.

Jury To Get Murder Case Of Youth, 16

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—The first-degree murder trial of a 16-year-old boy charged with killing his father goes to a Lake County Common Pleas Court jury of 10 men and two women today.

Attorneys completed closing arguments Tuesday in the trial of Fred M. Esherick Jr., but Judge John F. Clair Jr. delayed submitting the case to the jury. He said the jurors had had a long hard day and explained that he wanted them "fresh" today.

The boy is charged with stabbing his father, Fred Sr., 45, with a bayonet in their home here last May 5. He also is accused of assaulting with intent to kill his mother, Aldona, 48.

Calling the elder Esherick's death a "cold and calculated murder," Assistant County prosecutor Paul H. Mitrovich told the jury the boy's testimony that the stabbing was accidental "carries no weight."

Mitrovich accused the defense of attempting to try Mrs. Esherick, saying defense lawyers had painted her "as a schrewd, domineering woman who dominated her household, her husband and her son."

"We're trying Fred M. Esherick Jr. for what he did on May 5," he continued. "We're trying him for a cold and calculated murder."

The jurors were told by defense lawyer John S. Nelson that there were no fingerprints from the handle of the bayonet to show whether the boy drew back the weapon to stab his father or whether he accidentally stabbed him when the two collided in a hallway.

Young Esherick had testified that he collided with his father in running from his bedroom after hitting his mother.

The defense rested its case Tuesday following testimony from Dr. Melvin E. Allerhand, a Cleveland psychologist who examined young Esherick before the trial started.

Dr. Allarhand said the boy's relationship with his mother was one of fear. He also blamed the parents for not allowing the boy to "find his identity."

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My sweetheart is in the service. Four months ago he went to Vietnam. I've been writing to him five times a week and he has been writing to me about three times a week.

Yesterday his mother telephoned to say he had bought an engagement ring for me over there and is sending it to them. He has asked that his father slip the ring on my finger and then I'm to consider myself engaged.

My question is this: What should I do when his father puts the ring on my finger. Should I kiss him, say thank you, or what? His wife will be present and his ypunger son will be on hand to take a picture which will be sent to my fiance. Thank you. — HANDS ACROSS THE SEA.

Hands: I don't think a boy in Vietnam (or any place else) should be very enthusiastic about a picture of his sweetheart kissing his father. Just say "thank you" and send your fiance a picture of you looking adoringly at the ring.

-:-

Young Again

Dear Ann: This is one letter I must write or I won't be able to sleep tonight.

I say hooray for Grampa — the 80-year-old widower who's going steady with a nice lady and buys tickets to ball games and concerts and has taken to wearing a tweed jacket and sneakers. His children should be delighted that he's enjoying life.

My mother died four years ago and I'd be thrilled if my father showed an interest in sports or music or anything. All he does is sit around the house and cry — and he's not 80, he's 64. He's depressed, miserable and he makes everyone around him feel utterly helpless because nothing we do for him makes any difference.

Please tell those kids who hate to see Grampa spending all that money and "acting like a fool" that they are lucky. — EXPERIENCE TALKING.

Dear Ex: You told 'em and I bless you for it. Thanks for writing.

A Dirty Trick

Dear Ann: Our 8-year-old son must go to the hospital and be operated on for a hernia next month. I feel we should tell him in advance and prepare him for what is coming. My mother says we should keep quiet about it.

According to mother, kids never are happy about going to a hospital and the less time they have to dread it the better.

"Just tell Johnny you're going for a ride and take him to the hospital," is her advice. Is my mother right or wrong? — DARNDIFIKNOW.

Dear Darned: Your mother is wrong. Tricking a child is the worst possible approach. It's far better to tell Johnny in advance (three days is enough) that he is going to the hospital and that the doctor is going to make him 100 per cent well. You might even make it sound like an exciting adventure. The doctor will be glad to brief you on what to say if you need his help.

Confidentially

To The Maharani of Chicago Heights: Tell the Maharaja that cleaning the bathtub after one's self is no big deal — it's simply good manners. Just because people are related does not give them the right to be inconsiderate of one another.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR FRIENDS: Here's that woman knocking on your kitchen door again.

After years of trying to cut corners and save a few minutes, you'll just die when I tell you how to open a package of boxed pudding without breaking your fingernails, or getting mad trying to get the last dregs out of that sack inside. This is also good for cakes, gelatin dessert and just about anything that comes in a box.

Instead of trying to open the ends, lay the box flat and using a sharp knife, cut that box almost in half as if you were slicing bread. Only cut through the top and two sides, leaving the back intact.

Now, pick up the box and hold it over your mixing bowl then turn it upside down and bend it backwards.

Every jota of its contents will spill into your bowl with absolutely no effort whatsoever on your part!

This may not be new to you, but I nearly yelled apple pandowdy when I learned this one. HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When top stitching close to an edge that is bulky (for example: Skirt (waistband or collar) use a zipper foot with the foot on the fabric side. The regular two-prong foot has a tendency to ride off (especially on skirt waistbands where it joins the skirt).

Never happens with your zipper foot.

CHRIS SCHNEIDER.

DEAR HELOISE: My young daughter uses barrettes for her hair. The only ones that will hold her fine hair are the ones with foam stuck inside. When this foam rubber wears out, the barrettes are useless.

I have recently renewed four of hers by buying some adhesive foam for sore feet and inserting a small piece of this in each barrette. It sticks perfectly and makes them like new again.

RITA GROSS.

-:-

Mothers could also glue a small piece of thin foam rubber on them.

You had a hair-raising idea, Rita. Thanks much.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Many times we are wearing suede shoes when it is muddy, and we get heel tips and sides soiled.

I keep a brush-type hair roller in my purse. It works great on this kind of small brush-up job.

ALMA HAYATT.

DEAR HELOISE: If you have a glass top coffee table and also have a lot of small snapshots of your children and grandchildren which you would like to display. . . .

Remove the glass top, place the pictures on the table, then put the glass back on. Your pictures are displayed nicely and free from dust.

-:-

My mother has a glass top on her vanity. She keeps all of ours under there and changes them from time to time.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I prefer the plastic knitting needles to the metal ones because they are not so slippery and stiff to use. However, I've noticed that some of my plastic ones become a little "bowed" or get a "curve" in them. This causes irregular stitches and rows.

Does anyone know how these can be straightened?

Eva Smith

-:-

Can anyone solve the case of the bent needles? If so, sure would appreciate hearing from you. Just write to Heloise in care of this paper.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: As I have three little ones, I found it hard to keep the fingermarks off my front door until I hit on a system.

When I get my mail from the box on the front porch, I carry a sponge along with me. At first, until I got the habit, I had to make several trips back for the sponge. But I'm in the groove now, Heloise, and my front door is always clean.

FAITHFUL READER.

'Unknown' House Colleague

Dixie Senators Pressured On School Aid Bill Phase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern senators battling to write restrictions on enforcement of civil rights laws into the school aid bill are under intense pressure to match the success of a relatively unknown House colleague.

They give this explanation for the fight they are making which has helped to tie up indefinitely final passage of the $14.2 billion bill—a war they did not wage on previous federal aid to education legislation.

The House member is Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C. With little fuss, he was able both this year and last to get into the House version of the elementary and secondary school bill a provision which would cut back sharply on federal powers under the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

The amendment would bar the Health, Education and Welfare Department from deferring approval of aid applications from school districts believed to be practicing racial segregation.

Instead, HEW would have to go through a lengthy, formal process to cut off funds. Under the 1964 act, it cannot make grants to programs where there is segregation.

Last year the Senate, with little opposition from Southern members, watered this down so that HEW was given power to defer such applications for 90 days. That is the law now.

This time the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee knocked out the Fountain rider.

Dixie senators, who asked that their names not be used, told a reporter they are getting this message from home loud and clear: "If Fountain can do it, why can't you? You are supposed to be the big shots in Congress from the South. Many of you are chairmen of powerful committees. Get humping."

The senators confront this situation with mixed emotions.

Most of them say they don't want to jeopardize passage of the $14.2 billion bill extending major education aid programs for three years—programs carrying badly needed funds for the underfinanced schools of low-income Southern states.

They also say they believe the Fountain amendment, if it became law, could backfire.

HEW Secretary John W. Gardner has told them plainly that, under it, he would have no choice but to file proceedings at once against districts he is confident are not complying with desegregation guidelines.

At present, Gardner said, he's willing to hold off on formal proceedings because negotiations bring many districts into compliance.

Most of the Southern senators say they'd prefer to concentrate on an amendment of Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., which would bar any cutoff of funds during a school year to a noncomplying district.

But the Johnson administration has refused to accept this, contending it could stretch out enforcement of desegregation orders for many extra months.

Police Hunt Trio In Theft Of Guns

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police searched a rural area in eastern Hamilton County early today for three men who escaped in the darkness after a Clermont County gun store burglary and a high-speed auto chase.

The men left their car after it was forced off Ohio 32 near Newton by a Clermont County Sheriff's Department car. They fled on foot, leaving the loot from the burglary in the car, the sheriff's office reported.

Fifty rifles, some of them shotguns, and 20 pistols were taken from a gun store in Williamsburg, Clermont County, just after midnight. A couple living near the store reported the burglary to police while it was in progress.

Police cars chased the fleeing car west on Ohio 32 about 15 miles, and authorities said speeds reached over 100 miles per hour.

The American Red Cross was founded in 1881 and became an active partner in the International Red Cross a year later.

Wilson Plan Ends Britain Rail Dispute

LONDON (AP) — A two-day slowdown that tied up much of southern England's rail traffic ended early today when the union accepted a peace formula proposed by Prime Minister Harold Wilson.

Officials of the 36,500-member Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen (ASLEF) talked through the night before ordering their members to work at normal speed today.

In what Labor Minister Ray Gunter called "the silliest dispute of this decade," the ASLEF members had been observing every time-consuming rule in the book to protest the stationing of brakemen from the rival National Union of Railwaymen (NUR) in the rear of diesel locomotives. The brake vans in which they formerly rode at the rear of the trains are no longer needed, and the state railway board took them off to save $600,000 a year.

The peace formula provides for a meeting under the chairmanship of Gunter to discuss train manning, recruiting and promotion. It also calls for ASLEF to be fully consulted on future changes affecting train manning.

The rail slowdown was only one cloud on a stormy economic horizon, however, as Wilson's Labor party faced new hostility from its left wing in the wake of the 14.3 per cent devaluation of the pound sterling. But Roy Jenkins, the new chancellor of the exchequer, responded to an antigovernment procedural vote by 17 leftists in the House of Commons Tuesday by warning them to face the economic facts.

The leftists were angered by the disclosure that the government had to promise the International Monetary Fund a new austerity program in order to qualify for a $1.4 billion loan to help the pound through devaluation. The belt-tightening is designed to squeeze more than 2 per cent of the British gross national product out of consumers' pockets and into the export trade.

Bohlen Due New Post In Government

WASHINGTON (AP) — Veteran diplomat Charles E. Bohlen will be leaving his post as ambassador to France and will replace Foy D. Kohler as deputy undersecretary of state for political affairs.

The White House, announcing the top - level shifts in the foreign affairs line-up Tuesday, said the 59-year-old Kohler is retiring to become a professor at the University of Miami's Center for Advanced International Studies.

There was no word on when Bohlen might be replaced in Paris. He has been home for consultations since Nov. 15.

Both Kohler and Bohlen are former ambassadors to the Soviet Union. Kohler was in Moscow for four years prior to becoming deputy undersecretary of state a year ago. Bohlen, now 63, was in Moscow from 1953 to 1957.

Kohler, who will be 60 next February, is the No. 4 official of the State Department and the highest ranking diplomat in the foreign service. His official title is deputy undersecretary for political affairs.

The slight 5-foot-8 diplomat had been U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union before his appointment to his present job in November 1966. He joined the foreign service in December 1931.

Kohler is regarded as one of the few first rate Kremlinologists in the foreign service.

Smith Names Woman Draft Appeal Agent

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Hulett Smith has appointed the first woman in West Virginia to serve as a U. S. government appeal agent for the state's selective service system.

She is Mrs. Lynne Ward Rexroad, 27, an attorney at Philippi.

Mrs. Rexroad, who lives at Volga, will work with the Barbour County selective service board.

Her duties will include counseling draft registrants on their appeal rights, and review of local selective service board decisions.

Granted 45 Days

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)— Doghouse, Inc., a restaurant chain, was granted 45 days Tuesday by Joseph Molitoris, referee in bankruptcy, to file an amended plan to settle debts without undergoing bankruptcy. Molitoris said 340 claims totaling $2,748,204 have been filed against the company which last August filed proceedings to liquidate its debts.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

No Politics For UNCLE Star

When "Man From U.N.C.L.E." got its cancellation notice (it winds up next month), the dopesters around Hollywood predicted costar Robert Vaughn would go in for a political career. Vaughn himself says nothing could be further from the truth.

"If I did Hal Humphrey have any interest in politics, the past two years have cured me of it. I'm not one for all this handshaking and endless series of appointments it involves." says Vaughn.

-:-

IT WAS JUST about two years ago that TV hero Vaughn gave his first anti-Vietnam war speech in Indianapolis, which subsequently made him national chairman of an organization called Dissenting Democrats, which now has branches in 15 states and hundreds of thousands of signers of newspaper advertisements in 25 large cities from coast to coast.

Since that first one Vaughn has made several speeches, TV interviews and involved himself diligently in the work of Dissenting Democrats.

He agreed to speak last Saturday in Detroit and Sunday in Chicago before the National Conference of Concerned Democrats at which Sen. Eugene McCarthy was the keynoter.

LATER THIS MONTH Vaughn has a speaking engagement at a three-day seminar in Arkansas sponsored by Sen. J. William Fulbright. After that Vaughn says he hopes to make fewer public appearances for Dissenting Democrats and be more of a coordinator for the organization.

In January he and U.N.C.L.E. costar David McCallum take a two-week tour of Spain, Germany, Italy and France to promote the U.N.C.L.E. series, which just got started in those countries. Next May, Vaughn hopes to begin his first movie under the production banner of his own company which is called Ferdporqui, a name he describes as "just an inside joke among some friends."

As for TV, Vaughn says he's had it. It's too trough a grind and he never will do another series, he says now. If his movies and other endeavors in show business fail, he intends to make his living writing, lecturing and teaching. But he doesn't foresee things getting that tough.

"I HAD quite a few movie offers the past year which I could not do because of the series," says Vaughn. "I plan to concentrate on movies now, including two for my own company."

Vaughn believes "Man From U.N.C.L.E." came to an end after 3½ seasons because the fad for this type of show is over, and that copies of U.N.C.L.E. only made the fad die faster. Personally, he insists, he's not sorry. He was getting bored as an actor.

Did his political activity on Vietnam have anything to do with NBC's decision to cancel midseason? Vaughn says no.

-:-

"NEITHER NBC nor MGM ever said anything to me about my personal activity, and I doubt that the public was really aware of my stand on Vietnam anyway. Most people don't even know the name of their U.S. senators, so how many are going to know what an actor is doing outside of his TV show?" Vaughn says.

In the past six months Vaughn estimates he's received around 200 letters concerning his Vietnam stand, which is a negligible number when compared with the fan mail he gets from the U.N.C.L.E. series. Of that Vietnam mail, by the way, he says it was 100-1 in favor of his stand.

Maybe we've come to the end of an era in politics already. Since George Murphy became one of California's U.S. senators and Ronald Reagan the governor of the state, there seems to be a lack of interest in actors as politicians.

Shirley Temple Black failed in her bid for Congress, and there hasn't been any groundswell for Chuck Connors, who has made noises like a would-be politician. His new TV series, "Cowboy in Africa," is even in trouble at the TV rating polls.

EVEN THOUGH Vaughn says he wants no part of a political career, it's possible, too, that no one has asked him.

James Garner stated on a local educational TV channel recently that he'd been asked to run against Steve Allen, who two years ago was planning to run for Congress until it was found he hadn't registered soon enough as a Democrat.

Toll Expected To Mount In Span Collapse

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The toll in the collapse of a huge bridge under construction over a canyon just north of Mexico City stood at 21 confirmed dead today, but authorities predicted the toll would go higher.

Estimates of the number of workmen killed ranged from 30 to 70. The sole survivor, Angel Gutierrez Carroga, jumped into a tree on the canyon face at the collapse and was hospitalized in critical condition.

Fifteen bodies were recovered before operations were suspended for the night Tuesday, but searchers said they had located six more under the tangled steel, concrete and wood.

Mexico City newspapers speculated that faulty materials may have led to the collapse of the 395-foot "Universidad de Anahuac" bridge, but there was no official explanation of the cause.

The center span of the bridge, in Tecamachalo, just north of the Mexico City line, fell 300 feet into the Loma del Negro canyon Monday night.

The Department of Public Works in the state of Mexico said it thought the Federal Ministry of Public Works was supervising the project, but the ministry said the bridge was a private project not supervised by it.

Ohio Veterinarian Helps Fight Epidemic

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. William Wiseman of Chillicothe was one of a dozen U.S. veterinarians flown overseas last weekend to help fight Britain's epidemic of foot and mouth disease, the Animal Health Division of the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Wiseman is a division district veterinarian. The group is expected to remain in Britain 60 to 90 days.

Many German medical schools have departments of balneology that instruct students in the therapeutic uses of springwater baths.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My sweetheart is in the service. Four months ago he went to Vietnam. I've been writing to him five times a week and he has been writing to me about three times a week.

Yesterday his mother telephoned to say he had bought an engagement ring for me over there and is sending it to them. He has asked that his father slip the ring on my finger and then I'm to consider myself engaged.

My question is this: What should I do when his father puts the ring on my finger. Should I kiss him, say thank you, or what? His wife will be present and his younger son will be on hand to take a picture which will be sent to my fiance. Thank you. — HANDS ACROSS THE SEA.

Hands: I don't think a boy in Vietnam (or any place else) should be very enthusiastic about a picture of his sweetheart kissing his father. Just say "thank you" and send your fiance a picture of you looking adoringly at the ring.

-:-

Young Again

Dear Ann: This is one letter I must write or I won't be able to sleep tonight.

I say hooray for Grampa — the 80-year-old widower who's going steady with a nice lady and buys tickets to ball games and concerts and has taken to wearing a tweed jacket and sneakers. His children should be delighted that he's enjoying life.

My mother died four years ago and I'd be thrilled if my father showed an interest in sports or music or anything. All he does is sit around the house and cry — and he's not 80, he's 64. He's depressed, miserable and he makes everyone around him feel utterly helpless because nothing we do for him makes any difference.

Please tell those kids who hate to see Grampa spending all that money and "acting like a fool" that they are lucky. — EXPERIENCE TALKING.

Dear Ex: You told 'em and I bless you for it. Thanks for writing.

A Dirty Trick

Dear Ann: Our 8-year-old son must go to the hospital and be operated on for a hernia next month. I feel we should tell him in advance and prepare him for what is coming. My mother says we should keep quiet about it.

According to mother, kids never are happy about going to a hospital and the less time they have to dread it the better.

"Just tell Johnny you're going for a ride and take him to the hospital," is her advice. Is my mother right or wrong? — DARNDIFIKNOW.

Dear Darned: Your mother is wrong. Tricking a child is the worst possible approach. It's far better to tell Johnny in advance (three days is enough) that he is going to the hospital and that the doctor is going to make him 100 per cent well. You might even make it sound like an exciting adventure. The doctor will be glad to brief you on what to say if you need his help.

Confidentially

To The Maharani of Chicago Heights: Tell the Maharaja that cleaning the bathtub after one's self is no big deal — it's simply good manners. Just because people are related does not give them the right to be inconsiderate of one another.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR FRIENDS: Here's that woman knocking on your kitchen door again.

After years of trying to cut corners and save a few minutes, you'll just die when I tell you how to open a package of boxed pudding without breaking your fingernails, or getting mad trying to get the last dregs out of that sack inside. This is also good for cakes, gelatin dessert and just about anything that comes in a box.

Instead of trying to open the ends, lay the box flat and using a sharp knife, cut that box almost in half as if you were slicing bread. Only cut through the top and two sides, leaving the back intact.

Now, pick up the box and hold it over your mixing bowl then turn it upside down and bend it backwards.

Every iota of its contents will spill into your bowl with absolutely no effort whatsoever on your part!

This may not be new to you, but I nearly yelled apple pandowdy when I learned this one. HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When top stitching close to an edge that is bulky (for example: Skirt (waistband or collar) use a zipper foot with the foot on the fabric side. The regular two-prong foot has a tendency to ride off (especially on skirt waistbands where it joins the skirt).

Never happens with your zipper foot. CHRIS SCHNEIDER.

DEAR HELOISE: My young daughter uses barrettes for her hair. The only ones that will hold her fine hair are the ones with foam stuck inside. When this foam rubber wears out, the barrettes are useless.

I have recently renewed four of hers by buying some adhesive foam for sore feet and inserting a small piece of this in each barrette. It sticks perfectly and makes them like new again. RITA GROSS.

-:-

Mothers could also glue a small piece of thin foam rubber on them.

You had a hair-raising idea, Rita. Thanks much. HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Many times we are wearing suede shoes when it is muddy, and we get heel tips and sides soiled.

I keep a brush-type hair roller in my purse. It works great on this kind of small brush-up job. ALMA HAYATT.

DEAR HELOISE: If you have a glass top coffee table and also have a lot of small snapshots of your children and grandchildren which you would like to display. . . .

Remove the glass top, place the pictures on the table, then put the glass back on. Your pictures are displayed nicely and free from dust. S.V.

My mother has a glass top on her vanity. She keeps all of ours under there and changes them from time to time. HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I prefer the plastic knitting needles to the metal ones because they are not so slippery and stiff to use. However, I've noticed that some of my plastic ones become a little "bowed" or get a "curve" in them. This causes irregular stitches and rows.

Does anyone know how these can be straightened? Eva Smith

-:-

Can anyone solve the case of the bent needles? If so, sure would appreciate hearing from you. Just write to Heloise in care of this paper. HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: As I have three little ones, I found it hard to keep the fingermarks off my front door until I hit on a system.

When I get my mail from the box on the front porch, I carry a sponge along with me. At first, until I got the habit, I had to make several trips back for the sponge. But I'm in the groove now, Heloise, and my front door is always clean. FAITHFUL READER.

'Unknown' House Colleague

Dixie Senators Pressured On School Aid Bill Phase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern senators battling to write restrictions on enforcement of civil rights laws into the school aid bill are under intense pressure to match the success of a relatively unknown House colleague.

They give this explanation for the fight they are making which has helped to tie up indefinitely final passage of the $14.2 billion bill—a war they did not wage on previous federal aid to education legislation.

The House member is Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C. With little fuss, he was able both this year and last to get into the House version of the elementary and secondary school bill a provision which would cut back sharply on federal powers under the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

The amendment would bar the Health, Education and Welfare Department from deferring approval of aid applications from school districts believed to be practicing racial segregation.

Instead, HEW would have to go through a lengthy, formal process to cut off funds. Under the 1964 act, it cannot make grants to programs where there is segregation.

Last year the Senate, with little opposition from Southern members, watered this down so that HEW was given power to defer such applications for 90 days. That is the law now.

This time the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee knocked out the Fountain rider.

Dixie senators, who asked that their names not be used, told a reporter they are getting this message from home loud and clear: "If Fountain can do it, why can't you? You are supposed to be the big shots in Congress from the South. Many of you are chairmen of powerful committees. Get humping."

The senators confront this situation with mixed emotions.

Most of them say they don't want to jeopardize passage of the $14.2 billion bill extending major education aid programs for three years—programs carrying badly needed funds for the underfinanced schools of low-income Southern states.

They also say they believe the Fountain amendment, if it became law, could backfire.

HEW Secretary John W. Gardner has told them plainly that, under it, he would have no choice but to file proceedings at once against districts he is confident are not complying with desegregation guidelines.

At present, Gardner said, he's willing to hold off on formal proceedings because negotiations bring many districts into compliance.

Most of the Southern senators say they'd prefer to concentrate on an amendment of Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., which would bar any cutoff of funds during a school year to a noncomplying district.

But the Johnson administration has refused to accept this, contending it could stretch out enforcement of desegregation orders for many extra months.

Police Hunt Trio In Theft Of Guns

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police searched a rural area in eastern Hamilton County early today for three men who escaped in the darkness after a Clermont County gun store burglary and a high-speed auto chase.

The men left their car after it was forced off Ohio 32 near Newton by a Clermont County Sheriff's Department car. They fled on foot, leaving the loot from the burglary in the car, the sheriff's office reported.

Fifty rifles, some of them shotguns, and 20 pistols were taken from a gun store in Williamsburg, Clermont County, just after midnight. A couple living near the store reported the burglary to police while it was in progress.

Police cars chased the fleeing car west on Ohio 32 about 15 miles, and authorities said speeds reached over 100 miles per hour.

The American Red Cross was founded in 1881 and became an active partner in the International Red Cross a year later.

Wilson Plan Ends Britain Rail Dispute

LONDON (AP) — A two-day slowdown that tied up much of southern England's rail traffic ended early today when the union accepted a peace formula proposed by Prime Minister Harold Wilson.

Officials of the 36,500-member Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen (ASLEF) talked through the night before ordering their members to work at normal speed today.

In what Labor Minister Ray Gunter called "the silliest dispute of this decade," the ASLEF members had been observing every time-consuming rule in the book to protest the stationing of brakemen from the rival National Union of Railwaymen (NUR) in the rear of diesel locomotives. The brake vans in which they formerly rode at the rear of the trains are no longer needed, and the state railway board took them off to save $600,000 a year.

The peace formula provides for a meeting under the chairmanship of Gunter to discuss train manning, recruiting and promotion. It also calls for ASLEF to be fully consulted on future changes affecting train manning.

The rail slowdown was only one cloud on a stormy economic horizon, however, as Wilson's Labor party faced new hostility from its left wing in the wake of the 14.3 per cent devaluation of the pound sterling. But Roy Jenkins, the new chancellor of the exchequer, responded to an antigovernment procedural vote by 17 leftists in the House of Commons Tuesday by warning them to face the economic facts.

The leftists were angered by the disclosure that the government had to promise the International Monetary Fund a new austerity program in order to qualify for a $1.4 billion loan to help the pound through devaluation. The belt-tightening is designed to squeeze more than 2 per cent of the British gross national product out of consumers' pockets and into the export trade.

Bohlen Due New Post In Government

WASHINGTON (AP) — Veteran diplomat Charles E. Bohlen will be leaving his post as ambassador to France and will replace Foy D. Kohler as deputy undersecretary of state for political affairs.

The White House, announcing the top - level shifts in the foreign affairs line-up Tuesday, said the 59-year-old Kohler is retiring to become a professor at the University of Miami's Center for Advanced International Studies.

There was no word on when Bohlen might be replaced in Paris. He has been home for consultations since Nov. 15.

Both Kohler and Bohlen are former ambassadors to the Soviet Union. Kohler was in Moscow for four years prior to becoming deputy undersecretary of state a year ago. Bohlen, now 63, was in Moscow from 1953 to 1957.

Kohler, who will be 60 next February, is the No. 4 official of the State Department and the highest ranking diplomat in the foreign service. His official title is deputy undersecretary for political affairs.

The slight 5-foot-8 diplomat had been U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union before his appointment to his present job in November 1966. He joined the foreign service in December 1931.

Kohler is regarded as one of the few first rate Kremlinologists in the foreign service.

Smith Names Woman Draft Appeal Agent

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Hulett Smith has appointed the first woman in West Virginia to serve as a U. S. government appeal agent for the state's selective service system.

She is Mrs. Lynne Ward Rexroad, 27, an attorney at Philippi.

Mrs. Rexroad, who lives at Volga, will work with the Barbour County selective service board.

Her duties will include counseling draft registrants on their appeal rights, and review of local selective service board decisions.

Granted 45 Days

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Doghouse, Inc., a restaurant chain, was granted 45 days Tuesday by Joseph Molitoris, referee in bankruptcy, to file an amended plan to settle debts without undergoing bankruptcy. Molitoris said 340 claims totaling $2,748,204 have been filed against the company which last August filed proceedings to liquidate its debts.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

No Politics For UNCLE Star

When "Man From U.N.C.L.E." got its cancellation notice (it winds up next month), the dopesters around Hollywood predicted costar Robert Vaughn would go in for a political career. Vaughn himself says nothing could be further from the truth.

Hal Humphrey

"If I did have any interest in politics, the past two years have cured me of it. I'm not one for all this handshaking and endless series of appointments it involves." says Vaughn.

-:-

IT WAS JUST about two years ago that TV hero Vaughn gave his first anti-Vietnam war speech in Indianapolis, which subsequently made him national chairman of an organization called Dissenting Democrats, which now has branches in 15 states and hundreds of thousands of signers of newspaper advertisements in 25 large cities from coast to coast.

Since that first one Vaughn has made several speeches, TV interviews and involved himself diligently in the work of Dissenting Democrats.

He agreed to speak last Saturday in Detroit and Sunday in Chicago before the National Conference of Concerned Democrats at which Sen. Eugene McCarthy was the keynoter.

LATER THIS MONTH Vaughn has a speaking engagement at a three-day seminar in Arkansas sponsored by Sen. J. William Fulbright. After that Vaughn says he hopes to make fewer public appearances for Dissenting Democrats and be more of a coordinator for the organization.

In January he and U.N.C.L.E. costar David McCallum take a two-week tour of Spain, Germany, Italy and France to promote the U.N.C.L.E. series, which just got started in those countries. Next May, Vaughn hopes to begin his first movie under the production banner of his own company which is called Ferdporqui, a name he describes as "just an inside joke among some friends."

As for TV, Vaughn says he's had it. It's too tough a grind and he never will do another series, he says now. If his movies and other endeavors in show business fail, he intends to make his living writing, lecturing and teaching. But he doesn't foresee things getting that tough.

"I HAD quite a few movie offers the past year which I could not do because of the series," says Vaughn. "I plan to concentrate on movies now, including two for my own company."

Vaughn believes "Man From U.N.C.L.E." came to an end after 3½ seasons because the fad for this type of show is over, and that copies of U.N.C.L.E. only made the fad die faster. Personally, he insists, he's not sorry. He was getting bored as an actor.

Did his political activity on Vietnam have anything to do with NBC's decision to cancel midseason? Vaughn says no.

-:-

"NEITHER NBC nor MGM ever said anything to me about my personal activity, and I doubt that the public was really aware of my stand on Vietnam anyway. Most people don't even know the name of their U.S. senators, so how many are going to know what an actor is doing outside of his TV show?" Vaughn says.

In the past six months Vaughn estimates he's received around 200 letters concerning his Vietnam stand, which is a negligible number when compared with the fan mail he gets from the U.N.C.L.E. series. Of that Vietnam mail, by the way, he says it was 100-1 in favor of his stand.

Maybe we've come to the end of an era in politics already. Since George Murphy became one of California's U.S. senators and Ronald Reagan the governor of the state, there seems to be a lack of interest in actors as politicians.

Shirley Temple Black failed in her bid for Congress, and there hasn't been any groundswell for Chuck Connors, who has made noises like a would-be politician. His new TV series, "Cowboy in Africa," is even in trouble at the TV rating polls.

EVEN THOUGH Vaughn says he wants no part of a political career, it's possible, too, that no one has asked him.

James Garner stated on a local educational TV channel recently that he'd been asked to run against Steve Allen, who two years ago was planning to run for Congress until it was found he hadn't registered soon enough as a Democrat.

Toll Expected To Mount In Span Collapse

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The toll in the collapse of a huge bridge under construction over a canyon just north of Mexico City stood at 21 confirmed dead today, but authorities predicted the toll would go higher.

Estimates of the number of workmen killed ranged from 30 to 70. The sole survivor, Angel Gutierrez Carroga, jumped into a tree on the canyon face at the collapse and was hospitalized in critical condition.

Fifteen bodies were recovered before operations were suspended for the night Tuesday, but searchers said they had located six more under the tangled steel, concrete and wood.

Mexico City newspapers speculated that faulty materials may have led to the collapse of the 395-foot "Universidad de Anahuac" bridge, but there was no official explanation of the cause.

The center span of the bridge, in Tecamachalo, just north of the Mexico City line, fell 300 feet into the Loma del Negro canyon Monday night.

The Department of Public Works in the state of Mexico said it thought the Federal Ministry of Public Works was supervising the project, but the ministry said the bridge was a private project not supervised by it.

Ohio Veterinarian Helps Fight Epidemic

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. William Wiseman of Chillicothe was one of a dozen U.S. veterinarians flown overseas last weekend to help fight Britain's epidemic of foot and mouth disease, the Animal Health Division of the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Wiseman is a division district veterinarian. The group is expected to remain in Britain 60 to 90 days.

Many German medical schools have departments of balneology that instruct students in the therapeutic uses of springwater baths.

2 IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of ERSILIA LIBERATORE, who passed away December 6, 1958:
Sleep on, Dear, good Mother, it has been nine years, Since you left our hearts filled with sadness and tears; Yours was a heart that was blithesome and gay, Scattering sunshine along the way; You know how we loved you, and yes, love you yet, Though God took you from us, we cannot forget.
Sadly missed by Husband, Children, and Grandchildren.

2 IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of ERSILIA LIBERATORE, who passed away December 6, 1958:
Sleep on, Dear, good Mother, it has been nine years, Since you left our hearts filled with sadness and tears; Yours was a heart that was blithesome and gay, Scattering sunshine along the way; You know how we loved you, and yes, love you yet, Though God took you from us, we cannot forget.
Sadly missed by Husband, Children, and Grandchildren.

You just push a button for a sharper clearer picture on Sylvania's new color TV.

That's what Stanley's big toe is doing. Pushing the AFC button (Automatic Fine-tuning Control) to get a better picture in seconds.

Before, to get a good picture, Stanley had to handle the fine-tuning dial with the nimble fingers of a safecracker.

In addition, Stanley's enjoying truer-to-life colors. Because of Sylvania's Colorbright 85° picture tube.

And Stanley knows a bargain. He bought Sylvania's lowest-priced color model with AFC. And got a handsome contemporary design cabinet, finished in walnut veneers and matching solids.

If you're interested, we'll show you this and the 21 other Sylvania color TV sets—each with an AFC button of its own.

After all, why let Stanley have all the fun?

You just push a button for a sharper clearer picture on Sylvania's new color TV.

That's what Stanley's big toe is doing. Pushing the AFC button (Automatic Fine-tuning Control) to get a better picture in seconds.

Before, to get a good picture, Stanley had to handle the fine-tuning dial with the nimble fingers of a safecracker.

In addition, Stanley's enjoying truer-to-life colors. Because of Sylvania's Colorbright 85° picture tube.

And Stanley knows a bargain. He bought Sylvania's lowest-priced color model with AFC. And got a handsome contemporary design cabinet, finished in walnut veneers and matching solids.

If you're interested, we'll show you this and the 21 other Sylvania color TV sets—each with an AFC button of its own.

After all, why let Stanley have all the fun?

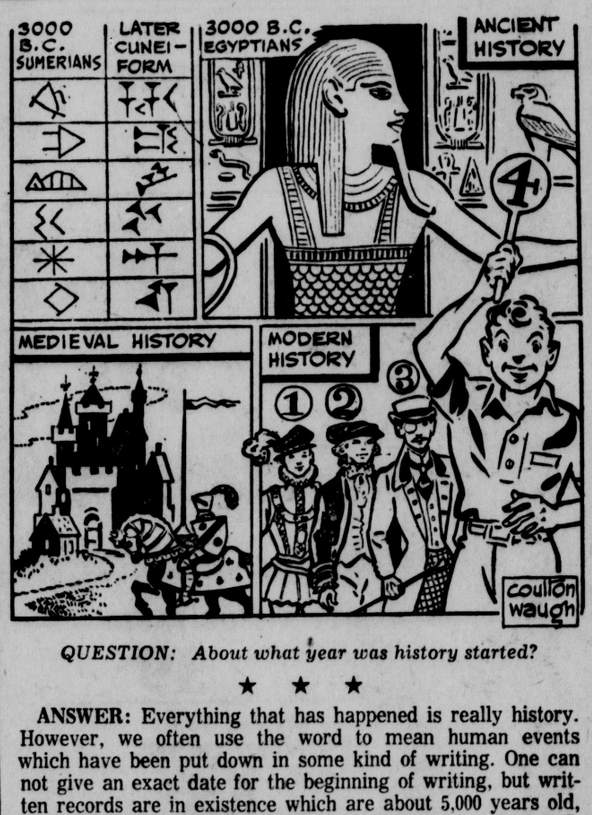
Junior Editors Quiz on HISTORY



QUESTION: About what year was history started?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Everything that has happened is really history. However, we often use the word to mean human events which have been put down in some kind of writing. One can not give an exact date for the beginning of writing, but written records are in existence which are about 5,000 years old, so this would put the beginning of history at about 3000 B.C. The earliest word writing (upper left) was developed by the Sumerians in Mesopotamia about 3000 B.C. or before; and from this came cuneiform writing, made by pressing the end of a tool into wet clay. Meanwhile the Egyptians were developing their own form of picture writing, which later was called hieroglyphic. The period of ancient history goes on to include the Greek and Roman civilizations, ending about 500 A.D. From this to about 1500 is the Medieval period, the days of knights and castles. Modern history then begins, running from about 1500, the days of the great explorers, through the beginnings of science and industry, into our own times (4).

Ohio's New Traffic Actions Will Go Into Effect Shortly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Take heed, Ohio motorists.

The state is trying to save your life—something that many others have been unable to do for themselves.

Many new laws approved by the past session of the General Assembly go into effect soon—some starting this weekend, including traffic regulations.

New motor vehicle laws are aimed at reducing traffic fatalities in Ohio, which numbered 2,605 last year. They also may help reduce the number of injured — 120.585 during 1966.

Highway safety officials say economic losses zoomed to $470 million due to 206,757 traffic accidents in Ohio last year.

A new random inspection program goes into effect Jan. 1 under direction of the state Highway Patrol. Cars will be stopped for a check of lights, horn, windshield wipers, wheels, tires, brakes, steering and exhaust systems.

Inspections will take about 10 minutes, Patrol Supt. R. M. Chiaramonte estimates, but traffic tieups will be avoided. Examinations will not be held on freeways or the turnpike, he said.

Motorists will be given 72 hours to correct defects. Stickers good for one year will be placed on vehicles found in good condition. Those failing to correct defects face a $25 fine the first time and a maximum $500 fine and 60 days in jail for subsequent violations under the new law.

Effective Saturday, motorists with between eight and 11 penalty points against them will be ordered by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles to report within 20 days for a state driving test.

Those receiving 12 points under present law are certified to local courts for license suspension or probation and license test.

Motor Vehicle Registrar Fred Rice estimates 40,000 of Ohio's 6.5 million licensed drivers reach the eight-point mark annually.

Another new law makes the person signing a minor's application for a driver permit liable jointly or individually for the wanton misconduct of a driver under 18 years of age.

Quoted from a new paperback book, "Time Capsule 1944:" "In Stockholm, Swedish youths were introduced to jitterbugging by a group of interned U.S. aviators. Said a spectator, 'I assume they get married afterwards'."

Traffic Death Trial To Open

LISBON — A Youngstown youth is scheduled for trial Monday before a Common Pleas Court jury on a charge of traffic manslaughter.

Leroy E. Smith, 19, of 1156 Donation St. is accused of "unlawfully and unintentionally" killing Lynn R. Hays, 18, of 3137 37th St. Ext., Beaver Falls.

The accident occurred at 2:05 a. m. Aug. 21 when Smith's 1960 coach skidded left of center and struck a concrete bridge on Route 165, six-tenths of a mile south of the Mahoning County line.

The affidavit against Smith charges him with reckless operation and being left of center.

Judge Joel H. Sharp, who will preside, this week directed the clerk of courts to have the sheriff summon 20 prospective jurors to report at 9 a.m. Monday. Names on the venire follow, by communities:

East Liverpool — Wilbur Purinton, 7th Ave., LaCroft; Fred J. Morgan St., Glenn St., MC 22; Thelma Viola Strauss, 201 W. 4th St., and Harriett M. Entrikin, Highland Dr., RD 2.

Wellsville — Paul Serafy, RD 1.

Lisbon — Howard Crosser, 321 W. Washington St., and Jean A. Lowery and Clifford Guy, both of RD 5. Columbiana — Carl Altomare. East Palestine—Paul Floor and Rosemary Wilson. Hanoverton — David M. Beall, John Mason and Harry Wickersham.

GOP Hope Of Young, Rep. Lukens Declares

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The "Republican Party is the hope of the young," says Rep. Donald Lukens, R-Ohio.

Lukens, speaking to University of Texas' Young Republican Club Tuesday, said his party appeals to the young ideas that are not wedded to stagnant one-party politics of the past."

Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, chairman of the board of trustees of the National Geographic Society at the time of his death, combined a half - dozen careers in his active lifetime. He was a distinguished editor, geographer, scientist, writer and administrator.

U.S. Defector Seen Psychotic By Former Wife

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Smith, the American defector whose claims to have been a Central Intelligence Agency operative are being heralded in the Soviet press, was described by his wife in a 1961 divorce action as psychotic.

The Soviets announced two months ago that Smith was in the Soviet Union. Since then he has written or been the subject of press articles purporting to relate inside information on CIA activities. His serialized memoirs ran in a Sovet magazine.

Smith claimed he had a hand in placing a bomb-laden suitcase on an airliner carrying delegates from Peking to Bandung, Indonesia, for an African-Asian conference in 1955. The plane vanished while over the ocean.

He also wrote he was convinced the CIA was involved in a "broad conspiracy" in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The State Department said Tuesday that Smith worked from 1950 to 1959 as a communications clerk in the New Delhi embassy and was earning under $6,000 when he quit. Spokesmen said he never worked for the CIA.

Mary London Smith won an uncontested divorce in 1961 after telling the Pinellas County Circuit Court, Clearwater, Fla., that a psychiatrist had found Smith was "in an acute stage of paranoia."

She also testified Smith suspected virtually everyone around him of being plotters.

State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey has previously said there would be no official rebuttal to Smith's allegations.

Beethoven did not so-title his "Emperor Waltz." The story of the titling goes that a French officer in the audience of the concerto's first public hearing proclaimed it ""an emperor among concertos." And "Emperor"" it is called to this day.

State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey has previously said there would be no official rebuttal to Smith's allegations.

The piccolo is the smallest of the wood-wind musical instruments.

Beethoven did not so-title his "Emperor Waltz." The story of the titling goes that a French officer in the audience of the concerto's first public hearing proclaimed it "'an emperor among concertos." And "Emperor'" it is called to this day.

QUESTION: - - "Is it necessary to have music at all funeral services conducted in a funeral home?"

ANSWER - - Most families prefer appropriate consoling music in conjunction with funeral services. However, each family's wishes are paramount regarding music. We counsel but never dictate.

How to shop with your husband

By ROBERTA NASH

Here are some random thoughts from one observer:

(1) Husbands are not known for patience. Tell yours how long you expect your shopping trip to take. Fair is fair. (2) Don't carry "togetherness" too far. If he's after a power drill and you want a bra, spilt up.

(3) But be punctual. If you say you'll meet in half-an-hour, make it half-an-hour. (4) And be businesslike. Much as you'd love to browse about in our lovely dress department, save it for a husbandless day.

What if Aunt Rose hates the color?

By ROBERTA NASH

I have a real live Aunt Rose who lives out-of-town and once she asked me if I'd please pick out her gifts from my local Penney's. The reason was so she could return it at her local Penney's.

Not that she returns everything I give her, of course, but it's so very comforting to know she can if she wants to.

Since Penney's has 1,700 stores across the country (and even in Hawaii), almost everybody has a local Penney's, which is a very nice arrangement. For you, for me, for Aunt Rose, and for Penney's.

THIS YEAR, GIVE HER LINK STITCH SWEATERS OF CAREFREE ACRILAN®

Perfect gift idea for the sweater collectors on your holiday list! Machine washable Acrilan® acrylic knits with novelty link stitch have a rich handmade look she'll love. She'll fancy one, two, or even a matched set in colors to go with all her favorites. In sizes 34 to 42.

Children's clothes don't stand still much. They run. And jump. And climb, and twist, and wiggle. Penney's clothes are designed with all these things very much in mind.

"Buy it here and exchange it there"

By ROBERTA NASH

Sometimes, buying birthday, holiday, and other gifts for your out-of-town friends is murder. You know what I mean.

"What if she doesn't like it?" you wonder. "What if it's the wrong size? What if they've already got one? What if etc.?"

Here's good news: Penney's has so many stores around the country that everybody on your list has a local Penney's. So anybody who wants to return the gift you sent just takes it to his local Penney's. And the Penney people there won't let him leave until he's satisfied.

Because the most important thing we sell is satisfaction.

"I'm sorry but we can't do anything for you because you have to deal directly with etc., etc., etc."

That's called "Passing the buck." It doesn't happen at Penney's. As one of our store managers told me, "The buck stops here."

Penney's stands squarely behind everything that Penney's sells. No matter what you buy, if there is anything that displeases you, we want you to bring it back. We want to make it good.

Because the most important thing we sell is satisfaction.
